Final Plans for Junior A League Made

The junior baseball league is nearly ready to start, Clay Egelson, secretary of the circuit, disclosed with final plans for the 'A' league to be completed Wednesday night at a meeting of the summer baseball program officials at 460 N. High. The summer season will be announced later.

The 'B' league has a total of six teams. Class B: Team No. 1, Capitals (Lyle King); Team No. 2, Yeaters Appliance Co. (Herb Booth); Keizer Merchants (Mr. Goldsby); Salem Heights Tigers (Myron Butler); West Salem Lumber Co. (Vince Genna); Mayflower Milk Co. (B. Schwartz).

The 'C' league has a total of nine teams, with one manager still needed. Class C: Truax Oilers of Keizer (Ben Claggett); Four Corners (Mrs. Walker); River Bend Sand and Gravel (Dick Vincent); Elfstrom's (manager still needed); Bishop Electric (Gilbert Jones); Master Bread (Pete Valdez); 4-Star Market (Ambrose D'Agle); Midget Market (Jim Vittoner); Salem Steel (Mr. Stripier).

All managers will be expected to contact Maple's for names, addresses and telephone numbers of their players, so the teams may arrange practices before the first game.

Famed Baseball Umpire Succumbs to Ills at 70

Horse Cave, Ky., June 15 (AP)—Death has called the last strike for Charles B. Moran, 70, former National league baseball umpire. Moran, who gained national fame both as a baseball umpire and as football coach at Centre College at Danville, Ky., died of a heart ailment at his home here yesterday. He had been in ill health for some time and was bedfast the past three weeks. As coach of the "Praying Colonels" at Centre, Moran tutored such football stars as Bo McMillin, Red Roberts and Red Weaver. His 1921 team defeated Harvard, 6-0. He retired in 1939 as a National league umpire after spending 23 years in that job and had devoted most of his time in recent years to operation of his farm near here.

He took great pride in the umpiring profession and was noted for his famous expression: "It ain't nothing until I call it."

Soap Wrappers Win Free Ducats For Youngsters

Through a cooperative arrangement between "Care," the organization that sends food packages to Europe, the manufacturers of Swan soap and the Salem Baseball club, each youngster who submits two wrappers from the soap will be admitted free to Wednesday night's game at Waters park. For each two wrappers submitted, Lever Brothers company will contribute a cake of soap to "Care" for distribution overseas.

Whitewash Games Mark Softball Play at Leslie

Two whitewashings were administered Tuesday night in City league softball play at Leslie. Rock Wool blanked Knights of Columbus 6-0 behind the 6-hit pitching of George Roth, while Mootry's downed 12th Street, 7 to 0, to retain local leadership. In the Industrial division Interstate lost its first encounter of the season when the Papermakers edged them 7-5. Clear Lake collected 12 hits to beat Warner's 7 to 4.

Sinovic Returns As Spectator to Waters Park Mix

Dick Sinovic came back to Waters park Tuesday night and although he donned a "monkey suit" he remained a spectator throughout the twin bill between the Senators and the Capitanos. Sinovic, who batted .351 last season, good for second place in Western International circles, was recently returned to Portland by Macon of the Sally league. Whether he will be assigned to the Salem club has not been announced.

Senators Nab Third Place In WIL on Twin Victories

Gene Peterson and Ray McNulty added wins to their pitching records at Waters park Tuesday night as the Salem Senators copped both ends of a Western International league double-header from Vancouver's Capitanos, 5 to 1 and 6 to 1. The two teams meet in a single game at 8 o'clock Wednesday.

The twin victory elevated Salem to third place in WIL standings, just two games ahead of Vancouver in second spot. In Tuesday's opener, Peterson was nipped for only four hits. Two of those came in the fourth frame, when the Canadians made their lone dent on the plate.

Three unearned runs in the first inning gave the home-owners a jet-propelled start. Wayne Peterson led off with a legitimate single to right, and from then on the inning was a fluke. Vancouver fielders committed two errors, in addition to a couple of mental boners that didn't go down in the score-book.

