

Buying Boosts Wheat Prices

Chicago, June 24 (AP)—Buying which came mainly from the southwest lifted wheat more than 2 cents at times on the board of trade today. Despite the strength, the market was not very active. Other grains also moved higher.

Scattered showers in many areas of the southwest, raising the possibility of further damage to wheat, was the main factor in the advance. At one time all contracts except March sold over $2, but July subsequently fell back under that level.

Soybeans moved up briskly in late dealings. A lake steamer carrying 119,000 bushels of soybeans cleared here for Toronto. Rye gained a couple of cents and trade reports said Norway had purchased around 200,000 bushels of Canadian rye so far this week.

Wheat closed 1 1/2-2 1/4 higher, July 1.99 1/2-3/4, corn was 1 1/4 higher, July 1.33 3/4-3/4, oats were 1/4-1/2 higher, July 60 1/4, rye was 1 1/4-1 1/2 higher, July $1.41, soybeans were 1 to 3 1/4 higher, July $2.24 1/2, andlard was 8 to 18 cents a hundred pounds higher, July $1.15.
