Vancouver Clubs Senators 7-4, to Open Series Here

It was a pretty fair ball game through five innings, then those pesky Vancouver Capitanos had to spoil the fun of some 2000 spectators at Waters park Monday night by beating the Senators 7 to 4. The crowd was augmented by virtue of the activities of the Y's Men's club who sponsored their annual "Family night."

Two games, starting at 7 o'clock will constitute Tuesday night's program as the two clubs endeavor to make up for contests rained out earlier in the season.

Jim Olsen was the victim of a 12 hit attack on the part of the Caps, the barrage including doubles by Manager Bill Brenner, Charlie Mead and Henry Fernandez. They opened fire immediately after Umpire Young told them to have at it as Jim Robinson singled. An infield error gave Henry Fernandez life at first while Robinson reached second safely. Len Tran lofted a fly to Mel Wasley for the first out with Robinson scoring. Charlie Mead's single advanced Fernandez to second but the latter was forced out at third by Ray Tran. "Easy out" yelled a spectator as Bill Brenner walked up to the plate. His response was a double to center that scored two runs.

The Solons trimmed the margin by one in the second and were well on their way toward adding another or so when Olsen, loping down the first base line, brushed against George Nicholas, Cap pitcher, who was chasing the ball that had ricocheted off the moundsman. Olsen was called out for interference although he had no time to avoid the pitcher and that ended the rally.

Nevertheless, Bill Beard's crew got back into the ball game in the third after the Capitanos had added another run to their string in the same frame. Wayne Peterson, first up, singled to left and was promptly moved to second by Bud Peterson's base knock. Larry Orteig forced Bud Peterson at second and Mel Wasley drew a base on ball to load the sacks. At this juncture Bob Cherry scored all three with his double to deep right center.

Salem got a man in each of the next three frames but nothing happened in the scoring line. The Caps did a lot better as Brenner, Nicholas, Robinson singled and Fernandez doubled for a net of three runs, all in the sixth.

Olsen held the opposition in check thereafter but the damage had been done. Nicholas who appeared to be headed for an early exit, gave up two hits in the last four innings. He collected two singles as he drove in a run, an accomplishment matched by Olsen, except the latter hit a double and did not break into the R.B.I. column.

The loss shoved the Senators down to the .500 mark which

Major Leaguers Trade Five, Plan More Swaps

New York, June 14 (AP)—Five major league baseball players swapped uniforms today amid rumors that maybe a half dozen more would change clubs before the trading deadline at midnight tomorrow.

The Boston Red Sox, in a bid to strengthen their wobbly pitching staff sent Lefty Mickey Harris and Outfielder Sam Mele to the Washington Senators yesterday for Righthander Walt Masterson. The New York Giants shipped Catcher Walker Cooper to the Cincinnati Reds for Backstop Ray Mueller.

The grapevine has the Giants planning a wholesale shift in their personnel.

Outfielder Willard Marshall and First Baseman Johnny Mize also are reported on the block. The Giants are looking for an established second baseman and according to the boys in the know they have their sights trained on either Ed Stanky or Sibby Sisti of the Boston Braves with Marshall as the pawn. The Braves are seeking an outfielder of Marshall's class.

Mize, despite his ten home runs, has not been hitting and his slowness at foot does not fit in with Manager Leo Durocher's style of play.

The rumor mart also was working in the American league with smoke brewing in the ranks of the pace-setting New York Yankees, the runner-up Detroit Tigers and the last place St. Louis Browns.

New York is pining for an outfielder and it is understood that Manager Casey Stengel will take a chance on Detroit's problem child, Dick Wakefield. The Yanks also would welcome Dick Kokos of St. Louis. The Browns are said to be willing to trade Second Baseman Gerry Priddy if they can land a suitable replacement.

Yankee Second Baseman George Stirnweiss is the lad the Yanks are rumored as dangling in front of St. Louis and Detroit. The Browns might trade Priddy to Detroit for Wakefield and cash or a pitcher and then ship Wakefield or Kokos to New York for Stirnweiss.

Cascade Lakes Angling Season Opens June 15

The angling season for a number of the heavily fished Cascade mountain lakes will open June 15 and reports are to the effect that the advance guard in several instances moved in over the week-end.

The more popular lakes that will open include Paulina, East, Sparks, Davis, North and South Twin, Diamond, Fish, Buckeye, Cliff and Twin Lakes in Douglas county. Simultaneous opening is calculated to spread the fishing pressure as much as possible.

Bag limit in all of the lakes named is five fish but not to exceed 15 pounds and one fish in any one day, and 10 fish but not to exceed 30 pounds and two fish on any 7 consecutive days.

