Golfers Split Cash and Title In Detroit Meet

Detroit, June 20 (AP) — Cary Middlecoff and Lloyd Mangrum, two of the nation's top pro golfers, headed homeward with $2,250 each today after playing all even in a unique sudden death tournament extra.

The two were tied at 273 at the end of the regulation 72 holes of the four-day motor city open golf competition yesterday.

Then they set out on the sudden death playoff that went 11 thrilling holes before it was called by mutual agreement with the two splitting the championship and the $2600 and $1,900 first and second prize money.

Local golfing authorities said it was the first such overtime match in a PGA tournament here and the first time there had been co-champions in any PGA big-time event.

Aging Walcott Called Amazing Specimen by Doc

Kankakee, Ill., June 18 (AP) — At an age when most fellows get winded just running for a street car, Jersey Joe Walcott has run 300 miles.

This road work, plus 131 rounds against sparring mates, has left him as solid as a bull and as fire-breathing eager as one preparing to toss a matador. Jersey Joe, age 35-40, is a trim 196 pounder and confident he will chill 27-year-old Ezzard Charles and win the N.B.A.-version of the world heavyweight boxing championship.

They tangled in Comiskey park, home of the Chicago White Sox, Wednesday night.

After giving the Camden, N. J., Negro a blood pressure and heartbeat test, Dr. J. M. Houston, chief physician of the Illinois Athletic commission, said: "I don't know for certain how old Walcott may be, but whatever his age, he is in perfect condition. He is an amazing specimen."

Louis, who at 35 has retired and vacated his heavyweight throne, finds a guy just as old — and probably older — in there battling to gain it.

Salem, Corvallis Golfers Divide Week-End Match

Golf teams from Salem and Corvallis broke even Sunday with each outfit winning on its own course. A 16-man Salem squad played a similar number at Corvallis, losing 29 to 19. Jack Russell fired a 74 to take second place in the medal department at Corvallis. He was topped by Ray Babb of Corvallis who shot a 73.

The Corvallis squad that met Salem over the South River road course went home on the short end of a 38-22 score.

Plans for a ladies' two ball tournament are in the making for next Sunday.

Silverton Sox Trip Bend, 4-2

Bend, June 20 (AP) — Ted Kerr drove home all the Silverton runs as the Silverton Red Sox downed the Bend Elks in a State league game here yesterday, 4-2.

Kerr hit a two-run homer in the second inning, and a two-run single in the tenth frame.

John Farrell knocked in Bend's two runs with a homer in the third.

Feller Whips Yankees To Prove Experts Wrong

Bob Feller is up to his old tricks again—engaging in his favorite pastime of making the baseball experts eat their words.

It was only a couple of days ago that the experts predicted, for the upmy-upth time, that the erstwhile great Cleveland pitcher was through—finished as a winning hurler. And as he did on all previous occasions, the 30-year-old righthander has proved them wrong.

He stilled them yesterday with a brilliant 11-inning pitching performance as the Indians defeated the New York Yankees, 4-2. Feller allowed six hits only one in the last seven innings.

Feller's victory yesterday was a very important one for the fourth place Indians. It gave them the series from the league leaders—two games to one—and moved them up to within five and a half from the top. They've now won seven of their last eight and trail the third place Philadelphia Athletics by only one game.

A home run with one on by First Baseman Mickey Vernon broke up the game in the 11th. Joe Page, who had replaced starter Allie Reynolds in the seventh, was the loser.

Aided by homers by Ted Williams and Dom DiMaggio, each with two mates aboard, the Boston Red Sox walloped the Chicago White Sox, 9-2, to sweep the four-game series.

Lefthander Chuck Stobbs allowed seven hits for his first major league victory.

The second place Detroit Tigers, behind the superb pitching of Virgil Trucks and Fred Hutchinson, shut out the Washington Senators in both ends of a doubleheader, 9-0 and 7-0, to cut New York's margin to three games.

Philadelphia and St. Louis divided a doubleheader, the Athletics winning the first game, 8-2, and the Browns taking the second, 7-3. Rookie Alex Keller won his ninth game for the A's, scattering six hits.

Joe Ostrowski stopped the Mackmen with a seven-hitter in the nightcap.

Chuck Diering's ninth inning single scored Lou Klein with the run that gave the second place St. Louis Cardinals a 6-5 victory over Philadelphia and put them only one game behind the National league leading Brooklyn Dodgers.

Robin Roberts, who shut out the Redbirds on Friday, was the loser. Ted Wilks, in relief, was the winner.

Johnny Schmitz pitched the Chicago Cubs to an 8-2 triumph over the Dodgers to snap a seven-game losing streak for his club. It was the first Cub victory since Frank Frisch became manager.

The Boston Braves regained third place from the Phillies by taking both ends of a doubleheader from the Cincinnati Reds, 5-2 and 3-2. Bob Elliott drove in three runs in the first gam to help Warren Spahn gain his eighth victory.

The Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the New York Giants, 9-4, to take the rubber of the three game series.

Bob Chenes scattered seven hits in winning his fourth game. Larry Jansen was the loser.

Mt. Angel Wins Twin Dedication Games, 2-1, 2-1

Mt. Angel, June 20 — A double-header baseball victory dedicated the Ebner ball park Saturday night with a crowd estimated at 1000 persons turning out.

In the first game the Mt. Angel American Legion juniors defeated the Woodburn team 2 to 1 with Fournier driving in the winning run in the last inning. Mt. Angel also defeated Sublimity 2 to 1 in a Willamette valley league game.

Special dedicatory services were held between the two games. The park, one of the best-lighted in the valley, will be used for football in the fall.

Weaver and 'Kid' Rattle Tuesday

Buck Weaver and the "Yaqui Kid," Indian grappler who is advertised as having little knowledge of the English language, will highlight Tuesday night's pro wrestling performance at the armory. The "Kid" is being handled by Yaqui Joe, who made numerous appearances in the local arena a score of years ago.

Frank Stojack will meet Al Szasz.

The preliminary, scheduled for 8:30, Dale Kiser vs. Tony Faletti.

Sullivan Trims Weight For Main Event Here

John L. Sullivan, Portland light heavyweight scheduled to meet King Henry Lee in a 10-round main event at the armory Wednesday night, weighed 168 1/2 pounds following a strenuous workout Sunday and announces he will have a little difficulty in making the required weight. Lee, working out in Seattle, will enter the ring at 162.

Davey Ball of Portland, rules a slight favorite over Danny Forrest of Redding, Calif., for their six round semi-final. Ball is considered one of the better middleweights of the northwest.

The balance of the card, all four bouts consists of: Al Cliff, Portland vs. Pat Kelly, Eugene, middleweights; Don Doyle, Portland vs. Larry Reagan, Hermiston, lightweights; Dick Collie, Salem vs. Rafale Loera, Eugene, middleweights.
