

Capital Women

Edited by MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

Capital Journal, Salem, Oregon, Thursday, June 23, 1949

Winners in Golf Listed

Winners at the women's golf day Wednesday were as follows: class B, Mrs. Reynolds Allen; class C, Mrs. Glen Stevenson; class D, Mrs. Charles Musser. Mrs. Kenneth K. Bell of Portland was a guest.

Plans were announced for the two-ball foursome event Sunday afternoon. Reservations should be telephoned to either Mrs. Reynolds Allen or Mrs. Robert Drager by Friday.

Open House on 25th Anniversary

An open house will be held Saturday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. P. D. Baker, the event observing their silver wedding anniversary. Friends are invited to call between 2:30 and 5 o'clock and again in the evening between 7:30 and 10 o'clock.

Mrs. George Hall, Mrs. Fred Humphrey, Mrs. George Seek, Mrs. Harold McMillin, Mrs. Ralph DaMetz, Mrs. O. V. Hume, Mrs. Sam Patrick, Mrs. A. J. Crose and the couple's sons, Paul, Mac, and George, are to assist. Among out-of-town guests will be Mrs. Baker's father, L. McCandless of Lincoln, Neb., who is observing his 95th birthday, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. McCandless and daughter, Marian, of Redondo Beach, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Pearce of Pendleton.

Christening Event

Christening ceremonies for Thomas Rankin Needham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Needham, will be conducted Sunday at 12:30 o'clock in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church, the Rev. George H. Swift officiating. Dr. Winfield Needham, uncle of the little boy, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Buck of Portland, formerly of Salem, will be godparents. The grandparents of the little boy are Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Needham of Salem, and Mrs. W. C. Rankin of Portland. Also in the family is a sister, Beth.

Following the ceremonies an informal reception for members of the family will be held at the Needham home.

LEBANON—Mrs. Hazel Howe of Lebanon, district president of the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliaries in District 18, comprising, Albany, Brownsville, Corvallis, Philomath, Sweet Home and Lebanon, left Tuesday for the state convention of posts and auxiliaries in Coos Bay.

She was accompanied by Mrs. Clarence Hull of Philomath, district senior vice president, and Mrs. Chester Haven, district junior vice president. Mrs. Haven will act as page for Mrs. Stanley Tripp of Corvallis, who is now department senior vice president, and is being sponsored for the office of president for the coming year.

On Thursday, Mrs. Lethel Roe and Mrs. Gladys Landers of the local auxiliary, left for Coos Bay, accompanied by Mrs. Leo Clendenen, president of the Sweet Home auxiliary.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Williams will also attend the convention. Mrs. Roe, Mrs. Landers and Mrs. Williams are delegates from the Lebanon auxiliary, and Mr. Williams and George Roe are delegates from the Lebanon post No. 3572.

SUNNY NEW walls, ceilings, in 1-COAT, 1-DAY!

FULLCOAT is real OIL paint—It's fast—it lasts! Goes on over anything—smooth and flat—dries quick—HAS NO ODOR! 12 pretty colors.

FULLCOAT Does any room proud! $4.20 1 gal. FULLER PRINTS MORE DECORATING HELP

FULLER PAINT STORE
W. P. FULLER & CO
171 S. Liberty
Just South of State

Miss Weisshaar Recent Bride

Dayton—At a 2 o'clock candlelight ceremony on Sunday afternoon, June 12, at the American Lutheran church, in Newberg, Miss Ruthena Weisshaar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Weisshaar, of Newberg, was wed to Irwin Reu, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Reu, of Dayton. Rev. W. F. Fritz of Newberg officiated at a double ring ceremony. Miss Amy Lee, music instructor at Linfield college, played the wedding music. Miss Patricia Everest of Newberg sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a satin brocade dress made with a train. She wore a fingertip veil held with a beaded crown. She carried a white Bible and a white orchid.

Miss Florence Reu, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, and wore a gown of pale pink organza dotted with gold, and carried a spray of pink carnations.

The best man was Irwin Lentz of Newberg.

The church altar was decorated with candelabras and pink roses and delphiniums. The aisle was decorated with candle tapers and gladioluses. The aisle was covered with a white cloth. Little Sandra Borgen, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl and dropped pink rose petals preceding the bride. She wore a long dress of light blue taffeta. Alvin Reu, brother of the bridegroom, and Ronald Boudier, the bride's nephew, lighted the tapers and acted as ushers.

The bride's mother wore a black rayon dress with pink carnation print and black accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a pale blue silk with white accessories. The bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Hattie Wish, was dressed in dark blue, and all three had baby orchid corsages.

