

More Salem Groups Choose New Officers at Recent Annual Elections

TWO brides-elect have announced July dates for their weddings. Miss Mary Massee has announced Sunday, July 31, as the date for her marriage to James Struck of Parkdale. The ceremony will be an afternoon one at 4 o'clock in the First Congregational church. The engagement of the couple was announced this past school year at Oregon State college where both are students. Miss Massee being a member of Alpha Phi sorority, Mr. Struck a member of Beta Theta Pi. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Frank A. Massee of Salem. Mr. Struck the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Struck of Parkdale.

Lewis-Myers
Sunday, July 17, is announced as the date for the wedding of Miss Janice Lea Myers and Lloyd Vernon Lewis of Eugene. The ceremony will take place at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at Terrace Farm, the Eola country home of the bride-elect's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Burton A. Myers, with Dr. Chester W. Hamblin of the First Presbyterian church officiating. The reception following will be on the terrace. Announcement of the engagement was made in January. Mr. Lewis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Lewis of Merrill. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon. Miss Myers, former student at Willamette university and University of Oregon, is an active member of the Salem Sprinters club. The couple plan to live in Eugene, Mr. Lewis being in business there.

Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae are meeting Thursday evening at the Fairmount Hill home of Mrs. Frank J. Burke.

On Monday night, May 30, at 8:15 o'clock, Miss Aldene Gould will be presented in senior recital at Waller Hall auditorium.

Miss Gould, who will receive a bachelor of music degree this spring, has been active in various organizations on the Willamette campus. She is a member of Delta Gamma sorority and served as president during her junior year. She also served as president of Beta Alpha Gamma, sophomore women's honorary; is a member of Cap and Gown, senior women's honorary, and Mu Phi Epsilon, women's music honor society. She was a member of a cappella choir during her four years at Willamette, and held the offices of vice president and secretary.

This recital, which is open to the public without charge, will be given as partial fulfillment of the degree of bachelor of music.

The board of officers for the Salem Lions club auxiliary will meet for luncheon Tuesday at 1 p.m. in the Golden Pheasant, Mrs. Jacob Fuhrer presiding.

A group from the Salem Lions club auxiliary will go to McMinnville next Wednesday evening to attend installation of officers in the new auxiliary there. Mrs. A. J. Crose of Salem will conduct the installation. Others planning to go from here are Mrs. Jacob Fuhrer, retiring president of the local auxiliary; Mrs. Wayne Doughton, incoming president for the Salem group; Mrs. Harry W. Scott, Mrs. L. J. Stewart, Mrs. Stanley S. Smith.

Chadwick chapter, No. 37, Order of Eastern Star, will meet for a party on the fifth floor of the Masonic temple, Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock. Dancing will be enjoyed and other entertainment provided.

Miss Vogl Bride

Miss Alice Mae Vogl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Vogl, and George B. Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy M. Watson, exchanged their marriage vows this morning at a ceremony solemnized in St. Vincent de Paul church at 9:30 o'clock, the Rev. George O'Keefe officiating at a double ring ceremony.

Pink snapdragons and greenery were used in decorating the church. For the music, Wayne Meusey played the organ and Misses Dolores and Shirley Koutney sang, accompanied by Mr. Meusey.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of ivory slipper satin, designed with sweetheart neckline, a scalloped waist and court train. The fingertip veil of illusion was arranged from a Mary Stuart crown. For her flowers the bride carried a fan-shaped bouquet of white carnations and pink rosebuds centered with a white orchid.

Miss Florian Walcott was honor attendant and she wore a light lavender broadened gown with a crownless hat in the same color as the dress. Her flowers were a nosegay of early summer flowers.

Miss Leato Clair Viboert, wearing a light lavender broadened gown and a crownless hat in matching color, was the bridesmaid, and her flowers also were a nosegay.

Miss Annette Dornbusch was junior attendant for the bride. She wore a green taffeta gown and carried a nosegay.

Clinton Wiemals was the best man and acting as ushers were Donald Weile, Don Koonce and Jim Hooges.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Vogl wore a two-piece afternoon dress of dark brown print with brown accessories, and her flowers were yellow rosebuds and white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress with navy blue accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds and white carnations.

The reception this afternoon was in the St. Vincent de Paul hall. Mrs. Zeno Weile cut the bride's cake. Mrs. Steve Michael and Mrs. Fred Moriarty poured. Miss Helen Ritchey had charge of the guest book. Miss Esther Waiters and Miss Marjorie Wilsey were in charge of the gifts table. Assisting about the room were Miss Helen Miller, Miss Carol Michael of Portland, Misses Shirley and Dolores Koutney.