With Peterson resting on first and with one out, Cap Shortstop Ray Tran booted a grounder off the bat of Larry Orteig, putting runners on both first and second. Mel Wasley then tapped a roller to the pitcher, Carl Gunnerson, who elected to toss to second. The toss was late and the bases were filled.

The second error of the inning followed. Bob Cherry bounced to Eddie Robinson at third, and Robinson pegged to the plate in an apparent easy chance to throw out Peterson. But Catcher Bud Seely dropped the horzhide, Peterson raced across the plate with run number one, and there was still a Solon on every sack.

Bob Hedington batted in Orteig with an infield grounder, and Wasley trotted home on a fielder's choice with the third unearned run.

That was all the scoring Salem needed to register the victory, but they added single tallies in the third and fifth for good measure.

Tight pitching in the clutches saved the night for McNulty in the second game. The losers banged out no less than 11 hits and got at least one man on base every inning, keeping McNulty in trouble constantly. But Vancouver scored only in the eighth, and that tally came as the result of a walk. They left 11 men stranded on base.

Meanwhile, the Senators were bunting their seven hits into two big innings, the second and the seventh.

In the second stanza, they pushed across a pair of runs on Hedington's single, a double by Marty Krug, and a single by Manager Bill Beard.

In the seventh, they added trio of tallies on four hits, including a triple by Bud Peterson and Krug's second double of the ball game.

An unearned run in the third inning, helped along by a wild throw by Cap Catcher Bill Brenner, also added the Solon cause. Bob Snyder went the route on the mound for Vancouver in the second game.

Ray Tran, Capitanos shortstop, had a perfect night at the plate. He collected three singles in three trips to the plate in the first game, and socked a single and drew three walks in the nightcap.

The Salems took over exclusive occupancy of third place due to Spokane's 9 to 5 loss to Tacoma.

Yakima added to its lead by trouncing Victoria, 13-4 while Bremerton outscored Wenatchee 12-9.

The world 80-yard dash record of 6.1s has been equalled 17 times since Ralph Metcalfe ran it in 1933.

Frenchman Risks Middle Title in Fight Wednesday

Detroit, June 15 (AP)—Marcel Cerdan, the carefree fighting man from French Morocco, risks his world middleweight title for the first time tonight at Briggs stadium against stout Jake La Motta, an 8 to 5 underdog from New York's teeming Bronx.

Cash from Jake's home province where he has an interest in two small fight clubs, beat down the price on Cerdan who opened a 5 to 12 choice. It may go even lower by ring time for the 15-round bout, scheduled at approximately 10 p.m. (EST). The fight will not be broadcast or televised.

From this corner it looks like Cerdan, largely on the basis of the old cuds around La Motta's eyes that keep re-opening in every fight, Marcel doesn't hit hard enough to dump Jake on his panties but his slashing hooks are just the thing to slice tender brows.

Tiger Hurler Challenges For Honors on One Hitter

Virgil (Fire) Trucks, Detroit's strong-armed righthander, is challenging New York's Vic Raschi for American league pitching honors.

With the season only one third gone, the 30-year-old Alabamian already has won nine games against three losses. Only Raschi, with 10, has won more. New-houser has won seven.

Trucks gave further indication last night that he was out to make this his greatest year when he limited Philadelphia to one hit as the Tigers blanked the Athletics, 4-0. Only a fifth inning single by Hank Majeski prevented him from hurling the season's first no-run, no-hit game.

The Tigers iced the game in the first inning, scoring three times against Carl Scheib.

The victory left the second-place Tigers three games behind the Yankees.

Raschi notched his 10th triumph against one defeat without much trouble as the Yankees shellacked the Chicago White Sox, 15-3. An eight-run sixth inning at the expense of loser Bill Wright, Allen Gettel and Marino Pieretti changed a tight pitching duel to a rout.

The apparently revitalized Cleveland Indians vaulted from sixth to fourth place in the American league standings after soundly trouncing the Red Sox in Boston, 10-5.

Bob Feller, who had lost his last five starts, went all the way for the Indians to gain his second victory of the season.

Joe Gordon hit a grand slam home run in the first inning.

