2 to Honor Miss Myers

Entertaining for brides-elect continues to make up much of the social news.

One of the popular brides-to-be who is being feted at numerous affairs preceding her marriage is Miss Janice Myers, who is to be married July 17 to Lloyd V. Lewis of Eugene.

Mrs. C. W. Parker and her daughter, Mrs. Gerald Robison, will entertain next Monday evening at the Parker home at party for Miss Myers.

Dessert will be served, followed by an informal evening and a pottery shower for the bride-elect.

Surprise Given For Mr. Scharbach

A surprise father's day event honored Alex Scharbach, 1630 North Winter, his family meeting at a no-host supper arranged by his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester, Jr., Sunday. The honoree, 82 years old, has had both legs amputated in the past 10 months.

Attending the dinner gathering were Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Scharbach and children, Janice, Diane and Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Eckles, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Burlington and daughter, Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Ladd, Joe Kahut, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Tony Kahut and son Rodney of Woodburn, Mrs. B. Moison of Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Smith, Jr. and children, Julie, Sylvester III, and Alvin. Later in the evening other friends calling to greet Mr. Scharbach included Mr. Isaac, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Scharbach and Miss Florence Scharbach of Silverton.

Mrs. Mayer Hostess

Falls City—The WSC Society of the Methodist church held their June meeting at the home of Mrs. Jessie Moyer with the business in charge of the president, Mrs. Fred Hughes. Mrs. Chester Burbank led the devotionals. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Fred Hughes, Mrs. Margaret Thompson, Mrs. James Royer, Mrs. Oscar Rich, Mrs. Chester Burbank and the hostess, Mrs. Jessie Moyer.

DAYTON — A surprise bridal shower was given Friday evening for Miss Irene Valek at the home of her mother, Mrs. Wes Valek, in Unity, with Miss Laura Mae Goodrich of Dayton and Miss Jean Bailey of Willamina and Mrs. Robert Wright as hostesses.

The evening was spent playing games. Most of the guests were friends from the Oregon Mutual company where Miss Valek has employment.

Miss Valek is the bride-elect of Charles Jackson of Dayton. They have planned their wedding for July 2.

Refreshments were served to the following guests: Mesdames Helen Wright, Audrey Zentner, Norma Patterson, Lois Hibbs, June Asquith, Miss Mary Ann Shelburne and Miss Maxine Gile, all of Dayton; Miss Alice Hardy, Mrs. Dorothy Banke, Mrs. Arlene Luoto and Mrs. Katherine Wright of McMinnville; Mrs. Nina Lane and Mrs. Arlene McLeod of Yamhill; Mrs. Marian Grey and Mrs. Roma Eichorn of Carlton.

PAST PRESIDENTS club of the American Legion auxiliary is to meet for a picnic on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Palmateer, Auburn road. Husbands are to be guests.

Anniversary Duo Honored

Mt. Angel—More than four hundred relatives and friends greeted Mr. and Mrs. Roland Gottsacker, silver wedding celebrants, at a reception held at their country home between Woodburn and Mt. Angel, Sunday afternoon and evening, marking the anniversary of their marriage at St. Francis Catholic church, Portland 25 years ago.

Guests arrived from Seattle, Wash., Portland, Eugene, Salem, Harrisburg, Stayton, Sublimity, Woodburn, Mt. Angel, Aurora, Gervais, Silverton and other cities. Special guests were the Rev. Fathers V. L. Mofenbier of Woodburn, Martin Doherty of Gervais and Hildebrand Melchoir of Mt. Angel.

Roland Gottsacker and Lela Frichtl were married on June 18, 1924, and lived in his native city, Portland, where he was in business. Their seven children were all born in Portland, Mrs. Joseph A. LeDoux of Mt. Angel, Miss LaVelle Gottsacker, Delbert, Darlene, Judy, Mel, and Billy all at home. The family moved into the new home on Elliot Prairie road about two years ago, after residing a few years at Woodburn.

Mrs. Gottsacker wore a silk afternoon dress in antique silver, with an orchid corsage, gifts from her husband for the anniversary celebration. Their daughters, Mrs. J. A. LeDoux and LaVelle Gottsacker wore baby orchids, and Darlene and Judy wore corsages of carnations to match the buttonholes of their fathers and brothers. The flowers were gifts from their father who wore a new silver-grey suit for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. William Frichtl and Mrs. C. N. Gottsacker all of Portland stood in the receiving line with their children, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Gottsacker.

