

Miss Spranger, Mr. Sandau Married Sunday Afternoon

Bethel—Miss Mina Lee Spranger and Donald M. Sandau exchanged their marriage vows at a four o'clock ceremony Sunday afternoon at the Bethany Evangelical and Reformed church in Salem. The Rev. Russell Mayer performed the double ring ceremony. The decorations of the altar were lighted candles in tall candelabrams, palms, red roses and white delphiniums.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arno C. Spranger and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sandau of St. Louis, Missouri.

Miss Gladys Edgar presided at the organ, playing the wedding music and the accompaniments for Miss Grace Ashford, and Miss Mary Jane Solomon, both of whom sang.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with a lace bertha and lace on the cuffs, fitted bodice and long sleeves. The full skirt swept into a long train. The bride wore her mother's silk wedding veil and head-dress. The veil was folded making it fingertip length. Her bouquet was Red Delight roses, and her only ornament was the cameo brooch worn by her grandmother at her own marriage in Norway 50 years ago.

Camp will be held at Hager's grove on Tuesdays and Thursdays, June 21 and 23 will be Session I, Magic Carpet; June 28 and 30, Session II, Hobo Jungle; and July 5 and 7, Session III, Romany Road. Day camp is open to all girls who are going into the third grade and older whether they belong to Camp Fire or not.

older whether they belong to Camp Fire or not.

Camp Sta-Ho's day camp program is planned to give as much camping experience as possible to those girls who cannot attend regular camp and for those who attend established camp for only a short time each summer. The activities will center around outdoor crafts and skills.

Registrations should be sent to the Camp Fire Office at 147 N. Commercial street before June 20. Mrs. Milton Hartwell, field director, will be in charge of the camp. The counselors at Sta-Ho will be girls working on their torch bearer rank under adult supervision. A training course for counselors will be conducted June 14 at 1:00 at the YWCA.

Girls will be picked up at Marion Square at 9:30 on the mornings of each session and taken to Hager's Grove by bus. The bus will return to the square at 3:30 in the afternoon.

Additional information may be obtained by calling the Camp Fire Office, phone 3-5887.
