McKay Supports Poppy Drive

Gov. McKay threw his wholehearted support back of the poppy sale which opened in Salem Friday and will be continued through Saturday.

The drive, sponsored by veteran organizations, is held to raise funds for rehabilitation work among ex-service men and women.

"A dime, or any larger amount you wish to contribute," said the governor, "buys an emblem for the coat lapel and that emblem will show your interest in and loyalty to our veterans. All the money raised from the poppy sale goes to the rehabilitation fund and I know the people will generously respond to this worthwhile cause."

"This is a case where so little individually can do so much collectively," he said.
