Bevs Take 7th Straight Game

The Senators from Sacramento have legislated themselves into the first division of the Pacific Coast league. They advanced from fifth Monday to third yesterday at the expense of Oakland. With the aid of homers by Walt Droppo, Pete Coscarar and Joe Marty the Solons set back the 1948 Circuit champions 7-3. It was Pete's second four-master in as many nights.

Seattle came from behind to trip Los Angeles 6-4, amassing four tallies in the eighth.

Capitol Posters Win Uphill Game

Oregon City scored four runs in the opening frame of a district American Legion junior baseball contest at Waters park Wednesday evening but they didn't get any more. In the meantime Capitol Post's undefeated diamond aces kept pecking away at the lead and won out in the sixth 5 to 4. A double play decided the issue.

Sonny Walker, starting Salem pitcher, gave way to Jim Rock early in the first and Rock held the visitors scoreless thereafter. Each side collected six hits but those of the winning crew were more timely.

It was the ninth consecutive win for Coach Bill Hanauksa's crew which will play host to Silverton Friday evening.

Oregon City 400 000 0-4 4 3
 Salem 102 101 4-5 2 1
 Tuckersmith and Combs, Walker, Rock (R) and Jones.

Bevens Decides To Quit Hurling

Bill Bevens has decided that his pitching days are over and that he must seek other pursuits to gain a livelihood for himself and his family. Consequently he will ask for his outright release from the Houston club of the Texas league and will return to Oregon as soon as possible.

Bevens has asked his wife to put their home in the Keizer district on the market and intimated that he would purchase a farm. He went to Houston hoping that the higher temperatures of Texas would prove beneficial to his ailing arm. Apparently the change has made little difference.

Bevens has played baseball virtually every year since his high school and American Legion junior days. During the off season he frequently was employed at the Paulus cannery. Following the 1947 world series he became a salesman for the Sick brewery.

Surprise TKO Climaxes VFW Card

A sensational TKO victory for John L. Sullivan over the highly touted King Henry Lee of Seattle provided a climax for the Wednesday night fight card in line with advance notices from Matchmaker Tex Salkeld.

Sullivan, who fights out of Portland, apparently lost ground virtually all through the fight until he began to discard his easy counterpunching in the sixth. He carried a bloody nose from the second round, and his left cheek and brow showed the effect of Lee's left jab.

Lee missed with a right uppercut in the fourth that was packed with as much power as a jug full of sleeping pills. But that missed shot marked the turning point of the fight as Sullivan knew he had to take the measure of his Negro opponent and end the brawl or lose.

Sullivan landed a savage right at the opening of the seventh, and continued his advantage until he had clubbed the husky Lee to the canvass for a nine count.

Although he got up, Lee made little effort to avoid Sullivan and Referee Packy McFarland stopped the bout with the King hanging over the ropes. A woman spectator fainted at the finish.

Sullivan weighed 167½ and Lee 164½.

In the scheduled six-round semi-windup, Davey Ball of Portland, 154½, won a knockout decision from Danny Forrest, an Indian from Redding, Calif., 155, with a blow to the heart in the third round. Ball caved Forrest in the second canto when he found the Redman's weak spot and the KO came after he continually sought to duplicate his feat.

The fans boomed a draw decision in the second prelim between Larry Reagan, 127½, of Hermiston and Jimmy Ogden, 126½, of Portland. Reagan's style was to force Ogden to the ropes and then rain a series of blows.

In the opening bout, Dick Colie of Salem, 156½, won a TKO over Rafael Lorea of Eugene, 156, in the third round. Colie showed a potent left jab which bloodied Lorea's face in the opening round.

Another prelim was cancelled with the explanation that Pat Kelly, Oakland, Calif., had failed to win approval from the commission doctor to fight. He was listed as having a bad heart and a slight cold. He was to have met Al Cliff of Portland.

The youngest U.S. amateur golf champion was Bob Gardner who was 19 when he won the first of his two titles in 1909.
