

Capital Women

Edited by MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

6—Capital Journal, Salem, Oregon, Friday, June 10, 1949

Ross-Scott Wedding This Afternoon

A wedding of special interest to Willamette university friends was an event of this afternoon when Miss Miriam Eileen Scott, daughter of Mrs. G. R. Scott of La Jolla, Calif., was married to Robert G. Ross, son of Mrs. M. F. Teter of Salem.

Both the young couple are juniors at Willamette university, majoring in English.

The ceremony this afternoon took place at 2 o'clock in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church, the Rev. George H. Swift officiating. White carnations decorated the chapel for the service.

The bride wore an aqua Irish linen suit with matching hat trimmed with sweet peas, gray accessories and a nosegay of white and salmon colored sweet peas.

Miss LaFyrne Showacy was the honor attendant. She wore a yellow linen suit with nosegay of white and lavender sweet peas.

Alfred Laue was best man. Joe Power and Stan Hawk were the ushers.

The bride's mother, who came north for the wedding, wore a pink suit and accessories and corsage of white gladioluses and pink roses. The bridegroom's mother was in gray with corsage of Talisman roses.

About 40 friends and relatives were present for the wedding.

Following a trip to the Oregon coast the couple will be at home at 830 North Commercial, planning to complete their education at Willamette next year.

VFW Auxiliary's Meeting Reported

Meadowlark auxiliary to Post 6102, Veterans of Foreign Wars, met Wednesday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Bill Kelso, for a business meeting. Mrs. Ronald McLain was initiated into membership.

Results of the rummage sale and poppy sale were given by Mrs. Wilber Wieprecht and Mrs. Joe Hopkins, respectively.

Mrs. James Lucas was appointed committee chairman for the bazaar to be given later in the year.

The annual picnic will be held July 10 at Dallas park. Mrs. Ronald McLain was appointed chairman of the picnic committee, aided by Mrs. Joe Hopkins and Mrs. Wilber Wieprecht. The auxiliary voted to make night stand covers for the men at Camp White hospital near Medford.

The next meeting will be a social at the home of Mrs. Harold Beresford, June 22.

MILL CITY—United in Marriage

United in marriage at a home ceremony Saturday, May 28, were Miss Helen Scott of Toole, Utah and Glen Wade Roten. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. W. Watkins and took place at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Mattie Murdock.

The bride wore a gray gabardine suit with white accessories. Standing with the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson, Jr., of Astoria.

Following was a reception. The couple will make their home in Detroit. Mr. Roten served three years in the service, 16 months overseas.

June Bride—Wed the morning of June 2 was Mrs. Harold Gardner, the former Jeanne Demytt. The service took place in St. Joseph's Catholic church. The bride is the daughter of Leo J. Demytt, Mr. Gardner the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Creasy. (Jesten-Miller studio picture).

Campus Clippings

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

By JEAN SWIFT

"Turnabout's fair play" was the tuneful tempo of the annual Mortar Board ball held in McArthur Court, Saturday evening. The lady escorts took the lead at the start of the evening when they called for their dates at the fraternity houses. According to the rules of turnabout day, the boys kept their dates waiting a fashionable length of time before they proceeded to the dance.

During the intermission, Kwama, the sophomore women's honorary, tapped the 30 outstanding freshman women for membership. Qualifications for this honorary are high scholarship, participation in activities and strong school spirit. Among the girls tapped was Jeanne Hoffman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George S. Hoffman of Salem. During Memorial weekend, an action packed preview of the 1949 Oregon football team was seen by John R. Caughell and Rev. George H. Swift who were in Eugene for an executive board meeting of the Oregon Dads' association. Rev. Mr. Swift will deliver the baccalaureate address to the University of Oregon graduates on Sunday, June 19.

University president, Dr. Harry K. Newburn, installed the new class officers and members of the executive council of the ASUO at a banquet given at the Eugene hotel last week. Bob Weber was installed as president of the senior class and Don Pickett took the oath of sophomore representative to the executive council. The activities of the varsity golf team have ended along with the other spring sports. Bob Sederstrom played with the top six team members this season. The '49ers have planned out their plans for their senior picnic which will take place following their final exams a week from Friday. In addition to preparing for their finals, senior class members are trying to find time to pick up their tickets and announcements for graduation. . . their thoughts constantly turned toward vacations, jobs and the future.

Save Those Precious Hosiery!

Hose Mending!