For going away the bride wore a figured navy blue dress with gray accessories and her corsage of orchids.

Following a trip to scenic places in Oregon the couple will be at home in Salem.

NEW PRESIDENT for the Salem branch, American Association of University Women, is Miss Elise Schroeder, the group announcing new officers following its meeting last evening. (Kennell-Ellis studio photo)

AAUW'S Election

New officers for the Salem branch of the American Association of University Women were elected at the meeting of the group last evening.

Miss Elise Schroeder is the new president and serving with her will be Mrs. Ervin Potter as vice president; Mrs. Gordon Krueger as secretary; Miss Constance Weinman as treasurer; Mrs. Charles Layport, student loan chairman. The retiring officers included Mrs. Vernon Wiscarson, president; Miss Schroeder, vice president; Mrs. Robert Corey, secretary; Mrs. Arthur Bone, treasurer; Mrs. Ralph Dobbs, student loan chairman.

The Friday meeting was a program and social honoring senior women of Willamette university, an annual event for the branch.

A panel of foreign students in the political science department at the University of Oregon presented the program.

At the business meeting the branch voted to give another $100 scholarship to Miss Aldene Aydelotte, student at the Oregon College of Education in Monmouth. Miss Aydelotte also won the $100 scholarship given by the AAUW last year.

The Friday event closed the season for the AAUW members who will resume their meetings and programs in the fall.

Child study group of the American Association of University Women is to meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Gordon Carl, Kingwood Heights, Dr. Lucille Fortner to be the guest speaker.

INSTALLED THIS WEEK as the new worthy adviser for the Order of Rainbow for Girls, Chadwick assembly, was Miss Gladys Beck. (Jensen-Miller studio photo)

AT A home wedding this afternoon Miss Nina June White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. White, was married to Glenn Whitmarsh of Chico, Calif., son of Mrs. Ruth Whitmarsh of Chico, the rites being solemnized at 4 o'clock at the White home on Cascade drive. Blue delphiniums and white peonies in baskets were arranged at the fireplace before which the service was read and roses were used in decorating the room.

The Rev. Lloyd T. Anderson, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated at the wedding.

The bride wore a street-length white dress with navy accessories and a corsage of orchids. Mr. White gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Robert Dickson (Betty White) was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a pastel blue dress, street length, and a band of white carnations and pink bouvardia in her hair.

Vernon White, brother of the bride, was best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. White wore a lavender and white sheer print with a corsage of gardenias and shattered carnations.

At the reception following, Mrs. Jesse Fowler (Evelyn White), sister of the bride, cut the cake and Mrs. Clifton Reop poured. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Clinton Page, cousin of the bride, and Miss Elva Lough, in charge of the gifts table; Mrs. Clarence Appelgate, cousin of the bride, who passed the guest book and Miss Joyce McClendon, who assisted about the rooms.

The couple will be at home at 446 West Second street, Chico, Calif. The bride attended Salem schools and Mr. Whitmarsh attended Alameda schools and was in the army during the war.

PORTLAND TEA OF INTEREST

Invitations have been received here for a tea to be given by Portland alumnae of Chi Omega sorority on June 7 to honor Mrs. John J. Hess, new president of the Portland Hellenic and a member of the sorority.

The tea will be at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Goodall, 414 S. W. Edgecliff road, Portland.

Invited from Salem are officers of the City Panhellenic, of which Mrs. G. Herbert Smith is president; Mrs. C. R. Nelson, Panhellenic adviser at Willamette university, and the president and representative from each group having membership in the City Panhellenic here.

Mrs. W. C. Dyer, Sr., Mrs. Earl Snell and Mrs. Francis T. Wade, all of Salem, will be assisting at the tea.

Piano pupils of Miss Dorothy Pearce are to play in recital Tuesday evening at the Pearce residence at 8 o'clock.

Those taking part in the program will be Kathleen Busick, Beverly Benner, Earl Eyre, Roberta Eyre, Janet Hamblin, Judith Hume, Roberta Howe (of Dallas), Anne Heltzel, Aloha Schaefer, Muriel Steustloff, Elaine Stanley, Jean Spaulding.

Refreshments will be served following the program.

