Yakima, Wash., May 30—Before one of the best crowds of the season—approximately 3559 persons—the Salem Senators and the Yakima Packers split a Sunday double-header. Since the Bears won the Saturday night encounter 11 to 5, the series stands at 3 to 2 for the home-town sluggers. The two clubs will wind up their competition with a Memorial day doubleheader Monday night.

The Bears, boasting a fat 316 team batting average, the best in the loop, smacked Ray McNulty and Jim Osborn for 18 solid blows Saturday night with McNulty taking the loss.

Bus Sporer went the route for the Senators in the first game Sunday night as he limited Yakima to five hits. And while the big right hander had control difficulties at times, the hitting support given him was more than sufficient. The Soloms drove Teddy Savarese, one of the Bears' prize pitchers, from the mound in the third after Bud Peterson had opened the frame with a home run over Stayton-The Stayton Ameri-
