Dam Boss Talks At Silverton

Silverton — S. Parzy Rose served in the absence of the president, V. V. Runyan, and the vice-president, Felix Wright, at the annual Ladies' Night banquet given by the Chamber of Commerce at the new forum rooms recently completed in the Washington Irving building, Thursday evening. The banquet was furnished by the Double J. restaurant, Jim Chan manager. This was the first special event in the recently remodeled forum rooms. R. A. Fish, chairman of the rebuilding and furnishing plans, was complimentary on the results of his work. Business was deferred in favor of the speaker of the evening, Lt. Col. John W. Miles, resident engineer of the Detroit Dam, telling of the construction problems and the future benefits of the dam. Accompanying Lt. Col. Miles was his assistant resident engineer, S. R. Overhoser. Lt. Col. Miles is appreciated in the Pacific Northwest as having come from the University of Michigan for four years in the construction division of the Bonneville, was at the Portland Air Base as construction engineer, Europe and France during the World War. He returned to Portland as civil engineer on being released from active duty in 1946, later reporting at Mitchell Field, New York, and receiving a transfer again to Portland where he is now attached to the Portland district army engineers. Eighty guests attended the banquet program. Floyd Fox urged as many as could do so to attend the caravan leaving Salem Saturday on a road tour, the Silverton contingent joining the group at Stayton. Delegates named by Runyan as official members of the caravan are Vern Matheny, Dr. P. A. Loaf and Reber Allen.

Bigger Crowd For Round-Up

Crawfordsville, June 13—Arrangements have been made to care for the increased attendance forecast for the 1949 Calapooia Round-up which will be held at Crawfordsville, July 3 and 4.

Many improvements have been made in and about the grounds. Several national champion cowboys have signed up to compete for the big prizes offered in this year's events. The list of cowgirls who will compete is larger than in any previous year. The very latest devices will be used to handle the unruly livestock, including the wild Brahma bulls, and the seating capacity has been increased to six thousand choice seats.

Bill Markley, famous bull-fighter and round-up clown will be a feature in the arena during the round-up. The grand mounted parade will feature several hundred riders. A free horse show will be given at 10 each morning and there is no admission charge to the grounds this year.

Amity Man Kills Self Accidentally With Gun

Amity—Cyrus R. Tibbets, a retired railroad man, accidentally shot and killed himself with a .22 rifle here Saturday. Tibbets had frequently gone squirrel and rodent hunting, and was apparently loading his gun preparatory to one of these outings when the fatal accident occurred.

Freeman Frazier, manager of the Tillamook-Amith Co-op warehouse heard the shot while working in the plant. He took-ed out the window and saw the
