

Capital Women

Edited by MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

6—Capital Journal, Salem, Oregon, Tuesday, June 21, 1949

Miss Sharkey Wed Today

At simple rites performed at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon in the First Congregational church was solemnized the marriage of Miss Patricia Sharkey and Thomas D. Livesley, Dr. Seth R. Huntington officiating. Members of the families attended the wedding. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham P. Sharkey and Mr. Livesley is the son of Mrs. Thomas A. Livesley and the late Mr. Livesley.

The bride wore a pink faille dress with pink picture hat and shoes, and she carried a bouquet of dark red lilies.

Miss Zora Rice attended the bride. She wore a blue eyelet dress and flowers in her hair and carried a bouquet of lilies.

Millar Finlayson of Vancouver, B. C., was best man.

Jean Hobson Rich played the organ for the service.

Following the church ceremony a reception was given at the Sharkey residence.

The couple have gone for a stay at the Metolius dude ranch and later will go to Abbotford, B. C. to make their home.

Engagements Are Told

Among summer brides will be Miss Delores Hathaway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hathaway of Champco, whose engagement and approaching marriage to William W. Tremaine, son of Mrs. Estella Tremaine of Woodburn, are being announced. The wedding is planned for July 30.

Mrs. Opal Cutler is announcing the engagement of her daughter, Miss Phyllis Cutler, to Richard VanOsdol, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. VanOsdol, all of Salem. No date is set for the wedding.

Humphreys-Harold

Stayton—Miss Nelda Marie Harold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harold, and Blyn Humphreys, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Humphreys, all of Stayton, were married in a double ring ceremony in the First Methodist church of Reno, Nev., Saturday, June 11, at 5 p.m. Rev. Don S. Fleming, pastor of the church officiated.

The bride wore a dressmaker suit of blue with which she used white accessories. Her corsage was of red and white carnations.

The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cole of Salem. Mrs. Cole is the former Miss Antia Humphreys and is a sister of the bridegroom. She wore a brown suit.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served in Reno's Grand restaurant and the two couples spent the evening sightseeing in the Nevada city. Returning to Oregon by way of Mt. Lassen park, the newlyweds are now at home in the Killian apartments.

The bride has been attending Stayton high school. The bridegroom was graduated from the same school in 1945 and served two years with the army engineers.

Kidner-Pirkl

The marriage of Mrs. Blanche Pirkl, daughter of Anthony Bren of Salem, to T. C. Kidner of Portland was solemnized recently in the First Christian church at Eugene, the Rev. Hugh McCallum, pastor, officiating.

The bride wore a white suit with black hat and white accessories, and a corsage of pink roses and stephanotis.

Miss Ila Baarstad of Eugene was the honor attendant and she also wore a white suit. Her corsage of pink roses.

Ernest Pratt was best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Noggler. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baarstad entertained the wedding party at a dinner.

Two Hostesses

Hostesses this evening at a buffet supper and bridge party will be Miss Echo Yeater and Miss Elise Schroeder, the two entertaining at the home of the former to honor Mrs. William Langston, Miss Yeater's sister, who has just returned from several months' stay in New York City.

Guests will include Mrs. Langston, Miss Marjorie Chesler, Miss Genevieve Cockerline, Mrs. Mary Thomas, Mrs. Lloydt Griffiths, Mrs. Warren Doolittle, Mrs. Wayne Gilmore, Mrs. Edward Dyck, Mrs. Arthur Sprague, Mrs. M. E. Hughes.

BEING welcomed home is Mrs. Elmer O. Berg, who has been taking advanced work at the University of Oregon the past year for a master of arts degree, and teaching, Mr. Berg and their son, Jerry, were in Eugene for the commencement week-end with Mrs. Berg.

Capital Unit Elects New Officers; Chooses Delegates

New officers were elected at the meeting of Capital unit, No. 9, American Legion auxiliary, last evening. Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding is the new president for the group and she will succeed Mrs. Helen McLeod in the office. Others named to serve with Mrs. Spaulding are:

Mrs. Clara Poland, first vice president; Mrs. Anson Ingels, second vice president; Mrs. Ted Borkman, recording secretary; Mrs. Allan Carson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Don Apperson, treasurer; Mrs. John E. Wood, finance officer; Mrs. Malcolm Cameron, Mrs. Clark M. Craig, Mrs. George Manning, executive board.

Delegates named from the unit for the state convention in Salem, August 3-8, include: Mrs. Helen McLeod, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mrs. Don Apperson, Mrs. A. W. Lovcik, Mrs. Merle Travis, Mrs. Malcolm Cameron, Mrs. George Manning, Mrs. Ray Bissett, Mrs. Anson Ingels, Mrs. Michael Panek.

