

Miss Betty Emma Burbank And Paul Ronco are Wed

Pedee—The Evangelical United Brethren church at Monmouth was the scene of a candle light wedding on Friday evening, June 17 at 8 o'clock when Miss Betty Emma Burbank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Burbank of Pedee was married to Paul A. Ronco, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ronco of Newberg. Rev. E. A. Fogg, district superintendent of the Washington and Oregon conference, read the double ring ceremony before a large crowd of relatives and friends. The altar was banked with madonna and calla lilies and white delphiniums in tall reed baskets.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with a train and a fingertip veil with an open crown and a tiara of pearls. For something old she carried a silk handkerchief belonging to an aunt. Her cascade bouquet was of red rosebuds, with lace tulle and white satin streamers. She wore a string of pearls, which was a gift of the bridegroom.

Maid of honor was Miss Alice Humphrey of Salem and bridesmaids were Mrs. Ken Baney, West Salem, and Miss Vivian Burbank, Salem. Miss Humphrey wore a pink net gown. The bridesmaids wore identical blue marquisette nylon gowns. All three carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations.

The candlelighters were Miss Joy Humphrey, Salem, and Miss Janice Bevens, West Salem, wearing yellow marquisette nylon gowns with carnation corsages.

Ken Baney, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. Debnay Arnold, Alsea, Aaron Burbank, Portland, and Joe O'Neil, Pedee, were ushers.

Miss Nola Womer, Pedee, played the wedding marches, and accompanied Mrs. Joe O'Neil who sang.

Mrs. Burbank, mother of the bride, wore a two-piece navy blue dress, with blue accessories. Mrs. Ronco, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy blue dress, with blue accessories. Both wore identical corsages of deep pink carnations.

The reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. The rooms were decorated with baskets of roses. The serving table was centered with a decorated four-tiered wedding cake banked with pink rosebuds and a lighted candle at each end of the table.

Mrs. John Yost, Portland, and Mrs. Herbert Pankratz, Portland, aunts of the bride, poured the coffee. Mrs. Letha Bevens, West Salem, served the punch. Mrs. Winnie Fletcher, Salem and Mrs. W. T. Turner, Pedee, aunts of the bride, cut the cake, after the couple cut the traditional first slice. They were assisted by Mrs. Elmer Fry, Chemawa, and Mrs. Glen Turner.

Silverton—The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Brewer, (the former Betty Libner) was solemnized May 21 in the Silverton Trinity Lutheran church.

WELCOMED home this week from two weeks trip to Detroit, Mich. were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hadley. While in Detroit they visited Dr. and Mrs. John Folsom Hayes (Irene Paulson) formerly of Salem and on the way west stopped at Glacier National park and Yellowstone.

Over the Fourth of July holiday week-end the Hadleys and children, Eileen and Allen, will be at the summer home of her parents, Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay, at Neskwon.

THE PICNIC planned by the Neighbors of Woodcraft Thimble club for next Sunday has been postponed until further notice.