The St. Louis Browns finally beat Washington, 7-2, after losing eight straight decisions to the Senators. Lefty Joe Ostrowski pitched six-hit ball to gain his first victory of the year. Mickey Hoefner was the loser.

Brooklyn increased its National league lead to three games over the Cardinals with a 7-2 triumph over St. Louis. Preacher Roe beat the Cardinals with a 10-hit effort for the Dodgers' eighth straight triumph.

The Cards came up with a triple play—only the second in the majors this year. After Jackie Robinson had singled in two runs in the first inning for Brooklyn, Gil Hodges lined to Marty Martion, who threw to Red Schoendienst to catch Carl Furillo on second. A last relay to Nippy Jones got Robinson off first for the triple killing.

Wally Westlake rapped a ninth inning double to drive in the tying and winning runs in Pittsburgh's 4-3 victory over the Boston Braves. He previously had hit a homer, triple and single.

Larry Jansen registered his first shutout of the year as the New York Giants defeated the Reds in Cincinnati, 2-0. The slim right-hander allowed four hits in winning his sixth game.

The Philadelphia Phillies ruined Frankie Frisch's debut as manager of the Cubs. They walked Chicago, 9-2, in the only afternoon clash in the majors. Andy Seminick paced the Phils 11-hit while Tigar, a three-run homer, hit 12th.

Amity Defeats Tigar, 10-3

McMinnville — Amity's ball club defeated Tigar here Tuesday, 10-4, with Nauman being credited as the winning pitcher. The Amity team scored their victory on 11 hits while Tigar crew recorded only three. Both teams committed two errors.

Weaver-Szasz in Mat Team Win

Buck Weaver and Al Szasz combined to dump Frank Stojack and Lefty Pacer in Tuesday night's team grapple show.

In the preliminary Dale Kiser, 18-year-old contender, tangled with the experienced Tony Faubert and lost via the one fall route. Jack Kiser, older brother of Dale, downed Bill Weider.

Beavers Trim Angels to Climb from Basement

The Portland Beavers, who have been low men on a tumbled pole since too far back to remember, finally gnawed their way out of the Pacific Coast league cellar last night.

The Beavers tangled with the Los Angeles Angels in a fight over the booby slot and came out one-half game in front by trimming the Seraphs 4-3.

Line double in the 10th inning by Joe Brovia drove in Johnny Rucker who had singled. The winning run also drove the hinges off a 67-day-old cellar door for the Beavers and gave Roy Helsel his eighth win against five setbacks.

Sacramento knocked the props from under the league-leading Hollywood Stars by a score of 7-6.

Both teams got away to a flying start by rapping in four runs each in the first innings. In the eighth frame with the score tied, the Solons loaded the bases on a triple by Walt Drogo and two walks.

Jim Marsh stepped up to the plate and bunted on a neat squeeze play to break up the game.

At Oakland, the Oaks fell 5-4 under a barrage of home runs by the San Diego Padres in another close opening night tilt. Round-trip blows by Orestes Minoso, Max West and Harvey Storey paved the way as 10,915 Oakland fans braved the cool weather to watch big Luke Easter perform.

Easter went hitless in four trips to the platter while Minoso, fleet-footed Negro center-fielder, hit three for three and West banged out his 23rd homer of the year to go into a tie again with Easter.

Seattle came from behind in the seventh inning at Seattle to edge out the listless San Francisco Seals 6-4. Lanky Con Dempsey, the Seal's portside specialist, walked three men after the bases were loaded.

The Seals jumped on Guy Fletcher who was aiming for his 114th win and drove him to the showers by the fifth. "Hard Luck" Herman Besse took over the chores, the Seattle win giving him his fourth win of the campaign against 11 losses.

Salem Legions to Meet Mt. Angels Friday Afternoon

The undefeated Capitol Post No. 9, American Legion junior baseball club, coached by Bill Hanauka, will engage Mt. Angel Friday afternoon. The game is slated for Water's field if arrangements can be made for its use.

The following Sunday the local juniors will go to Stayton for a second shot at the juniors of that community. The first half portion of the district season will soon be a matter of record.