Serving as alternates will be Mrs. Frank Marshall, Mrs. Clark M. Craig, Mrs. Ella Voves, Mrs. Clara Poland, Mrs. Ted Borkman, Mrs. John TeSelle, Mrs. John E. Wood, Mrs. Edward F. Voigt, Mrs. Walter Osborne, Mrs. Austin H. Wilson.

At the Monday meeting, Misses Marilyn Hall and Dwyn Anne Herberger, the two sent by the unit to Girls State, gave reports. Mrs. George A. Hall was a visitor. For music, Miss Barbara Miller played piano numbers.

At the social hour members of the executive board were hostesses. Mrs. Clark M. Craig and Mrs. A. V. Lovcik poured. On July 18 the unit will hold a meeting for initiation.

Miss Arnold To Wed Soon

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Beula Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd H. Arnold, to James Williams, son of Mrs. Harold Dickey, were announced at a barbecue supper party at the Arnold home, Sunday.

The wedding is planned for August 21, the ceremony to be in the Knight Memorial church.

For the announcement party guests were seated at a long table covered with a wishing well and ivory, a card bearing the names of the engaged couple and the ring being hidden in the bucket. Date for the wedding was written on the cake.

Miss Arnold is a graduate of Salem high school and is with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. Mr. Williams has been attending Willamette university, being a member of Beta Theta Pi on the campus, and will continue his work at Santa Rosa Junior college next year. The couple will make their home at Santa Rosa.

Family Picnic

A family reunion, the first in 25 years for the group, will be held next Sunday, June 26, a picnic being planned at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Morris (Bertha Kertson), 374 Tryon.

Several from out-of-town will attend, including Mr. and Mrs. C. E. (Clem) Kertson and children, Danny and Rosemary, who are visiting here from San Diego for the next two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris, also at the home of Mr. Kertson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Kertson on Oak street. Besides the visitors and the Morris and E. T. Kertsons, others attending will include Mr. and Mrs. George Kertson of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Kertson and son, Carol, of Spokane, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Drager (Evelyn Kertson) of Portland and their children, Kathy Jo and Mike, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Constantine (cousins) of Forest Grove.

Art Event

Invitations have been received from the Portland Art association to attend the preview of the exhibition of the work of artists of Oregon, 1949, and a reception for exhibiting artists on Saturday next.

The event will be held at 8:30 p.m. in the museum.

MR. AND MRS. Victor Helley of Grand Haven, Mich., have returned to their home following a two weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. James A. Wright at Aumsville.

RCA VICTOR RECORDS
1/2 PRICE
THRU JUNE ONLY
The SALEM RECORD SHOP
Downstairs Oregon Bldg.
State and High 3-8632

SPECIAL OFFER
A GENUINE
HOOVER
Model 115
only 49.95
and your old cleaner

Just think of it! Hoover's newest model—the handiest cleaner in America—costs only $49.95 and your old cleaner (cleaning tools extra). It's a triple-action Hoover—it beats, as it sweeps, as it cleans—yet it weighs only 13 pounds. See it in action in your own home. Call today—there's no charge, no obligation.

FRIENDLY CREDIT HOOVBROS WE DELIVER
SALEM OREGON CITY

Miss Arnold To Wed Soon

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Beula Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd H. Arnold, to James Williams, son of Mrs. Harold Dickey, were announced at a barbecue supper party at the Arnold home, Sunday.

The wedding is planned for August 21, the ceremony to be in the Knight Memorial church.

For the announcement party guests were seated at a long table covered with a wishing well and ivory, a card bearing the names of the engaged couple and the ring being hidden in the bucket. Date for the wedding was written on the cake.

Miss Arnold is a graduate of Salem high school and is with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. Mr. Williams has been attending Willamette university, being a member of Beta Theta Pi on the campus, and will continue his work at Santa Rosa Junior college next year. The couple will make their home at Santa Rosa.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Merle D. Bruckman announce the engagement of their younger daughter, Miss Mary Lou Bruckman, to James A. Shelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Shelley, all of Salem.

No date is set for the wedding but it is planned for the early fall.

VFW Auxiliary's Meeting Reported

Members of Marion auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, who plan to attend the departmental convention at Coos Bay this week with their husbands are: Mrs. Ralph Harlan, Mrs. Arwin Stayer, Mrs. Charley Hunt, Mrs. James Beall, Mrs. Bob DeLapp, Mrs. Mel Clemens, Mrs. Joe Hornnefer, Mrs. Leon Hansen, Mrs. Douglas Parkes, Mrs. LeRoy Simpson, Mrs. Russell Mudd, Mrs. Mae Wilder, Mrs. James Hartley.