At the reception held in the home and garden, Mrs. Joseph LeDoux, Miss LaVelle Gottsacker and Miss Darlene Gottsacker cut the large four tiered cake which was guarded by an arrangement of flowers and lighted tapers in candelabra. Delbert and his sister Judy opened the gifts at the gift table centered with all white aster reed daisies, larkspur, and silver leaves.

Pouring were Mrs. Frank Althenhofen of Portland, Mrs. Leo Schwab, Mrs. Al Lulay and Mrs. J. J. Penner at hour intervals. Serving were Mrs. J. L. Wachter, Mrs. Joseph Butsch, Mrs. John Higler, Mrs. Alfred Aicher of Woodburn and Mrs. L. Nuss of Seattle. Mrs. Louis LeDoux was in charge of serving, and the graduates of Mt. Angel academy assisted about the kitchen.

Serving refreshments were Al Lulay, J. J. Penner, Leo Schwab and Joseph Butsch.

STAYTON—Plans were made when the executive committee of the Stayton unit of the American Legion auxiliary met in the hall to form an installing team which will officiate at the installation of Silverton's officers, July 11.

Appointed to the team were Betty Ward, installing president; Grace Keirse, first vice; Clorinda Titus, second vice; Alice Keirse, treasurer; Mabel Senz, secretary; Berniece Fair, historian; Thelma Biever, sergeant-at-arms; June Ruggles, chaplain. A practice night was arranged for Friday, June 24, at the hall.

Discussed also, were plans for a float to represent the Legion and auxiliary in the Santiam Bean Festival parade, as well as a concession.

Miss Wade To be Feted

Among affairs being given for Miss Corinne Wade preceding her marriage to Richard Kuhn of Portland on July 15 will be the shower for which Miss Patricia Viesko and Mrs. Reed Vollstedt (Maryana Bollinger) will be hostesses on Saturday.

The party will be at the home of Miss Viesko's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Viesko.

Bidden to honor the bride-elect are Miss Barbara Crawford, Miss Kathleen Hug, Mrs. Roger Schnell, Mrs. John H. Johnson, Miss Nancy Montgomery, Mrs. Robert Elgin, Mrs. Jack Spease of Corvallis, Mrs. Harold Gardner, Mrs. Stanley Kinney of Corvallis, Miss Louise Lister of Portland, Miss Edith Vollstedt of Albany, Mrs. Mabel Pontius of Albany, Miss Ruth Melby of Silverton, Mrs. Herbert Booth, Miss June Young, Mrs. Robert Moe, Mrs. Charles F. Bollinger, Mrs. Francis T. Wade, Mrs. Edward Viesko.

Miss Wade was honored at a shower given last Friday in Portland by Mrs. James Meece, Jr.

Civic Players Initiate Five

Salem Civic Players met for a no-host supper and informal evening Sunday at Mayflower hall, 20 attending. Mrs. Nathan Steinbock and Mrs. James Lucas arranged the supper.

Later, five new members were initiated, Miss Delma Davis, Mrs. Charles Hill, James Simpson, George Hall and LeRoy Kreuger. The new members presented readings, skits and a one-act play. Later, the group enjoyed dancing.

Shower Given

A surprise bridal shower was given recently in compliment to Miss Irene Bisanz of Silverton, whose marriage to Marvin Totland, also of Silverton, was an event of June 21. Hostesses for the affair were fellow employees of Miss Bisanz in the state tax commission. The shower, which was a miscellaneous one, was held in Willson park during the lunch hour.

The guests included: Margaret McRae, Elaine Frank, Jane Watkins, Joan Phillips, Marjorie Price, Marcel Stewart, Janell Johnson, Dolores Anderson, Phyllis Wyant, LaVerna Sorenson, Peggy Arnaz, Kay Smith, Anita Rhodes, Beth Morisky, Mildred Lilligh, Stella Gilman, Dorothy Bond, Lucille Robbins, Billie Scott, Connie Michaels, Betty Keppinger, Dolores Brown, Genevieve Anderson, Edith Dunn, Sylvia Willard, Mildred Preissler, Mabel McDannel, Mary Jean Boedigher, Neva Goeres and Julie Butcher.

On July 28 the Shrine will hold a special meeting in honor of supreme Shrine officials who will be here.

