

SP Orders Big Diesel Engines

Southern Pacific announced today that orders have been placed for 67 diesel locomotives of various types, at a cost of more than $23,000,000, in furtherance of its extensive improvement program.

In making the announcement, A. T. Mercier, president of the railroad, said the new orders will raise to approximately $241,000,000 the company's post-war expenditures for new rolling stock, nearly $90,000,000 being for 263 diesel locomotives.

Deliveries of the newly ordered diesel locomotives are scheduled to start in October of this year, and when the current order is completed in June, 1950, Southern Pacific will have a total of 402 diesel locomotives of various types in operation on its lines, Mercier said.

Of 196 diesel locomotives previously ordered since V-J Day, the railroad had received 153 by mid-June, of which number 54 are of 6000 horsepower for main line freight and passenger service. Remaining to be delivered on previous orders are 26 freight diesels and eight passenger diesels, mostly of 6000 horsepower. The company's present fleet of 238 diesel switchers is one of the largest of its kind in the country, the railroad president pointed out.

Included among the 67 diesels just ordered will be 28 of 6000 horsepower, each, for main line freight service; 17 road switcher locomotives, each 1500 horsepower; and 22 switchers, each 1000 horsepower. The company also is acquiring an additional passenger diesel unit.

Fighting Parsons Forget Differences

Kansas City, Mo., June 23 (AP)—A Presbyterian minister today forgave the Methodist clergyman who poked him in the nose during an argument over who was going to perform a wedding.

The Rev. Ellis J. Hough, Kansas City Presbyterian, dropped a $30,000 damage suit against the Rev. Kenneth J. Bressler, Methodist of Fairfax, Mo.

Hough said he had received an apology from Bressler that offered as much consolation as a court settlement.

Hough's nose was broken in the one-punch battle.