Mrs. Leon Hansen, community service chairman, announces the committee will, with other members of the auxiliary, assist the Cherryland association with the sale of the festival buttons, Saturday, June 25.

ENJOYING the week-end at the beach at Oceanlake were Mrs. Harry W. Scott, Mrs. David L. Scott and the latter's mother, Mrs. Fred S. Peters, who is visiting from Forest Hills, N. Y.

Graduates—Miss Betty Lucille Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Meyer of Gervais, was graduated in the class at Good Samaritan hospital school of nursing this past month.

Miss Smisek Bride at Mt. Angel on Saturday

Mt. Angel—St. Mary's Catholic church, Mt. Angel, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Severina Smisek of St. Paul, Minn., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smisek of Mt. Angel, and Richard Bighley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bighley, all of St. Paul, Minn., on Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Rev. Father Damian Jeniges, O.S.B., read the vows and the double ring service, and officiated at the nuptial high mass.

The high altar and sanctuary where the bridal group knelt were decorated with white madonna lilies and white hydrangeas, and lighted by cathedral candles. Miss Helen Keber played the processional and recessional marches and was accompanist to the St. Mary's choir singing the mass and Miss Pauline Snafield and Miss Eustele Bauman who sang before and after the ceremony.

Mr. Smisek gave his daughter in marriage.

Her wedding gown was in traditional satin, fashioned on princess lines, with inserts of French lace from neckline to hem, and at the shoulder line of the long sleeves. The same wide lace in edging encircled the long train. Matching lace edged the tulle veil in finger-tip length, which was held with a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a spray bouquet of white roses and stockied with white satin streamers.

Miss Irene Smisek was her sister's only attendant, wearing a marquisette gown in pale rose-pink. The gown was made in empire style, with square neckline, puff sleeves and full floor length skirt dotted with tiny ribbon bows. She wore a pink net shoulder length veil, held with a tiara of twined net, and carried a spray of white and pink carnations and blue delphiniums, tied in long blue streamers of satin.

George Smisek of Colfax, Calif., served as the best man, and ushers were another brother, Wilfred Smisek of Truckee, Calif., and Thomas Jefferson of Colfax, Calif.

The wedding breakfast and dinner for about 20 guests and the reception were all held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Thomas Jefferson passed the guest book and Mrs. Wilfred Smisek cut the cake. Miss Dolores Hackett assisted at serving the guests. The young couple will visit at the home of the

Home from Camp

Returning from a week of summer camp at the Smith Creek recreational area on Sunday were 35 girls of the Salem court of the Junior Catholic Daughters of America.

Mrs. Harry Corey, Salem junior chairman, was in charge of the group with Mesdames Lade Koutney, J. D. White and Joseph Thomas assisting. Mrs. Edmund Silbernagel, RN of Stayton was camp nurse for the week.

Mrs. Weddle Wins Office

Mrs. Arthur Weddle of the Salem Business and Professional Women's club is the new regional director for the Western states in the National Federation of BPW clubs, elections having been held this week-end at the regional session in Seattle. The region takes in seven western states and Hawaii and Alaska. Mrs. Weddle is the immediate past president of the Oregon Federation of BPW clubs.

Oregon's invitation to entertain the 1951 regional meeting was accepted.

Mrs. Natalie Burns of Toledo club will serve as regional vice chairman and Miss Betty Eloffson of Salem club as secretary.

Accompanying Mrs. Weddle to the meeting in Seattle were Mrs. John Versteeg, president-elect of the Salem club; Mrs. Eugene Estes and Miss Eloffson.

PYTHIAN SISTERS club is meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Herman Bergner, 635 Thompson. Miss Betty Jean Bergner is to assist her mother.

bride's parents, with sight-seeing trips in Oregon, before returning to St. Paul where they will reside. They expect to leave here Wednesday.

Miss Clarkson Wed Recently

The marriage of Miss Roberta Clarkson, daughter of Mrs. Hannah Clarkson of Salem and formerly of Pretzwick, Scotland, to Keith M. Rebo, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rebo of Aumsville, was solemnized the evening of June 10, in the First Congregational church, the Rev. Seth R. Huntington reading the vows at 8 o'clock.

Pastel flowers, gladioluses, peonies and delphiniums, decorated the church for the service and the altar bouquets were of carnations.

Jean Hobson was at the organ. The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Kenneth Vaughn, wore a pale blue silk suit with blue accessories and a blue-flowered hat. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with an orchid in the center.

Mrs. Robert Vaughn was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a pale pink silk suit, a black hat with pink trim, and black accessories. She carried a bouquet of varied pink carnations with an orchid in the center.

Jack Muchridge was best man. The reception following was at the future home of the couple, 450 Academy street. Mrs. Robert Geddes, Mrs. Clarkson and Mrs. Vaughn assisted.