WOODBURN — The Mothers' circle of DeMolay will hold its June meeting Thursday evening, June 23, at 8 o'clock in the Masonic parlors. Members are reminded to bring tea towels for the Masonic kitchen. Following the meeting refreshments will be served to the DeMolay boys and advisers. The committee in charge of serving will be Mrs. Harlow C. Dixon, Mrs. M. G. Henderson, Mrs. Raymond Krieger and Mrs. Arthur M. Burt.

RECENT guests at San Francisco's Balalaika were Mr. and Mrs. Dale C. McLellan of Salem.

Engagement Announced—Miss Betty Jean Seder, daughter of Mrs. Kay Seder, recently announced her engagement to John Lloyd Cowan, son of Mrs. Pearl Cowan. The wedding is planned for October 1. (Kennell-Ellis studio picture.)

White Shrine's Meeting Monday

Several visitors attended the meeting of Willamette shrine, No. 2, White Shrine of Jerusalem, Monday evening.

Mrs. Pearl Speer, supreme deputy for the order, and member of the local group, and Miss Katherine Blood, worthy high priestess of Oregon shrine No. 1, Portland, were given special honors. Mrs. Ida Henshaw and Mrs. Lucille Lansing of Bethlehem shrine No. 4, Eugene, were also visitors.

Following the meeting and an informal program of community singing, refreshments were served. The committee for the evening included Mrs. Dan Roth, Miss Edith Wilkinson, Mrs. Hollis Hill, Mrs. Bessie Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Shreve, Mrs. Lawrence Gorman and Mrs. J. Palmer.

On July 28 the Shrine will hold a special meeting in honor of supreme Shrine officials who will be here.

WOODBURN — The Mothers' circle of DeMolay will hold its June meeting Thursday evening, June 23, at 8 o'clock in the Masonic parlors. Members are reminded to bring tea towels for the Masonic kitchen. Following the meeting refreshments will be served to the DeMolay boys and advisers. The committee in charge of serving will be Mrs. Harlow C. Dixon, Mrs. M. G. Henderson, Mrs. Raymond Krieger and Mrs. Arthur M. Burt.

INDEPENDENCE—The home of Mrs. Earl Riha was the setting for a shower, honoring Mrs. Harlan Smith (Betty Mae Peeyre) of West Salem. Multi-colored sweetpeas and pink booties were used as decorations about the rooms. The lace covered table was centered with with sweet peas and pink candles.

The evening was spent playing games, with Mrs. Loren Irving, Mrs. Adolph Riha and Mrs. H. W. Peeyre winning prizes. Mrs. Smith then opened the gifts that were presented to her in a large pink bootie. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Robert Riha and Miss Phyllis Troser.

E. Agee, who was married June 12 in the Evangelical church at Albany to Norman Riggins of Eugene.

They attended the reception following the ceremony held in the church. Mrs. A. L. Thomas, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl.

Mr. and Mrs. Riggins are graduates of Cascade college. Mrs. Riggins will teach in the kindergarten at Oak Grove in Portland. Mr. Riggins will continue his studies at Cascade.

Rebeka Event Monday Evening

The "last day of school" was the theme for the meeting of Salem Rebekah lodge No. 1, Monday evening, at the IOOF temple.

A "question bee" and "spelling bee," as well as musical numbers, poems and dances, filled the evening's program and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Walter Larson as the best dressed, to Mrs. Ed Owen for the prettiest costume, Mrs. Lora Groves as the most original, Mrs. Pearl Swanson as the funniest hair style, George Naderman as the most ridiculous, and to Mrs. W. L. Newton, who was in charge of the program, the prize for the funniest costume.

Mrs. Victor Koop was taken into the lodge by transfer and the following announcements were made:

The ladies auxiliary to the Patriarchs Militant will hold its annual homecoming, Thursday, at 6:30 p.m., at the IOOF temple.

The Three Links club picnic, their last event until fall, will be held Friday noon at the home of Mrs. Lulu Wilson, Route 6 Box 305, Salem. Cars will be leaving the IOOF temple at 11:30 a.m. for those wishing transportation.

Cards will be in play following the lodge meeting next Monday, and visitors will be welcome. Also announced for next Monday was a "housewares" shower for Mrs. Gwendolyn Elwood, whose home was destroyed by fire recently.

Following Monday's meeting and program, the "youngsters" enjoyed their lunches and coffee was served.