Good nylons are expensive! Why not have your nylons mended? Have them repaired at . . .

Miller's
DOWNSTAIRS

Plan for Reception—Among committee members from St. Anne's guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church planning the decorations for the all-parish reception next Tuesday evening are these: Left to right, Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, Mrs. Louis Gerlinger, Mrs. Arthur Knox, Mrs. Bertram Thomson, president of the guild, and Mrs. George Weller. The reception will honor the church rector, the Rev. George H. Swift, upon the occasion of his 20th anniversary with the parish, and Mrs. Swift; and also will commemorate the 100th anniversary of the acquisition of the church property. The reception will be given between 8:30 and 10 o'clock in the church parish house. All guilds of the church are assisting with details for the event. (Jesten-Miller studio picture)

CDA Installs Officers

Installation of officers of Court Capital City, Catholic Daughters of America, was conducted by Mrs. Mary LaDou of Mt. Angel, district deputy. Mrs. Margaret Brown was installed as grand regent for the coming year. The court voted to dispense with business meetings for the months of July and August, and also to have one meeting a month beginning with the September meeting. The court will cooperate with the Knights of Columbus in having a picnic at Olinger field in July.

An appeal for blood donors for the Red Cross was made by Mrs. F. E. Kenyon, chairman of the Red Cross committee. Eight members responded to go to the bank on Tuesday, June 14.

Mrs. H. E. Corey, Junior CDA chairman, announced the opening of the Junior camp at Silver Creek Falls park on June 12 and continuing for one week. Thirty-five girls plan to attend the camp this year. Mrs. Edmund Silbernagel will be the registered nurse in attendance at the camp.

At the close of the business meeting refreshments were served by the committee in charge, Mrs. M. L. Jones chairman.

WOODBURN—The June meeting of the Presbyterian Aid society was held Wednesday afternoon in the church social room with Miss Martha Black presiding. The meeting opened with group singing with Mrs. E. Kay Fenton at the piano and the devotional service was led by Mrs. James Morrison. Biblical fathers were named in response to roll call.

Routine business was transacted and reports were given by the secretary, Mrs. E. J. Allen, and the treasurer, Mrs. H. F. Butterfield. During the program the members worked on tea towels for the church.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. H. F. Butterfield and Mrs. Henry Stange with Mrs. A. G. Douglas and Miss Martha Black presiding at the urns.

IN OSWEGO the first of the week to attend the meeting of the Women's auxiliary for the Episcopal church diocese were Mrs. George H. Swift, president of the diocesan group; Mrs. George Corwin, Miss Elizabeth Porter, Miss Marjorie Harris and Mrs. Lawrence Osterman.

VISITOR arriving this week for a visit at the Glen Creek drive home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ellis is Mrs. Ellis' sister, Mrs. Floyd Pierson of Flint, Mich. Mrs. Pierson came west by way of Los Angeles, stopping also at San Pedro to visit a brother, Nelson Hewitt. She will be here two weeks.

IT'S NEW!

Theme Nylons with soft spun cotton soles for women with extra sensitive feet . . . all the new shades!

$1.75 pr. Miller's

Recent Wedding At McMinnville

Dayton—In a candlelight ceremony at the First Christian church, at McMinnville, May 27, at 8 o'clock in the evening, Doris Mitchell Drake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Ray Mitchell, McMinnville, was married to David D. Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Art Robinson of Dayton.

Rev. Grant Cole of McMinnville read the double ring ceremony. The church was decorated with bouquets of pink peonies, sweet peas and roses. There were five candelabras and Mrs. Agnes Jensen and Miss Marie Robinson, the bridegroom's cousin, lighted the tapers. Mrs. G. Lindsay played the wedding music and Miss Shirley Todd of Dayton, sang.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore wedding gown of blue satin, made colonial style, and wore a coronet of flowers in her hair. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and carnations.

Mrs. Jay Beeler of Amity was matron of honor, and wore a rose taffeta dress in colonial style. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas and carnations. Best man was Wallace Bartruff of Dayton, friend of the bridegroom.

The ushers were Jay Beeler, a friend, and Darrold R. Mitchell, brother of the bride.

The reception was held in the church parlors. The table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake, decorated with pink rosebuds, green and silver leaves. The cake was encircled with pink sweet peas. Two crystal candelabras were on either side of the cake.