FINAL meeting for this year's board of the Salem Business and Professional Women's club will be Saturday at the home of Mrs. Charles Forrette, president, at 1968 Ferry street, a no-host supper to be given at 6:30 o'clock. All officers and committee chairmen are invited for this meeting.

GUEST at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gordon has been Dr. Ethel Sanborn, nationally known authority in paleobotany. Dr. Sanborn has been traveling to several new fossil flora locations in the Sweet Home area, as well as to some in the Salem area.

Miss Smisek Bride at Mt. Angel on Saturday

Mt. Angel—St. Mary's Catholic church, Mt. Angel, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Severina Smisek of St. Paul, Minn., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smisek of Mt. Angel, and Richard Bighley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bighley, all of St. Paul, Minn., on Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Rev. Father Damian Jeniges, O.S.B., read the vows and the double ring service, and officiated at the nuptial high mass.

The high altar and sanctuary where the bridal group knelt were decorated with white madonna lilies and white hydrangeas, and lighted by cathedral candles. Miss Helen Keber played the processional and recessional marches and was accompanist to the St. Mary's choir singing the mass and Miss Pauline Snafield and Miss Eustele Bauman who sang before and after the ceremony.

Mr. Smisek gave his daughter in marriage.

Her wedding gown was in traditional satin, fashioned on princess lines, with inserts of French lace from neckline to hem, and at the shoulder line of the long sleeves. The same wide lace in edging encircled the long train. Matching lace edged the tulle veil in finger-tip length, which was held with a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a spray bouquet of white roses and stockied with white satin streamers.

Miss Irene Smisek was her sister's only attendant, wearing a marquisette gown in pale rose-pink. The gown was made in empire style, with square neckline, puff sleeves and full floor length skirt dotted with tiny ribbon bows. She wore a pink net shoulder length veil, held with a tiara of twined net, and carried a spray of white and pink carnations and blue delphiniums, tied in long blue streamers of satin.

George Smisek of Colfax, Calif., served as the best man, and ushers were another brother, Wilfred Smisek of Truckee, Calif., and Thomas Jefferson of Colfax, Calif.

The wedding breakfast and dinner for about 20 guests and the reception were all held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Thomas Jefferson passed the guest book and Mrs. Wilfred Smisek cut the cake. Miss Dolores Hackett assisted at serving the guests. The young couple will visit at the home of the

Home from Camp

Returning from a week of summer camp at the Smith Creek recreational area on Sunday were 35 girls of the Salem court of the Junior Catholic Daughters of America.

Mrs. Harry Corey, Salem junior chairman, was in charge of the group with Mesdames Lade Koutney, J. D. White and Joseph Thomas assisting. Mrs. Edmund Silbernagel, RN of Stayton was camp nurse for the week.

Mrs. Weddle Wins Office

Mrs. Arthur Weddle of the Salem Business and Professional Women's club is the new regional director for the Western states in the National Federation of BPW clubs, elections having been held this week-end at the regional session in Seattle. The region takes in seven western states and Hawaii and Alaska. Mrs. Weddle is the immediate past president of the Oregon Federation of BPW clubs.

Oregon's invitation to entertain the 1951 regional meeting was accepted.

Mrs. Natalie Burns of Toledo club will serve as regional vice chairman and Miss Betty Eloffson of Salem club as secretary.

Accompanying Mrs. Weddle to the meeting in Seattle were Mrs. John Versteeg, president-elect of the Salem club; Mrs. Eugene Estes and Miss Eloffson.

PYTHIAN SISTERS club is meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Herman Bergner, 635 Thompson. Miss Betty Jean Bergner is to assist her mother.

bride's parents, with sight-seeing trips in Oregon, before returning to St. Paul where they will reside. They expect to leave here Wednesday.

RIGHT NOW! WHEN YOU NEED THEM MOST! . . . Arbuckle's PRESENTS ITS Summer STOREWIDE CLEARANCE!

Naturalizer High, Low Heels and Midways
the shoe with the beautiful fit

Yes! Every Naturalizer Shoe in Our Store GOES!
for only 988

- BLACK
- BROWN
- RED
- GRAY
- BLUE
- GREEN
- TWO-TONES

Semi-Casuals . . . Play Shoes
No Exception! They all go at this new low slashed price!

OOMPHE Play Shoes
YOUR CHOICE NOW 388

See Our Bargain Prices on
Reinharts Life Stride Roms
Johansen Vagabonds, Penaljo

Tiffany Originals
America's Greatest Shoe Value!
All for this new low price!
788

Including Genuine Reptile Sling Pumps and Sandals

Arbuckle's
481 STATE ST.

NO REFUNDS - NO EXCHANGES

NO TELEPHONE CALLS, PLEASE