

Testify at Espionage Trial—Dr. Edward U. Condon, director of the National Bureau of Standards, and Mrs. Condon arrive at court in Washington to appear as witnesses at the Judith Coplon espionage trial. Dr. Condon blasted the F. B. I. when the name of his wife Emily was linked to a Bulgarian employe of the Soviet intelligence service in one of the secret F. B. I. documents made public at the trial. (Acme Telephoto).

Scouts to Meet In Valley Forge

The Boy Scouts of America has selected Valley Forge, Pa. for its second national scout jubilee in 1950, according to word received by the Cascade area council. Selection of the site was announced by Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, chief executive of the organization. Over 30,000 scouts from every state in the Union and all U. S. territories will camp together from June 30 to July 6 on the site notable as the winter encampment of General George Washington and his Continental army during the Revolutionary war. Valley Forge park is owned, maintained and preserved by the state of Pennsylvania. An invitation to hold the jamboree there was received from Gov. James H. Duff. The jamboree will be the climax of the scouts' two year crusade to "Strengthen the Arm of Liberty."

2 Planes Collide; Pilots Uninjured

Corpus Christi, Tex., June 17 (U.P.)—Two lucky F-4U Corsair pilots had only minor scratches and sore muscles to show today as souvenirs of a collision in flight. Midshipman Donald K. Zerbe of Glenwood Springs, Colo., parachuted to safety on Padre Island yesterday after his plane collided with one piloted by Midshipman Thomas H. Thornberg of Portland, Ore.

Thornberg made a crash landing on the island. They were picked up by a navy rescue helicopter 20 minutes after the crash.

Masons Elect High Officers

Portland, June 17 (U.P.)—The grand lodge of Oregon Masons elected Shalor C. Eldridge, Portland, as master here yesterday. Worthy Harvey, Eugene, was named deputy master; Ralph S. Nesbitt, Portland, senior warden; and Jared W. Summerhays, Milton, junior warden. The order of Eastern Star installed its new officers at the close of the annual meeting. Mrs. Edna Throne, St. Helens, became worthy matron, and Leslie Bass, Portland, patron. Mrs. Leila Wimberly, Roseburg, became associate conductress and Leon B. Baketel, Portland, sentinel. Other officers: Mrs. Alice Robinson, Independence, conductress; Mrs. Ima Thum, Cottage Grove, lecturer; Mrs. Marjorie Merriott, Salem, chaplain.

Hell's Canyon Run Tried Again

Portland, June 17 (U.P.)—In his third try at running the Snake river rapids through Hell's canyon, Phil S. Williams, Portland, hopes to reach Lewiston Sunday.

He reached Homestead, Ore., Tuesday, and there mailed a letter telling of his latest exploit. Then he left downstream on a ten-man rubber boat. Aboard with him was Will Whittell, Portland.

Williams was capsized in two previous attempts to run the wild stretch of river. He used smaller crafts in the earlier attempts—two-man rubber boats.

Tuna Sighted Off Newport Harbor

Astoria, Ore., June 17 (U.P.)—A Seattle fishing boat skipper reports that he sighted albacore tuna 400 miles off Newport, Ore., last week.

The tuna season is not expected to start on the Pacific northwest coast for another month.

J. H. Petrich, master of the 85-foot tuna boat Aleutian Mail, said his boat was driven to port by stormy weather after sighting the tuna. Petrich said he failed to catch any of the fish because of the storm and because the boat's fishing gear was not ready.

Storm Warnings Removed

Girls' State in Legislative Session Friday Afternoon

Representatives from all parts of Oregon attending the annual Girls' State meeting here visited several state offices Friday morning, and planned to consider bills at their model legislative session this afternoon.

More than 200 girls are here for the government-instruction event sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Pat McCullough of Gresham took office as girl Governor of Oregon at Thursday's session. Other new officers include:

Evelyn Low of Portland, secretary of state; Barbara Christenson of Sherwood, state treasurer; Nancy Nelson of Astoria, attorney general; Nancy Erickson of Astoria, superintendent of public instruction; Eileen Fricke of Glenwood, chief justice of the state supreme court, and Fay Coxen of Toledo, labor commissioner.

Sara Archibald of Grants Pass was elected president of the senate, and Delores Brice of Portland was chosen as speaker of the house.

Veronica Buckholtz of Mt. Angel was named sergeant-at-arms of the senate and Vicky Moran of Woodburn, sergeant-at-arms of the house.

Mayor Dorothy McCullough Lee of Portland addressed the

for the government-instruction young model lawmakers Thursday night. Gov. McKay had addressed them earlier, before his departure for Colorado Springs, Colo., to attend the National Governors' conference.

State Senator Marie Wilcox of Grants Pass is serving as an instructor for the girls of Girls' State.
