Index of Food Prices Decline

New York, June 15 (AP)—The Dun Bradstreet index of wholesale food prices declined five cents in the past week to a level only two cents above the 28-month low reached last February 8, the agency reported today.

The index on June 14 stood at $5.68, compared with $5.73 a week earlier and $7.18 in the corresponding week of 1948, a year-to-year decline of 20.9 per cent.

This index is the sum of the price per pound of 31 foods in general use. In the past week 14 remained unchanged, eight advanced and nine declined. There were advances in the price of flour, wheat, corn, oats, hams, cottonseed oil, eggs and butter, while declines were reported for rye, barley, beef, lard, cocoa, potatoes, steers, hogs, and lambs.

Highest 72-hole total ever to win the U.S. Open was the 371 of Willie Anderson in 1901.

Dry Weather Fire Hazard

Portland, Ore., June 15 (AP)—Foresters climbed lookout towers throughout the Pacific northwest today as high temperatures and low humidity brought the worst fire hazards of the season. Dist. Commander Walter Woods of Salem will install the new of-

Their warnings to motorists, campers and fishermen and to logging operators in the region were heightened by scattered lumber mill fires in Oregon yesterday. In the Moses lake area of eastern Washington, a grass fire was believed halted last night after racing with the wind about 35 miles in 24 hours. Buildings at the O'Sullivan dam project in the Columbia river basin were under guard as the flames menaced the area. Thousands of acres of forest

Capital Journal, Salem, Ore., Wednesday, June 15, 1949—11 ban Portland went up in smoke last night with damage estimated at $200,000. Earlier, at Eugene, Ore., a small mill was leveled but firemen saved adjoining mills in the large lumber manufacturing district. The cashew nut, popular in this country, is the fruit of the poisonous cashew tree of Brazil and Central America. The toxic ingredient in the nut is removed by roasting.
