

Class Meets At Reunion

The 10th annual meeting for the Salem high school class of 1896 was an event of Sunday afternoon and evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Judson, who are both members of the class. The group started having annual events upon the 40th anniversary, but skipped the meeting during the war. A picnic dinner was served.

Of the 42 members of the class 18 were present Sunday. There are 10 others known to be living. At one meeting or another, all living members of the class have been present at some time.

Class members attending the Sunday gathering included Richard Churchill, Inez Adair Grenfell of McMinnville, Marcia Burton Smith, Grace Babcock, Walter Davis of Oakland, Calif., Lewis Judson, Florence Mathews Purvine, Dae Mathews Stafford, Mae Mathews Cochran, Pearl Macy, Gertrude Riddell Wilson, Ida Stege Savage of Oceanlake, Paul Stege of Ocean lake, Reba Gans Mountain of Eugene, Edith Patton Judson, Vera Pettengell Ronan of Los Angeles, and as a special guest, Mrs. Metta Davis Pennicard of Portland, who was one of the teachers of the class.

Other guests attending were J. Stewart Grenfell, Mrs. Richard Churchill, Robert Savage, Mrs. Paul Stege, Miss Elouise Huntington of Portland, Mrs. P. J. James of Portland, Roy Buckingham, Mrs. Mathias Crouser.

Miss Pollard Is Recent Bride

Mt. Angel—In a setting of white delphiniums and white and orchid Canterbury bells at St. Mary's catholic church, Miss Marilyn Pollard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pollard of Colton was married to Emory Gorbett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gorbett of Molalla, on Saturday morning, June 11. Rev. Hildebrand Melchior, OSB, officiated at the double ring ceremony, and read the nuptial mass before a large gathering of relatives and friends. Miss Helen Keber played the wedding music and soloists were Miss Pauline Saalfeld and Miss Eustelle Bauman and St. Mary's choir sang.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was dressed in a wedding gown of white organdy fashioned with fitted bodice, yoke of nylon, a self ruffle with embroidery at the low shoulder line, a gathered skirt with rows of the same embroidery, the dress ending in a slight train. Her over the face and fingertip veil of illusion was held with a halo of twined illusion. She carried a spray bouquet of blue delphiniums, pink bridal roses and white iris, tied with blue satin streamers.

Miss Carol Bixel of Colton, wearing an organdy gown of powder blue styled similar to the bridal gown, was maid of honor. The bridesmaid was Miss Shirley Pollard of Mulino, cousin to the bride. She wore a powder blue dress made with a lace bodice, and an organdy skirt. Both attendants wore a matching shoulder length veil in powder blue, and each carried a colonial bouquet of bridal roses and iris.

Sid Gorbett served as best man for his brother, and Leroy Arola of Molalla, a nephew, was groomsmen. Ushers were Jimmy Diballa of Silverton, and Private Walter Dix, of Fort Lewis.

Breakfast was served at the St. Mary's dining room. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at Colton. Mrs. W. J. Jibala, sister of the bride, cut the cake and Mrs. Maurice Buxton served the guests. Passing the guest book were Wayne Pollard and Walter Dix.

SALEM HEIGHTS—The Little Garden club of Salem Heights met for a no-host dinner at the home of Mrs. John Douglas on Salem Heights Ave.

The program for coming year was discussed, and plans were made for the club members to attend the state convention of Garden clubs in Corvallis on June 23, 24 and 25.

Mrs. Fred Burger was an honored guest. She was one of the first members of the club when it was organized.

The next meeting will be in July, but no date has been set. The club plans to go to Agate Beach at a low tide when they can see the marine gardens

Smith-Donkin Rites Sunday

Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock the marriage of Miss Edith Donkin to O. Dale Smith was solemnized by Dr. Charles Darden in the fireplace room of Calvary Baptist church. The double ring ceremony was used.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Howard Rose of Falls City, wore a white taffeta street-length dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Mr. Smith is the son of Mrs. Martin Petersen of Salem and F. A. Smith of San Diego, Calif. The best man was Richard Larson of Portland.

Attending the bride was Miss Velma Carver, who wore an aqua dress with white accessories and a red carnation corsage.

Music for the wedding was played by Miss Beverly Matlock and the tapers were lighted by Mrs. Harry Otte, the bride's sister, and Miss Jill Otte.

The reception followed immediately at the home of the groom. Miss Bonnie Bennett cut the cake; Mrs. Thora Pederson presided at the coffee urn and Miss Roberta Matthews at the punch bowl. Miss Velma Carver was in charge of the guest book. For her wedding trip the bride chose a brown suit with pink hat and gloves and other accessories of brown.

The bride attended Salem schools and Mr. Smith is a graduate of Willamette university, where he is a member of Beta Theta Phi fraternity. He is now a graduate student at Oregon State college.

NEIGHBORS of Woodcraft Thimble club is to meet Thursday for a no-host luncheon at 12:15 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Walter Craven, 1080 Fir street.

WOODBURN—Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith and three sons made a trip to Mt Hood and
