

Boots and Spurs

Another summer, another season of fast and thrilling rodeos! Taking top billing this week-end is the smasheroo Sheridan rodeo with Harley Tucker stock and big name cowboys from all over the country. Preceding the big show on Saturday afternoon will be a colorful street parade with riders and saddle clubs from many localities in attendance.

The St. Paul Rodeo association members were hosts Monday evening at a social and banquet held at the St. Paul City hall for members of the press. The St. Paul trail ride held a week ago Sunday is still being talked about with the highest of praise from all those who attended and rode in the exciting event. It was a thrilling sight to horse lovers who watched as nearly 300 riders all mounted on fine horses leave the half way point at Champoeg in a seemingly endless stream. With them rode the new St. Paul queen and her court, the queen having been chosen during the picnic lunch at Champoeg park. Salem riders were doubly proud of their candidate, Miss Pat Zozel, for the lucky young lady is now not only a member of riding royalty but Her Majesty, Queen Patricia I of the St. Paul Rodeo. Queen Pat will ride her handsome Palomino, King Bing, when she assumes her regal duties at the St. Paul rodeo over the Fourth.