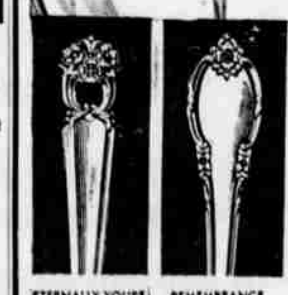

The reception was held in the church parlors. The table, covered with a lace cloth and bouquets of sweet peas, was centered with a three-tiered square, decorated wedding cake. Mrs. R. A. Kessler, of McMinnville, the bridegroom's aunt, cut the cake, assisted by the bride's sister, Mrs. L. Gaibler, Mrs. R. Schaal and Mrs. E. Rummilard, the bride's sisters, served the ices. Mrs. Manley Borgen, sister of the bridegroom, served at the coffee urn, assisted by the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. B. Weisshaar, Mrs. M. Schaal and Mrs. E. Rummilard and Miss

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

IT'S A FAMILY TRADITION TO GIVE BRIDES 1847 ROGERS BROS.

America's Finest Silverplate

ETERNALLY YOURS REMEMBRANCE ADORATION FIRST LOVE

52-PIECE SERVICE FOR 8 $64.75 (No Fed. Tax)
INCLUDING TARNISH-RESISTANT DUST-FREE CHEST
Jewelry Dept. Main Floor

Installation At JD Group

Miss Jean Herrig was installed as honored queen of Salem Bethel No. 35, Job's Daughters, Monday evening.

Those assisting were Miss Marilyn Reay, installing queen; Miss Anne Thompson, musician; Miss Delores Kletzing, guide; Miss Anne Baker, marshal; Miss Margaret Ames, recorder; Miss Adeline Smithson, junior custodian; Miss Allie Lou Ohling, senior custodian; Miss Carolyn Eckersley, chaplain.

Members of Chemeketa chapter, Order of DeMolay, performed an impressive crowning ceremony. Master Counselor Louis Lorenz, placing the crown on the newly installed queen's head.

Miss Delores Kletzing sang, accompanied by Miss Anne Thompson. Both are of Bethel No. 34, Independence.

Those escorted were: Miss Dorothy Davy of Bethel No. 3, Portland; Mr. Peterson, vice associate grand guardian of Oregon, Portland; Mrs. Gladys Hale, past grand guardian, Portland; Mrs. Claude Last, worthy matron of Salem chapter, Order of Eastern Star; Miss Gladys Boock, Worthy Adviser of Rainbow; Don Patton, royal patron of the Order of Amaranth; Louis Lorenz, master counselor of DeMolay; Jim Darby, past adviser of DeMolay, and the past honored queens of Independence and Salem Bethels.

Mrs. Kehne Wain, past guardian, presented Miss Marilyn Reay her past honored queen's jewel. Miss Anne Gibbons presented Miss Reay with a tiny doll dressed as an honored queen.

Miss Jean Herrig presented gifts to her installing officers.

She introduced her family, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Herrig, brother Richard and her aunt, Mrs. Herbert Thompson of Versailles, Indiana.

Following the installation there were dancing and refreshments.

AN EVENT for Saturday evening will be a no-host picnic supper gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Murphy. There will be 20 in the group.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

Wed Recently—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Anderson were married May 27, the bride being the former Jean Osborn. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Osborn of Buena Vista, Mr. Anderson the son of Mrs. Detmer Haesloop. (McEwan studio picture)

Thorn-Dillon Wedding is Saturday Evening at Church

The marriage of Miss Barbara Dillon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert S. Dillon, to Donald LaVern Thorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Thorn, was solemnized Saturday evening at an 8 o'clock ceremony in the Carrier room of the First Methodist church, Dr. Daniel Schulze officiating.

Gladioluses and sweet peas decorated the room for the service. Winton Zimmerman sang and Mrs. John Schmidt, Jr., was at the piano.

Candle lighters were Miss Glenda Fox and Miss Barbara Jo Garner.

The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin designed with lace yoke. The fingertip veil was arranged from an orange blossom headpiece. For her flowers the bride carried Rurum lilies and bouvardia.

Miss Beverly Fox was maid of honor. She wore blue taffeta and her flowers were a bouquet of gladioluses and bouvardia.

The bridesmaids were Miss Jacqueline St. Clair, wearing yellow taffeta, and Miss Mary McConnell, wearing pastel green taffeta. Both carried nosegays of sweet peas.

Robert Thorn was best man for his brother and the ushers were Roy Hutchinson, Cecil Cerr, Ammon Adams and Gerald Dillon.

A reception followed the service. Mrs. John St. Clair cut the cake, assisted by Mrs. Vivian Burton. Mrs. Olen Cannon, aunt of the bride, presided at the coffee urn and Miss Mildred Gingrich was at the punch bowl. Passing the dream cakes was young Miss Judy Alder. Assisting in serving were Miss Larea Heinrichs, Miss Donna Kethcart, Mrs. Clifton Boehmer, Mrs. Howard Blankley, Miss Jean Hordone, Miss Loita Triplett.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Harriet Lentz had charge of the gifts. Miss Joan Zemke had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with green accessories. The bride is a graduate from Newberg high school class of 1948. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton high school class of 1941. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in Dayton in the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Everett McReynolds. Mr. Reu is an aircraft mechanic at the McMinnville airport.