At Diamond lake this year it will be unlawful to use fish eggs, either single or cluster, as lure. Fly fishing only is permitted at Davis, Sparks, Gold and Cripple Creek lakes.

It's unlawful to use live minnows in any of the lakes listed and the law specifically prohibits the transporting of fish from one body of water to another. Motor boats must not be operated at a speed in excess of 10 miles an hour on East, Paulina, Elk, Crescent and Diamond lakes.

Ducks Donate to PCC at Sketchy Spring Meeting

Portland, Ore., June 14 (AP)—Business sessions of the annual Pacific Coast conference meeting got under way yesterday but accomplishments of the closed session "were a little sketchy," Secretary H. D. Thoreau said.

A check for $3,125.61 from the University of Oregon which represented net income Oregon earned at the Cotton Bowl game was accepted by the conference. The sum was the excess of the theoretical income Oregon would have received from Rose Bowl receipts. The Oregon team grossed more money from the Cotton Bowl game than California earned in the Rose Bowl tilt with Northwestern.

A conference spokesman said penalties may be imposed against PCC code violators but if any action was taken it would be tomorrow.

Victor Schmidt, conference commissioner, was slated to make a report on the code today along with the problems of television, alumni recruiting of athletes, and whether the conference basketball tournament should be retained.

Sac Fielder Sets PCL Pace on .372

San Francisco, June 14 (AP)—Al White, Sacramento's hard-hitting outfielder, again paced the Pacific Coast league in hitting today, although he faced a new challenger in Ed Malone, the Los Angeles catcher.

White, although dropping nine points, was hitting the ball at a 372 clip. Malone climbed into second place with a mark of .371, replacing Luke Easter, the San Diego Padre first baseman, who slid into third place with .365.

Luscious Luke had some consolation, however. He took over first place in the home run hitting derby with 23 against Teammate Max West's 22 and also led the loop in runs batted in with 87.

In 1913, Walter Johnson hurled 36 consecutive shutout innings for the Washington Senators.

Fight Cards Set For June 22 in Salem Armory

A program of a fight card once a month throughout the summer is being announced by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Matchmaker Tex Salkeld. The first of the dull season series is slated for the night of June 22 with John L. Sullivan being nominated for the role of main event. Salkeld will name with King Henry Lee, Bobby Volk or Jack Snapp as his opponent.

Davey Ball, the boxer who stopped Dean Abney on the last card will be given a spot in the semi-final against an opponent yet to be selected.

Fight nights will fall during the time the Salem Senators are on the road.

Oddsmakers Give Cerdan 7-5 Edge Against Lamotta

Detroit, June 14 (AP)—Detroit bookies predicted today that Middleweight Champion Marcel Cerdan would be a 7 to 5 favorite when he defends his title against Jake Lamotta of New York tomorrow night at Briggs stadium.

Meanwhile, booming ticket sales indicated the gate would hit $350,000 and the attendance would exceed 40,000.

Both fighters scheduled only limbering-up exercises for today and each expected to make the 160-pound without difficulty.

Hollywood Hopes To End Losses in Series With Sacs

Hollywood, leading the Pacific Coast league, hopes to end a three-game losing streak Tuesday night at the expense of Sacramento.

Luke Easter and the San Diego Padres hung the losing streak on the Stars over the week-end. But the Stars still hold a comfortable 6 1/2 game lead over second-place Seattle. All teams were idle Monday.

In other series openers around the loop, the Padres visit Oakland; Los Angeles is at Portland and San Francisco at Seattle.

Probable pitchers and starting times for Tuesday games: Sacramento (Ken Holcombe) at Hollywood (Walt Olsen) 8:15 p.m., PST. San Diego (Red Adams) at Oakland (Milo Candini) 8:15 p.m., PST. San Francisco (Con Dempsey) at Seattle (Guy Fletcher) 8:30 p.m., PDT. Los Angeles (unavailable) at Portland (Roy Helser) 8:30 p.m., PDT.

Tiger Paces 'A' Loop With .346

Chicago, June 14 (AP)—Veteran George Kell, Detroit third sacker who notched .304 for the Tigers last season, tops American league hitters today with .346—a 21-point bulge over the rest of the field.

The 26-year-old Kell, a major leaguer since 1943, added five points to his batting percentage during the week while Outfielder Dom DiMaggio of Boston slumped 21 points to .318. DiMaggio trailed Kell by only two points last week. His .318 was good for third place.

Philadelphia's Eddie Joost moved to second with a three point increase to .325.

Louis Doesn't Want to Fight

Detroit, June 14 (AP)—James D. Norris lowered his glass of prune juice to the breakfast table and said decisively, "I'm confident Joe Louis will never fight again."

