Lambs to Have Day at Turner

Lambs will have their day June 4 at Turner for the 12th annual Marion county fat lamb and wool show. Four-H, FFA, and open classes have been arranged.

Henry Ahrens, Turner, general chairman of the show, states that "All exhibits should be on the grounds by 10 o'clock, standard time, with judging to start at 10:30."

All Marion county 4-H sheep project members are encouraged by Anthol Riney, county extension agent 4-H, to participate in the five classes set up for 4-H members and the open class wool fleece exhibit.

The classes are divided into fat and breeding lambs with classes for single fat ewe lambs, single wether and pen of three lambs, ewes or wethers.

Breeding classes are arranged for single ewe and ram lambs. Wool fleeces are to be of the 1949 shear and be a ewe fleece. Fleeces will be divided into three classes for the judging by Ray Ward, manager, Pacific Wool Growers, Portland.

Sheep classes will be judged by Chauncey Hubbard, Corvallis, Edward Gath, Turner; Ronald Hogg and Claude Steusloff, Salem, all prominent sheep breeders in this area.
