Rita Gets Boss In Aly Khan

Cannes, France, May 26 (AP)—When Rita Hayworth marries Prince Aly Khan she won't be asked if she agrees to obey him. She'll be told flatly he's the boss.

The French civil wedding ceremony, which the couple will have, says "the husband is the head of the family."

The marriage of the American movie actress and the heir to the spiritual leadership of the Ismaili religious sect is set for Friday.

It will be in the newly-white-washed marriage room of the tiny City hall in Vallauris—a tiny hillside village about two miles from the Mediterranean.

The couple, to avoid crowds, had wanted the ceremony in the prince's sumptuous Chateau de L'Horizon. The French government, however, refused to grant the necessary special permission. Under French law all marriages must be in City hall except in cases of grave emergency.

The ceremony will be read by communist Mayor Paul Derigon. He says he is happy to be honored by officiating at the ceremony.

The Library of Congress is now the largest library in the world occupying two buildings providing 414 miles of bookshelves and covering almost 36 acres of floor space.

New Ambassador — David K. E. Bruce (above), former ECA head in Paris, appointed ambassador to France.

Contract for planting of the lawn was let recently to a Salem firm, the Aladdin Landscape Maintenance Service, and work on the planting is to start this week or the first of next week.
