

Big Prizes in Plane Contest

Oregon's third annual model plane contest will be held July 16 and 17 at Eugene, according to an announcement by Plymouth dealers of Oregon, sponsors of the contest.

The tournament is open to all young people from ages 9 to 26 years.

Prizes will include three scholarships to any Oregon college or university. First prize will be a $750 scholarship. Second and third prizes will be scholarships of $500 and $250 respectively. These awards will be to winners from 14 to 18 years of age only.

In addition to the scholarships, there will be presented four all-expense trips to Detroit, Michigan, where contestants will compete in the August 22-29 Third International Model Plane contest for $8750 in prizes. Further awards at the Eugene meet will be prizes of the day as well as trophies for contestants in all groups.

Arrangements have been made in Eugene to hold control line events on the University of Oregon campus on Saturday, July 16, featuring speed and stunt flying. Free flight events by gasoline-motored and rubber-powered models will be held Sunday, July 17, at the Eugene airport.

President W. W. McKinney, President-elect Dr. Daniel H. Schulze, James H. Hart and Walter C. Leth of Independence; Rev. Dudley Strain, Elmer J. Scellars, Earl J. Adams, Guy M. Hickok, Harry W. Scott, Ronald Hudkins of Salem and Dr. R. J. Van Cleave of Silverton.

Club Speakers To Be Selected

Elmer C. Schlotz, executive field director for the Associated Clubs, will meet with the board of directors of the Salem Knife and Fork club at 10 o'clock Friday forenoon at the Chamber of Commerce to select a list of speakers for the 1949-50 season.

The local club is an affiliate of the Associated club network, which now comprises 300 affiliated groups throughout the United States, as well as Canada, Mexico and Cuba, whose membership annually hear over 2000 speeches.

Schlotz is a veteran in this organization, having served eight years in the field of organization throughout the network in addition to public relations among the clubs and the national office.

The Salem board included

Festival Queen Candidates

From This Group of five young women from Marion and Polk counties, all graduated from high school this spring, the Queen for the 1949 Cherryland Festival, dated for June 30, July 1 and 2, will be chosen Friday night. The five, four of whom will be princesses in the royal court following the selection of the queen, are: top row left, Jeannine Bentley, of Lyons, representing the Stayton high school; top row, right Grace Marie Kirk of St. Paul; second row, left, Dorothy Neufeld of Dallas; second row, right, Patricia O'Connor of Stayton, representing the Sacred Heart Academy; and below, Katherine Specht of Jefferson.

Winning Pistol Team—These sharp-shooting marines from Salem's marine corps reserve unit this year won top honors in the northwest company pistol league contest for the Marine Reserve units with an average score of 901.40, 10 wins and no losses. Front row is Sgt. E. J. Kelm, First Lt. Willis D. Sims, officer in charge of the team, and Pfc G. B. Crump. Back row—Staff Sgt. Herman M. Doney, captain of the team, Cpl. William Baldwin, Pvt. K. H. Johnson and Sgt. J. W. Marcroft. Not in the picture are Pfc. B. C. Jeffries and Staff Sgt. R. E. Unruh.

Rousing Greeting to Governor Doug McKay

Governor Douglas McKay received a real western welcome for his attendance at the 14th annual St. Paul rodeo, July 2-3-4, when Queen-elect Patricia Zosel, Salem; Princesses Mara Lynn Manning, McMinnville; and Carol Lea Wilcox, Newberg, and members of the rodeo association greeted him on the State House steps Wednesday morning.

Along with his invitation, Governor McKay was presented a western hat by Queen-elect Patricia, who has proclaimed Monday, July 4th, as St. Paul rodeo's Governor's day.

The Oregon Mounted posse, Salem, and the Portland Mounted posse and Oregon Ranch Girls will parade and be featured in exhibition riding drills as a special July 4th attraction, Association President Ray Manegre announces.

Shelby Jersey Bull Is Champ

Albany, June 15 — Imported Radar, three-year-old prize Jersey bull owned by N. V. Shelby & Sons of Albany, Route 2, added two more trophies to his string of awards Tuesday as he was judged grand champion bull and senior champion in the second day of the 20th annual spring show sponsored by the Linn-Benton Jersey cattle club at the Linn county 4-H club pavilion here.

The Shelby Jersey Farms bull took first place at the Oregon State fair last year and grand championship at shows in Montana and Idaho. He won the Sunnyside Dairy, Corvallis, trophy as grand champion, and the Medo-Land Creamery company, Corvallis, cup awarded to exhibitor of senior champion.

The Borden company cup for the junior champion bull went to Basil Jester Pinnake Royal, owned and shown by Rollie and Willard Davis of Blodgett. First in senior yearling class was also won by this animal.

In aged bulls, Gourley's Jersey Farm of Albany, Route 2, placed first with Brampton Pinnacle Bred; bulls 2-3 years, Gourley's; junior yearling bull, Gourley's; and senior bull calf, Homer Shelby and Richard Stewart, Albany.

Judging of female classes was featured in the afternoon by Floyd Walberg, OSC dairy department.

In Monday's judging of the 4-H and FFA entries, Eugene Nygren, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Nygren of Albany, Route 2, exhibited the 4-H champion of the show, and Richard Johnstone son of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Johnstone of Albany, Route 2, rated 4-H reserve champion, both with producing cows.

Young Johnstone also was judged grand champion showman in a large field of 11 junior and 13 older exhibitors in the 4-H division.

Champion FFA animal was shown by Dee Chamber of Albany.

Coach to Direct Play

Delake, June 15—Bob Donovan, Taft high school football coach, has been named director of the summer play program which got under way in North Lincoln county Tuesday and will continue until August 12. The supervisor will be at the various communities on certain days of each week.