Mrs. Phillip Andrege, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Lyle Beckner, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Charles Johnstone, aunt of the bridegroom, served at the coffee urn. Mrs. Phil Simonson and Mrs. Henry Ramey, sister of the bride, had charge of the gifts. Mrs. Darrold Mitchell had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a two-toned gray suit, light blue hat and gray accessories.

The bride is a graduate of the McMinnville high school. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Dayton high school and served in the army. Following a trip to Yellowstone park for nine days, they will be at home in the Perkey apartments, in Dayton.

SALEM chapter, Order of Eastern S. r., is to meet Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the Masonic temple. There will be initiation.

Miller's FRIGID FUR STORAGE

Before You Store, See Our

—STORAGE!
—CLEANING!
—RETYLING!

Girl Scouts Summer Camp Program of Special Interest

Registrations are almost completed for the camping season at Smith Creek Girl Scout Camp, operated by the Santiam Area Girl Scout council. There are still places available in the Brownie Session, July 24 to 31, open to girls 8 through 10 years of age. Girls are being accepted now for the waiting list for all other sessions and will be able to attend camp only if cancellations occur.

The camping season will open July 3, with a family picnic for all Girl Scouts and Brownies and their families in the area, at the camp site, in the Silver Creek Falls recreation area. July 5 to 9 will be spent in pre-camp training by the staff, and the first session will open July 10. The camping season will close August 21, after six weeks of activity.

Most important positions in the camp staff are filled, with several members returning from last season. Miss Lucy McAfee, camp director announces. Positions are still open for a camp nurse and a few unit counselors.

The camping program includes hiking, outdoor cookery, campcraft, nature, swimming, overnight hikes, singing, folk-dancing, campfire, dramatics, games, and the new feature of horseback riding during the last two weeks.

This year a special program for Senior Girl Scouts during the last two sessions will feature training in primitive camping skills and sharing of skills with younger campers in a program aid program.

Other camping opportunities sponsored by the council for Scouts this summer include day camps at Crestwood Acres, south of Salem and in the Silverton city park. This session of day camp opened Monday with 80 girls attending from this area. Troop camping is planned also at Longbow Forest Camp on the south Santiam for girls in the Lebanon and Sweet Home Districts. Miss Dorothy Wilson, field director of the council, will direct the day camps and supervise the troop camping.

Altogether it is estimated that more than 600 girls will be camping with the Girl Scouts in this area this summer, enjoying an outdoor program and receiving training in citizenship through the give and take of community living.

NEIGHBORS of Woodcraft lodge will hold its regular meeting Friday evening in the Woman's club house at 460 North Cottage street. A formal memorial service will be held for deceased members and a report will be given on the district convention of District 21 held at Newport June 6 and 7. Refreshments and social evening will follow.

Price's Beauty Salon

We are featuring something new and different in Hair Cutting. The old "Eyeball System" is out! The hair is cut to the contour of the individual's head, and each strand is recorded. Our staff of operators are trained for the new Reno method of "Curly Cutting."

This cut was the most popular feature for summer and coming fall hair style, shown at the Western States and Hollywood Hair Stylists Guild in Los Angeles, which we recently attended.

The Hug Cut

For an Appointment
125 North Liberty
Phone 3-5859

Reception Given For Goldenweds

Amity—Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Emerson observed their golden wedding anniversary, Sunday, June 5. A family dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Emerson, near Sheridan, after which open house was held between 3 and 6 p. m. at the family home on Getchell and Nursery streets, Amity.

More than 100 guests called during the afternoon. Miss Faith Emerson, the only daughter, received the gifts. The goldenweds cut the first piece of the three-tiered wedding cake, which was topped with a wreath of golden leaves with the number "50" in the center. The daughters-in-law served the cake and punch. Lancelot (Zeke) and punch. Lancelot (Zeke), his wife and children, Maureen and Leonard, came on Saturday from Long Beach, Calif., for the occasion. Alfred and Leonard, their wives and children, John and Willard, from Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Emerson, Sandra and Patsy, from Sheridan, and Faith from Portland were all present for the occasion, and presented their parents with a gold coin purse. Many other gifts and baskets of flowers were presented. The chimes at the nearby Methodist church played special numbers in their honor.

The Emersons were married June 7, 1899, in Boulder, Colo. They have lived in Amity 33 years.

Save Your FURS

Your fur coat is one of your most valued possessions and deserves the best of care and protection. For very moderate cost you get complete warm weather protection when you store your furs in our vaults.

Price's

135 North Liberty