Shower on Tuesday Eve

Mrs. Frank J. Healy was hostess Tuesday evening at a party and shower for Mrs. Richard Zahradnik.

Miss Corinne Wade, who is to be married July 15 to Richard Kuhn of Portland, also was honored, a surprise box being presented her.

In the group for the party were Mrs. Zahradnik, Miss Wade, Mrs. Robert Persons, Miss Charlene Webb, Miss Harriet Huston, Mrs. Pauline Tidwell, Mrs. Gladys Boyce, Miss Joyce King, Mrs. Patricia McCloskey, Miss Maxine Werner, Miss JoAnn Keeker, Mrs. Charles Stewart, Miss Sharon Hoxie, Mrs. Lenore Naughten, and Mrs. Healy.

Star Adjourns Until September

Chadwick chapter, No. 37, Order of the Eastern Star, met for the last session before the summer recess, Tuesday evening. The past worthy grand matron, Mrs. Paul Hauser, and Rex Davis, past worthy grand patron, were introduced. Mrs. Dean Omans, who acted as a grand page at the grand chapter in Portland last week, was also introduced and honored.

Reports of the grand chapter were given by Mrs. W. L. Lewis, Mrs. Earl Wiper, Mrs. Elsie Kidwell, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Johnston, as well as by the worthy matron, Mrs. D. M. Eby, and worthy patron, Jason Frizell.

All those whose birthdays occur in June, July and August were honored with a gift from the worthy matron. Refreshments were served in the dining room. The tables were arranged with bouquets of blue hydrangeas flanked by white tapers in crystal holders. Serving on the dining room committee were

Reception for Anniversary Duo

On Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Earl Strausbaugh are to be honored on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary, an informal reception to be given at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Paul Kuper. Friends are invited to call between 2 and 5 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Strausbaugh and brother, Donald Strausbaugh of Longview, Wash., will assist.

The Strausbauhs lived in Salem until December when they moved to Longview.

Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thompson recently of 265 South 19th street, Salem, will celebrate their golden wedding on Sunday, June 26, at their home in Corvallis, 333 North 38th street.

Open house will be between 2 and 8 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson are the parents of six children, all of whom will be present.

A blue gabardine suit with white accessories. Upon their return the couple will be at home in West Salem.

GERVAIS—Mrs. Paul George

of Donald entertained the Junior Woman's club at her home Friday evening with 11 members present. Plans were made for a picnic the members will hold at Settlemier park, Woodburn, July 13. The club will continue meetings during the summer season and the next meeting will be with Mrs. Carl Leonhart of Woodburn.

Star Adjourns Until September

Chadwick chapter, No. 37, Order of the Eastern Star, met for the last session before the summer recess, Tuesday evening. The past worthy grand matron, Mrs. Paul Hauser, and Rex Davis, past worthy grand patron, were introduced. Mrs. Dean Omans, who acted as a grand page at the grand chapter in Portland last week, was also introduced and honored.

Reports of the grand chapter were given by Mrs. W. L. Lewis, Mrs. Earl Wiper, Mrs. Elsie Kidwell, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Johnston, as well as by the worthy matron, Mrs. D. M. Eby, and worthy patron, Jason Frizell.

All those whose birthdays occur in June, July and August were honored with a gift from the worthy matron. Refreshments were served in the dining room. The tables were arranged with bouquets of blue hydrangeas flanked by white tapers in crystal holders. Serving on the dining room committee were

Reception for Anniversary Duo

On Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Earl Strausbaugh are to be honored on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary, an informal reception to be given at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Paul Kuper. Friends are invited to call between 2 and 5 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Strausbaugh and brother, Donald Strausbaugh of Longview, Wash., will assist.

The Strausbauhs lived in Salem until December when they moved to Longview.

Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thompson recently of 265 South 19th street, Salem, will celebrate their golden wedding on Sunday, June 26, at their home in Corvallis, 333 North 38th street.

Open house will be between 2 and 8 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson are the parents of six children, all of whom will be present.

A blue gabardine suit with white accessories. Upon their return the couple will be at home in West Salem.

GERVAIS—Mrs. Paul George

of Donald entertained the Junior Woman's club at her home Friday evening with 11 members present. Plans were made for a picnic the members will hold at Settlemier park, Woodburn, July 13. The club will continue meetings during the summer season and the next meeting will be with Mrs. Carl Leonhart of Woodburn.

Star Adjourns Until September

Chadwick chapter, No