The big, youngish man with the thick dark-brown hair and beetling brown brows spoke with authority. As president of the International Boxing Club, multi-millionaire Norris is Bomber Joe's new boss.

"Young Jim" was here to help with the last-minute promotion of tomorrow night's middleweight title fight between Marcel Cerdan and Jake Lamotta. It is the I. B. C.'s first major show.

Breakfasting in his suite at a downtown hotel, Norris answered reporters' questions about Louis. As he spoke, his features reminded one of a compromise between John L. Lewis and Babe Ruth.

He said, "regardless of reports that Louis may fight the winner of next week's Chicago fight between Charles and Walcott, I can tell you definitely that Joe doesn't want to fight any more. He knows he can't go on forever, and he knows that at 35 he would have to train about six months to get in shape. He's tired of training. He wants to stay in retirement."

The 42-year-old scion of the world's richest grain family replied briskly as the reporters shot questions at him. One of them asked exactly what kind of a job Louis had with the

Papermen Hold First Place on Win Over Marines

Beating the Marine Reserves, 8 to 3 Monday night at Leslie field, Oregon Pulp and Paper's softball club kept possession of first place in the City league. Bob Knight held the Marines to three hits. The latter were leading 2 to 0 when the roof fell in during the fourth as the OP&P club chased across a total of five runs. They added three more in the fifth. The contest ended there.

Golden Pheasant scored six runs in the first three innings to down Randle Oil, 7-1.

In the Industrial division, Lashish took advantage of 10 errors on the part of their opponents to defeat Post Office, 11-3.

Skits and Scratches

Hornsby Changes Front

Of all persons, Rogers Hornsby, the scourge of all pitchers during the days he was known as the Rajah of baseball, has become sympathetic to the men on the mound. It may be treason but Hornsby in a recent interview with Arthur Daley of the New York Times, advocated the legalizing of all pitching deliveries that were ruled out around 1920—"the spitball, the shiner, any doctoring of the ball." That, the Rajah avers, "Would even up matters between pitchers and hitters. With the live ball, all the advantage is with the hitter. Let pitchers rough the cover, make a ball sail and you'll take away the inequality of competition."

It May Be Heresy

Coming from a batter, who during his long tenure scarcely knew or cared whether a pitcher served them up right or left handed or with his foot, his statements would indicate Hornsby has mellowed a bit. He had a life time average of .358 and during one span of five years he batted an incredible .402. Most experts rate him as the greatest right handed hitter who ever lived. "The Rajah lived and breathed and ate and slept baseball," relates Daley. "So jealous was he of his phenomenal eyesight that he protected it at all costs. He never strained it on movies or by reading. Nor would he smoke or drink. And he ate strength giving steaks at practically every meal—if that really can be considered a hardship . . ."

Modern Hitters

Hornsby claims modern day hitters take their eyes off the ball. "They hit the pitcher's motion, not the ball. Listen, I followed the ball so closely I could see it hit the bat." The Rajah could hit any kind of a pitch. If the hurler threw inside, he pulled the ball to the left. He drove outside pitches to right and down-the-alley pitches smack through the centerfield alley . . . Managers tried everything to stop him but without success. They even tried dusting him off. That worked just about as well as it did the time a cold blooded, strong-armed young fellow threw three beanballs at the Rajah with the bases full. Three times Hornsby went sprawling into the dirt. "He brushed off the seat of his pants and assumed his fearsome batting pose," relates Daley. "Okay, wise guy," he challenged. "What are you going to do now?" Hornsby hit the ball out of the park.

Honor Well Deserved

They gave Leslie Sparks a blanket during Willamette university's commencement activities over the week end and no person was more entitled to the honor than the man who was on the receiving end. Kindly and gracious, obliging and meticulous in his relationships with his fellows, "Les" has a multitude of friends. Perhaps he has a few enemies but if so, they have never been brought to our attention. By all rights, Professor Sparks, if he had gotten his just deserts, would have received not only a blanket but an entire bed room suite. Those who initiated the project report Willamette athletes, past and present, coaches and directors were extremely eager to have a part in the program.

Sparks True Sportsman

Sparks is a member of the select group who seldom if ever shows his irritation concerning the officiating of any given sport. Sometimes his practice of leaning over backward to give the other side all credit due irked this writer. But no matter how turbulent and antagonistic spectators may grow, Les keeps calm. He may be seething inside, but if that be true, no one ever suspects it. Probable the reason for all this is the fact that he has been insight into college sports and knows when a good job is being done regardless of whether it is being accomplished by the Bearcats or the opposition. Yes, he deserves the four star blanket—for coaching football, basketball, track and tennis, evening and Sunday.
