Soroptimist Club Installs At Dinner Event Wednesday

Salem Soroptimist club installed new officers last evening at a formal dinner party in the Cherry room of the Senator hotel, 40 members and guests attending.

Mrs. Henry Kayser installed the officers in a candlelight ceremony, assisted by Miss Alice Cray Brown at the piano and Mrs. Clo Johnson, who lighted the candles.

Sorority Event

A group of Salem alumnae of Alpha Chi Omega sorority will go to Portland Saturday to attend the group's annual state luncheon to be at the Benson hotel.

Among those going from here are Mrs. Howard Barlow, Mrs. Roy Rice, Jr., Mrs. Frank Guerin, Mrs. Paul Heath, Mrs. Lewis D. Griffith. All Alpha Chi Omegas around the state are invited to attend.

Miss Sparks Is Recent Bride

Rosedale—On June 5, at 3 p.m., before an altar banked with pink and yellow roses, white peonies, blue delphiniums and garden pink, the Rev. Oscar Brown performed the single ring ceremony that united in marriage, Miss Grace Ann Sparks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sparks, and Dannie Nathan Bonge, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Bonge of Salem.

The bride wore an ivory satin gown with net yoke embellished with embroidery and seed pearls. Her fingertip veil was lace edged and gathered into a coronet of braided satin trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of pink rosebuds and white carnations tied with white satin ribbon. Glenn Sparks gave his sister away.

Mrs. Milton Bingenheimer was her sister's matron of honor and wore an orchid taffeta frock with sweetheart neckline, puff sleeves and bustle back. Miss Shirley Bingenheimer, niece of the bride and Miss Eva Bonge, sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmaids wore pale green frocks made identically to that of the matron of honor. They all carried pastel colonial nosegays. Mrs. Wayne Sparks and Mrs. Glenn Sparks, wearing aqua taffeta, lighted the tapers. Miss Clara Sparks of Portland, sister of the bride, and Ronald Bowerman of Albany sang. Mrs. Forrest Comack accompanied, also playing the wedding marches.

Charles Rogers stood as best man for his cousin. Ushers were Wayne Sparks, brother of the bride, and Milton Bingenheimer.

Mrs. Frank Griffin passed the guest book and Eulalia Ketchum of Mulino, cousin of the bride had charge of the gifts.

A reception was held in the church presided over by Mrs. Bert Hamilton. Clara Sparks cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Bingenheimer served the groom's cake and Mrs. Wayne Sparks and Mrs. Glenn Sparks presided at the punch bowl.

Farewell Event

Mrs. John H. Hann was hostess this afternoon at a farewell tea to honor Mrs. Howard Conkle, who with Mr. Conkle and their two sons, Gordon and Brian, are moving to Seattle the first of July to make their home.

Invited were a group of senate secretaries with whom Mrs. Conkle worked during the legislative session, Mrs. Hillary Etzel, Mrs. Floyd Query, Mrs. James Newcomb, Mrs. Robert DeArmond, Mrs. Robert Needham, Mrs. Janet Collier, Mrs. W. B. Kimmel, Mrs. Pearl Young, Mrs. Robert Brennan, Mrs. Hann.

Giroux-Luhde

Falls City—Mock orange and other blooms formed a floral background for the wedding ceremony of Miss Donna Bernice Luhde and Francis A. Giroux, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Giroux of Silverton June 11 at 2 p.m. at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Luhde of Falls City.

The Rev. Willis Keithly officiated. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The bride wore a white taffeta and lace gown, with fingertip illusion veil and carried a white Bible and an orchid.

Miss Alice Luhde, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a blue taffeta gown and carried a nosegay of yellow roses. Miss Dianne Luhde, a sister of the bride, as bridesmaid wore a pink taffeta gown and carried pink roses.

Best man was Elmer Giroux brother of the bridegroom. The groomsmen were Johnny Classen of Dallas.

The reception was held on the lawn. The newlyweds will reside in Monmouth, during the summer session of college, where both are students.

LEAVING Friday on a vacation into Canada will be Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reinke to be gone three weeks. They are making the trip by motor.

Two Couples Plan Supper

Among informal parties on the late week's calendar is the buffet supper for which Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Fitzmaurice and Mr. and Mrs. Lester F. Barr will entertain Friday evening.
