Watson Pleads Guilty To Fraud Charge

John Robert Watson, 20, was held by the sheriff's office Saturday for grand jury action on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. He pleaded guilty to the charge in Silverton disict court.

He also signed a confession for Salem police to a charge of lar-ceny involving the theft of a purse belonging to Marion Fox. The purse was alleged to have ontained approximately $170.

Both charges against Watson were brought while he was serv-ing in the navy. Later, he signed up with the army, and upon his release, he was arrested by San Francisco authorities and held

Legion to Pass Up Fourth Of July Fete for Convention

Because of the amount of work involved in staging a suc-cessful state convention, Capital post No. 9 of the American Legion will not sponsor any celebration here for the Fourth of July. The convention comes just a month later, from August 3 to 6, and special entertainment is being arranged for delegates and the Entertainment highlight this nmer will be an outdoor show at the state fairgrounds the night of August 5 under the di-rection of Dave Hoss. Negotiations are underway to obtain topflight stage and radio stars, augmented by nationally known vaudeville acts for the two-hour stage show.

Among some of the more important events scheduled in connection with the convention will be the appearance of crack troops from the west coast mili-tary installations who will take part in the parade together with many drum corps from various Oregon posts.
Plans are rapidly taking shape, according to John C. Ker-rick, general chairman of the 31st annual department meet-ing, with business sessions for the Legion and Legion auxiliary to be held in the legislative chambers of the state house. Mrs. Laura Goode, Portland. national president of the Legion

Mrs. Gladys Bacon, Capital Unit No. 9, is general chairman for all auxiliary convention activicrowds in the history of Amity grade school attended the eighth Convention headquarters have
