Taylor Praises Beaver Gridmen at Spring Feed

Corvallis, Ore., May 24—Usually football banquets feature the close of a strenuous grid season, but Coach Kip Taylor reversed the order a bit last night by meeting with his boys around the festive board, in Memorial Union building.

The dinner, attended by the entire squad, members of the athletic department, newspapermen and others, brought to a close the spring training period which Coach Taylor characterized as the best in his career from the viewpoint of serious attention to the job in hand.

The event closed with the Cub Scout program and the introduction of Hatch Pickering who is to be the Cubmaster for the next school year. Dr. Robert E. Lantz is the retiring Cubmaster.

This was the third Cub Scout meeting of the season but tentative plans are being made for an over-night hike June 4 at the Silver Falls recreation area.

American League Games Called 'Amateur Night'

New York, May 24 (AP)—It was amateur night in the American league.

The Yankees and Browns set the tempo when they staged a wheelbarrow pushing contest between blind-folded players and a pepper game in which raw eggs were substituted for baseballs as a prelude to their game at Yankee stadium. Apparently, the players forgot to hear the umpire holler "play ball" and kept right on with their Sunday school picnic antics once the game was underway.

The Yankees won, 10 to 3, with a 13-hit display, but not until the fans had witnessed one of the weirdest games imaginable. A first inning three-run homer by Tommy Henrich, his eighth of the year, was professional enough, but there was much that was amateurish thereafter. The Browns made three errors and two wild pitches, the Yankees one error and one wild pitch.

In the fifth, Yogi Berra was apparently safe at first on a wild throw by Brownie Third Baseman Bob Dillinger. Suddenly first base Umpire Bill Grieve reversed his decision and called Berra out. Neither Berra nor First Baseman Jack Graham had touched the bag and he had to hold his final decision on the play in abeyance until somebody touched the bag.

Seconds later Bobby Brown, who was safe on an error by Pitcher Bill Kennedy, fell flat on his face between third and home, trying to score on a triple by Dick Kryhoski both scored when St. Louis Second Baseman Jerry Priddy heaved the ball wildly to the plate in the relay. Brownie Manager Zach Taylor, who just couldn't take it any longer, was ejected from the game for protesting decisions in the fourth inning.

It was just as whacky in Philadelphia. The usually steady Athletics committed five errors as the Indians came out of a slump to win a 7 to 3 decision. Ken Keltner hack in shape after a siege of influenza, led the Indians to victory with two doubles and a homer. Early Wynn held Philadelphia to six hits. The weirdness reached its height in this game when Coach Earle Mack, son of Manager Connie Mack, decided to replace starter Bill McCahan with relief Pitcher Charley Harris, then changed his mind.

But Umpire Bill McGowan insisted he stick to his guns and Harris came into the game and became the victim of a five run Cleveland rally in the fifth. Only one Cleveland run, Keltner's homer, was earned.

Everything was same in Washington until the ninth when the Senators blew their second straight game in the final inning, 3 to 1 to the up-and-coming White Sox.

Things were a little more orthodox in the afternoon games. Ellis Kinder of the Red Sox pitched a five-hit shutout, one of the best games of his career, in defeating the Tigers, 4 to 0, in Boston.

The Braves, in the only National league game scheduled, took over sole possession of first place with an 11 to 4 victory over the Cubs at Chicago as Vernon Bickford breezed to his sixth victory.

DiMaggio Status Still Uncertain After Workout

New York, May 24 (AP)—The status of Joe DiMaggio today remained as uncertain as ever.

Nobody knows just when the famous convalescent of the New York Yankees will be able to play. Even Joe refuses to hazard a guess.

One thing is certain—he is not ready right now. Not even for pinch hitting purposes.

The $90,000 slugger donned a uniform yesterday for the first time since he re-injured his ailing right heel last April 11. He engaged in a half hour's batting practice session. Then he shagged flies for 10 minutes. The net result—a handful of blisters and sore back muscles from swinging at too many pitches.

Because of that he will not take any hitting practice this afternoon. But he hopes to get in a little fielding practice.

Young Man With a Plan

Every young man faces two certainties . . . one, that he cannot work forever . . . the other, that he cannot live forever.

As a consequence he must also admit two possibilities . . . one, that old age may find him financially dependent on others . . . two, that his early death may bring privation to his family.

There is a sure way in which a young man can provide alike for himself in old age or for his family in case of early death. It is to embark upon a definite life insurance programme with an initial policy within his current means. Step by step, thereafter, he can increase his life insurance holdings to keep pace with personal advancement and growing responsibilities.

In this way he places—and keeps—his own financial future and that of his dependants beyond the hazards of mere circumstance. He becomes a "Young Man with a Plan" . . . a more substantial citizen and a happier man because of it.
