Miss Leek Bride Friday Evening

A June bride was Miss Doris Jean Leek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Leek of West Salem whose marriage to Rodney Engdahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Engdahl of Route 9, Salem, was an event of Friday, June 10. The 8 p.m. ceremony was performed by Rev. Dudley Strain in the First Christian church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose for her wedding a gown of white marquisette with a little girl collar setting off the tiny buttons running to the waist line. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a seeded pearl crown. She wore a gold locket, a gift from the bridegroom. Her bouquet was of white roses and white sweet peas.

Mrs. Betty Leek, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Grace Mulligan and Miss Marian Burns. They wore pastel gowns and carried bouquets of pink roses and sweet-peas. Little Lynn Finell, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Lighting the tapers were Mrs. Hazel Finell, and Mrs. Finell, and Mrs. Julia Rothrock, sisters of the bridegroom.

Torgny Finell, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man, and the ushers were Clarence Rothrock, Stewart Leek, Marston Leek, Francis Bomber, Richard Gitschlag, and Elmer Leek.

Mrs. Aida Holford sang and Mrs. Rosemary Naff was the organist. For daughter's wedding Mrs. Leek chose a wine colored crepe dress with gray accessories. Mrs. Engdahl wore a navy blue crepe dress with gray accessories. Both had corsages of white gardenias.

The reception was held in the church parlors. The table was centered with a four tiered wedding cake, decorated with white love-birds and silver leaves, and topped with a miniature bridal couple. Garden flowers adorned the room. In charge of the guest book was Mrs. Blossom Woods, and Mrs. Dorothy Hippe and Mrs. Dorothy Kleen were at the gift table. Mrs. Jessie Sutliff cut the cake, while Mrs. Matred Leek, Mrs. Ermyl Oershaw, Miss Dorothy Butts, Miss Nellie Lodie, Miss Dorothy Wood, and Miss Eloise McClellan assisted with the pouring and the serving.

For traveling the bride wore a dress of black faille with gold accessories and a corsage of red roses and white sweet peas. Both Mr. and Mrs. Engdahl have been attending the Willamette university the past year. Following their wedding trip the couple will be at home at 1042 1/2 Seventh street, Salem.

Out of town guests were Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Salter and Dorothy, aunt, uncle and cousin of the bride, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Rush, Corvallis; Mrs. Marion Clelan, Meridian, Idaho; Miss Nellie Lodie, Portland; Miss Emma McClellan, Ocean Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Leland Wells, Jefferson; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jacobson, Portland, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Gail Cornelius and family, cousins of the bridegroom, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rothrock, sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Albany; and Mrs. Julia

At Williamsburg

Williamsburg, Va.—Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Phillips of 195 West Lefelle, Salem, were here this week visiting the restored colonial capital city which is celebrating its 250th anniversary this year.

While in the city they were guests at Williamsburg Lodge and viewed several of the buildings which have been restored or reconstructed as they were two centuries ago. Williamsburg was established as capital of England's oldest and largest American province, the Virginia Colony, in 1699.

Miss Cannon Bride Friday

The marriage of Miss Virginia Cannon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Cannon, to Robert Allen Humphreys, son of Mrs. Lola Humphreys, was solemnized Friday evening at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. E. H. Becker officiating.

The bride wore a seafoam green afternoon dress of chiffon and a purple orchid corsage.

Miss Elsie Cannon was the bride's attendant and she wore a pale salmon pink crepe dress with corsage of pink carnations and freesias.

Russell Zink was best man. Lighting the tapers was Miss Dorothy Cannon.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore an aqua two-piece dress suit and Mrs. Humphreys, mother of the bridegroom, was in maroon crepe. Both wore corsages of gardenias.

An informal reception followed the service. Mrs. Trevor Humphreys, sister of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Arthur Brown poured. Assisting were Mrs. Russell Zink and Miss Helen Humphreys.

The couple will be at home in John Day, Ore., following a trip to the beaches and in the fall will go to Eugene where Mr. Humphreys will complete his work at the University of Oregon.

WOODBURN—The Woodburn Garden club will meet Tuesday, June 14, at the library club rooms at 8 p.m. Roll call will be "My Favorite Vacation Spot." An informal round table discussion on the growing, treating and cultivation of roses will be held. Flower arrangements will be either specimens and cultivation of roses will be held. Flower arrangements will be either specimens or group showing of roses from members' gardens.

Hostesses will be Mrs. James Livesey, Mrs. J. J. Hall and Mrs. H. F. Butterfield. Visitors are welcome.

VISITING at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rowe this week is an aunt of the former, Mrs. William W. Hunt of Avon-by-the-Sea, New Jersey. She is accompanied to the northwest by Mrs. Louise Callahan, also of Avon, and Mrs. George Boyce of Asbury Park, New Jersey.

ONES and Emmarillis Jordan, aunt and cousin of the bridegroom, McKenzie, North Dakota.