Wedding Friday

The First Congregational church, decorated in pink and white gladioluses, was the scene for a pretty wedding last evening when Miss Barbara Louise Robinson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Robinson of Gooding, Idaho, was married to Stanley D. Ryals, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oren F. Ryals, Sr., of Salem. Dr. Daniel Schulze of Willamette university read the vows at 8 o'clock before a large gathering of relatives and friends.

For music, Lloyd Powell and Miss Norvada Smedley sang and Alice Rose Jones was at the organ.

Lighting the tapers were Misses Colleen Whiteman and Wesley Woodard.

The bride's wedding dress had a bodice of lace, with scalloped neckline and long sleeves, and an organly skirt, full with train, with two lace panels in front and back. The illusion veil was arranged from clusters of pearlized orange blossoms at either side of the head. For her flowers the bride carried an arm bouquet of pink roses. Dr. Robinson gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Kenneth Thompson of Twin Falls, Idaho, was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a gown of pink organly, designed with scalloped neckline, and she carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations and pink sweet peas.

Miss Wesley Woodard of Boise, Idaho, Miss Betty Cummings of Palo Alto, Calif., Miss Shirley Ambler of Portland and Miss Colleen Whiteman of Hood River were the bridesmaids. They all wore blue organly frocks fashioned with scalloped necklines, and all carried nosegays of pink and white carnations and pink sweet peas.

Oren F. Ryals, Jr., was best man for his brother. Ushers were Russell Robinson, Jesse Jones, Stuart Compton and Ray Fedje.

The reception following was at the Chi Omega house. Miss Joan Thomas and Miss Jean Gilmer served the cake. Mrs. Paul Jarrett of Portland poured. Assisting at the reception were Miss Virginia Atkinson as hostess, and Miss Mary Libby and Miss Lizabeth Trullinger, who had charge of the gifts table.

Pink and white gladioluses were used in decorating the reception rooms and the centerpiece was of roses.

For traveling the bride wore a brown and white check suit with dark brown collar and cuffs, and a beige hat trimmed in dark brown, and beige hat cinnamon accessories.

Following a trip to the Oregon beaches the couple will be at home in Salem. The bride attended the Gooding high school and Willamette university where she is a member of Chi Omega. Mr. Ryals attended Salem schools and Willamette and is a member of Beta Theta Pi.

ELECTED THIS WEEK as president of Unit No. 126, American Legion auxiliary, was Mrs. Bert A. Walker, who has been active in the group since its organization. (Jensen-Miller studio photo)

PLANS for an all-parish reception to honor the Rev. and Mrs. George H. Swift are under way by groups in St. Paul's Episcopal church, the reception being given the evening of June 14 at the parish house. The event honors Rev. Mr. Swift upon his 20th anniversary with the parish, and also the observance commemorates the centennial of the acquisition of property for St. Paul's church.

Glenn S. Paxson, Mrs. Frank H. Spears, Mrs. George Weller and Mrs. W. H. Lytle are the general committee in charge for the reception. All gifts of the church are assisting with arrangements for decorations, tables and invitations.

The evening's program will begin with a vespers and confirmation service at the church at 7:30 o'clock, the Rt. Rev. Benjamin D. Dagwell, bishop of the Oregon diocese, to conduct the confirmation and to give a talk on the centennial of the church.

The reception will be at 8:30 o'clock. Preceding the evening service the wives of the vestrymen are entertaining at a dinner for members of the vestry and for Rev. and Mrs. Swift, the event to be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Shepard.

St. Paul's guild, St. Paul's Episcopal church, is to meet Wednesday for a no-host luncheon in the parish house at 12:30 o'clock.

MISS JEAN HERRING is the new honor queen for the local Bethel of Job's Daughters, installation to come next month. (Jensen-Miller studio photo)

Next week-end will attract many parents and friends to Corvallis for the annual commencement of Oregon State college which will take place June 6.

Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay will be among those attending the ceremonies, their younger daughter, Miss Mary Lou McKay, being a member of the graduating class. Governor McKay is on the commencement program to extend greetings to the graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar I. Paulson will be among those from here going to the commencement event, their daughter, Mrs. Leonard Rinearson, Jr., being a member of the class. Also going from Salem will be Mr. and Mrs. Hubbell Young, their daughter, Miss June Young, being among the graduates.

Others going from Salem for the commencement week-end are Mrs. Kathleen Caplan, whose son, John Caplan, is graduating with high honors in the school of engineering; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gahlsdorf, whose son, Richard J. Gahlsdorf, is a member of the graduating class; and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Probert, whose son, Roger Probert, is a member of the graduating class.