Miss Pollock Mr. Fedje Engaged

The engagement of Miss Polly Pollock of Portland to Alfred M. Fedje of Salem was announced Tuesday evening at the Delta Gamma sorority at Willamette university.

The news was revealed at the house meeting. A sign on the door asked who was spilling the beans, beans being scattered over the floor, and a flower arrangement concealed an engagement ring. Three chapter members sang "Some Sunday Morning," the names of the couple being used at the end of the song.

The wedding is planned for next year.

Miss Pollock is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Pollock of Portland. She is a junior on the campus this year. Mr. Fedje is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Roy A. Fedje of Salem and is a first semester senior at Willamette.

Woodburn—Miss Betty Jo De Haan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward De Haan of Woodburn and a senior in the local high school, was installed as worthy adviser for Evergreen assembly, No. 12, Order of Rainbow for Girls, on Wednesday.

Salem Work in Art Exhibition

The Portland Art museum's exhibition of the work of the artists of Oregon, 1949, has been announced to open June 25. In the meantime, nearly 600 entry cards have been received from 273 artists in Oregon, Washington and New York. Fifty Oregon communities are represented, with Portland the residence of 154 of the artists, Salem the home of 15, and Eugene of 10. Nine towns in the Columbia river area on the Washington side are included.

This exhibition is a departure from the former series of all-Oregon exhibitions in which one work from each entrant was hung. As the new exhibition is set up, all works will be considered by a distinguished committee of selection, who members will choose those qualified to be shown. The jury will consist of Otto Karl Bach, director, the Denver Art museum, Daniel S. Defenbacher, director, the Walker Art center, and the director of the Portland Art museum ex-officio.

PAST PRESIDENTS club of Hal Hibbard auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans, will meet Friday at the home of Mrs. Charles O. Wilson, 701 North Cottage, luncheon to be at 12:30 o'clock.

The group made plans to secure drapes and bedspreads for the chapter house. Mrs. Albert T. Anderson is temporary chairman of the newly formed group and another meeting will be held the fourth Monday of June.

To Girls State

Two girls have been named by Capital Unit, No. 9, American Legion auxiliary, to attend the annual Girls State, sponsored by the department auxiliary for Oregon, at Willamette university, June 13 to 20.

Miss Dwyn Anne Herberger, junior at Sacred Heart academy and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Herberger, 2405 Mason; and Miss Marilyn Yvonne Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Hall, 2490 South Church, and a student at Salem high school, are the two selected, it is announced by Mrs. Ray Bassett, chairman for the Girls State from the auxiliary.

Girls State is conducted annually for training in government and citizenship, auxiliaries throughout the state assisting the project.

Two Birthday Parties Set

Two birthday parties for children are on the late week's calendar.

Susan Fisher, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Fisher, will be feted on the occasion of her fifth birthday, Friday, a party for a group of her little friends being planned for the afternoon. The young honoree's two grandmothers, Mrs. Alice Fisher of Corvallis and Mrs. D. A. Reeves of Lebanon, also will be here for the occasion.

Jimmy King, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. T. King, will be seven years old Saturday and a picnic supper in the garden is planned between 3:30 and 5 o'clock that afternoon, about 20 of his friends being invited.

Mrs. Grover L. Bellinger and Mrs. William Lidbeck will assist Mrs. King in serving the group.

Van Dyke-Etheridge

The marriage of Miss Billie Etheridge to Harold Van Dyke was solemnized Wednesday evening at a simple service in the First Christian church, Dr. Dudley Strain, church pastor, reading the vows at 9 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Behrbaum attended the couple. The bride wore a green suit with white accessories and corsage and Mrs. Behrbaum wore a white suit with green accessories and corsage.

The couple will reside in Salem. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Cleo Carter of Bend. Mr. Van Dyke came to Salem from San Diego.

Jaycee-ettes Entertain

The Salem Woman's club was the scene of a gala party Wednesday evening when the Salem Jaycee-ettes entertained visiting clubs from Albany, Silverton and Oregon City. Guests were greeted at the door by a life-size ringmaster pointing to the "Jaycee-ette Big Top." Circus posters were placed about the room. Drawings of animals and a clown done by Mrs. Tom Pomeroy and Mrs. Melvin Bed-saul drew much comment.

Mrs. Donald Cooper, general chairman of the affair, was mistress of ceremonies. A piano number was given by Miss Betty Jo Davenport, accordion numbers by Tom Jeffries, and vocal solos by Bruce King and Mrs. Don Judson.

A dessert supper was served with Mrs. Homer Stiffler and Mrs. Mary Hoover pouring. The table was centered with an arrangement of flowers flanked by candles setting on circus tubs.

Impromptu achievement talks were given by Mrs. William Duncan from Silverton, Mrs. Kenneth Graham from Albany, and Mrs. V. H. Burghardt from Oregon City, who are presidents of their respective clubs.

Cards were in play during the evening with Mrs. Howard Morrison of Silverton winning high score in bridge and Mrs. Jack Eastman of Silverton high in pinochle. Punch and popcorn were served late in the evening from gaily painted circus vendors trays.

Special guests of the evening were Mrs. Kenneth Mather and Mrs. Robert Woodburn.

NEIGHBORS of Woodcraft will meet Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the Woman's club house, 460 North Cottage. Mrs. Gussie Shaw, guardian neighbor of the order, will preside for the business and social evening.
