

Former Salem Man Wed

Of interest to Salem friends is announcement of the marriage of Lois Beatrice Douglas, daughter of Mrs. L. R. Sisson of Portland, to Dr. Harold R. B. Hutchinson, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert A. Hutchinson, formerly of Salem and now of Hood River.

The wedding took place at noon Saturday in the First Presbyterian church, Portland. The ceremony was performed by the bridegroom's father, Dr. Robert A. Hutchinson, assisted by Dr. Paul S. Wright, minister of the church. Dr. John Stark Evans was at the organ.

The bride wore an ash of roses wool tulle with mist gray accessories and carried bride's roses and pink painted daisies. She was escorted to the altar by her brother, Dr. Merrell A. Sisson, San Francisco. She was attended by Mrs. A. J. McLean, Portland, who wore a tie silk print with fuchsia and gray accessories and carried Rubrum lilies.

The bridegroom's brother, Raymond A. Hutchinson, served as best man and ushers were Dr. Donald Deans, Vancouver, B. C., Dr. John S. Skirving, The Dalles, Leonard T. Hutchinson, Seattle, L. Richard Steeves, Hood River, Dr. T. Kineraley, Springfield.

At the reception those assisting included Mrs. Harry Means Crooks and Mrs. L. R. Steeves, Hood River, Mrs. R. M. Lehto, Salem and Mrs. N. Mann, Portland, Mrs. Raymond Hutchinson and Mrs. Leonard Hutchinson.

The wedding party was entertained at the University club for luncheon, guests being present from British Columbia, San Francisco, Seattle, Eugene, Portland, The Dalles, Hood River and Salem. The couple left for New York and plan to sail in mid-July for the British Isles and Europe. They will return to Oregon in October.

The new Mrs. Hutchinson is a member of the faculty of the University of Oregon Dental college. The bridegroom resided in Salem for a number of years when his father, Dr. Robert A. Hutchinson, was minister of the First Congregational church. His student career at Willamette university was interrupted by five years' service in the medical detachment of the U. S. army in World War II. He saw mili-
