

Detroit Phone Hearing Dated

Monday, June 13, at 10:30 a.m., daylight saving time, has been set by the public utilities commission as the time for a hearing on application of the Detroit Telephone company for an increase in rates. The hearing will be at the Gun club at Detroit.

The company is asking for an increase on one-party business service of $1 a month; an increase of $1 a month on two-party business service; and increases in residential services amounting to $1 a month for individual lines, 75 cents for two-party service, and 50 cents for four-party service, as well as increases in non-recurring charges.

The utilities commissioner states in the order for hearing that the telephone company is rebuilding its entire system with balanced metalized circuits, which will be used to give common battery service as each circuit is completed, and will be used further to give dial telephone service as soon as a dial board can be installed and cut over.

The entire operation of the company is being changed.

Search Made for Two Missing Girls

Tacoma, Wash., May 26 (AP)—Authorities today began an intensive search for two girls, 11 and 12, after the father of one of them told sheriff's officers he feared his daughter had been kidnapped.

The girls are Mary Frances Small, 12, and Erstine Peluso, 11.

Neither girl has been seen since yesterday afternoon after they left St. Leo's school here about 3 p.m. However, sheriff's officers said the girls were not together when they disappeared.

The sheriff's office notified local police and the state patrol. An all night search for both girls failed.

Mothers, Daughters Served Dayton Tea

Dayton—Mother and Daughter tea was held at the Dayton Union high school sponsored by the class of Future Homemakers of America.

Miss Barbara Will sang a solo, accompanied by Joyce Crawley.

The style show was based on the television idea, and showed the garments made by the girls throughout the year. The girls modeled their own clothing.

Following the style show, tea was served. There were three mothers and one hostess at each of the individual tables.

Miss Mildred Dasher of Salem, assistant state supervisor of the FHA, took pictures to be put on slides; which will be filed at the FHA library in the state library in Salem. Joanne Lehman gave a reading.

The class exhibits were on display about the gymnasium. Gifts were presented to Mrs. Harry Sherman who had been chosen as the class mother for the year; to Miss Marjoraine Getzelman, who is the class advisor; to Lorene Williamson, who is the class president; and to Theola Grover, who made the artificial flowers for decoration.

Mrs. Hugh Kau showed a picture of Crater Lake, which she had made in colored embroidery thread using a sewing machine. Mrs. Kau has been noted for her lovely work in painting and other types. She lives in the Pleasantdale area.

Gervais—Mr. and Mrs. Antoine DeJardin accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Julian DeJardin of Stayton, spent several days with their brother, Joseph DeJardin of Taft.

Wine Stewardess—Mrs. Josephine Molera, above, inspecting the label on a bottle of wine, buys $350,000 worth of liquor a year for the Edge-water Beach hotel, Chicago.

Beer and Gambling Banned for Round-Up

Crawfordsville, May 26—Directors of the Calapooia Round-Up association have voted to ban the beer and gambling concessions at the Calapooia Round-up this year, following suggestions made by the cowboys and cowgirls who participate in the big event each year. The directors report that the concessions have been highly profitable but that the public interest requires their elimination. This year's round-up will be the 32nd annual round-up and will be held July 3 and 4 at Crawfordsville.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Two Heads Are Better Than One (Or None)

I get a kick out of buying stuff down at the hardware store. And I always ask for a little advice from one of the two brothers who run it, because I know beforehand exactly what the answer will be.

Like when I needed a new garden hose. "Henry," I says, "how about this new plastic hose—is it really as good as rubber?" "Well," he says, "I'm inclined to think it is—but you'd better ask Tom."

I found Tom in back and asks him the same question. "Well," says Tom, "in my opinion it is—but you'd better ask Henry." "I already have," I says, "and when you two cautious old codgers agree I'd bet my life on the decision."

From where I sit, your own opinion is worth a lot—but so's the other fellow's. That's why I keep saying, over and over, let's be tolerant of the other person's point of view—whether it's on politics or farming—or whether you like milk shakes and he prefers a temperate glass of beer.

Drop Truman's Hot Potatoes

Washington, May 26 (AP)—Congress seemed about ready today to shelve until 1950 most of the political hot potatoes of President Truman's program.

Marked for delay until next year—when most of the members will be beating the bushes for re-election—are measures involving civil rights, farm subsidies, health insurance, tax increases and social security expansion.

Congress may be voting on some of these while primary campaigns are under way. It probably will have written its record one way or the other on all of them by the time the voters decide in November of next year whether to keep the Democrats in power or give the Republicans control of one or both houses.

Senator Lucas of Illinois, the democratic leader, indicated to reporters that the administration will consider it a job well done if senate action can be finished by July 31 on three major items: House-approved reciprocal trade legislation, a substitute for the Taft-Hartley labor law and the North Atlantic treaty.

House leaders are trying to round this program out with approval of long range housing and aid to education bills already approved by the senate, as well as Taft-Hartley repeal.

Albany Taxpayers Face Heavy Budget

Albany—Albany taxpayers will finance a 1949-50 municipal budget that is in fact $10,700 lower than the current budget, but the city budget committee recommended nevertheless that Albany cast about for additional sources of revenue other than taxation.

The budget as adopted calls for total expenditures of $355,196.13, offset by estimated cash income other than from taxation totaling $204,500 and $37,192.93 to be left on hand in the general fund.

This leaves a total of $113,503.20 to be raised by the special 2-mill park and recreation fund levy and $12,049 required for bond retirement and interest, both outside the 6 per cent limitation, leaving $87,903.47 to be raised within that limit.

Amity—Miss Dorothy Rogers, of "Dorothy's Beauty Salon," is enjoying a vacation trip to Alaska. Mrs. Dwight McKenney is in charge of the shop in her absence.
