Zontas Plan Sunday Tea

Zonta club met for dessert and a business session last evening at the South River road home of Mrs. O. A. Meigaard with Miss Hazel Roonicke and Miss Kathryn Carthew as co-hostesses.

Further plans were discussed for the tea to be given by the group next Sunday afternoon to honor the Cherryland Festival queen and her court, the event to be at the home of Mayor and Mrs. Robert L. Elfstrom between 3 and 5 o'clock. The event is informal with invitation extended to members of other civic and service clubs, as well as members of the Cherryland Festival association board and the Cherryland and their wives, also friends of the five girls who make up the court this year—Misses Patricia O'Connor, queen; Grace Kirk, Dorothy Neufeld, Katherine Specht and Jeannine Bentley.

Personnel of committees for the new year's work was announced, this being the first meeting for the new officers installed in June.

Next meeting will be a picnic on July 14 at the home of Miss Maxine Buren.

Corvallis Group Visits Oak Knoll

Twenty-four women from Corvallis were guests of the Oak Knoll Ladies Golf club at their meeting, Wednesday. Winners in the Corvallis group were Mrs. Charles Sharp, first and Mrs. Cecil Price, second. Oak Knoll winners were Mrs. H. A. Peterson, first, and Mrs. Loren Chase, second. Sixty-four women in all participated in the day's play. Luncheon was served.

The Oak Knoll group will play a return engagement at Corvallis, July 14.

This coming Sunday will feature a two-ball foursome at Oak Knoll, play starting at 5 p.m., with a no-host dinner later.

Visitors Here

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Loucks until Sunday are Commander and Mrs. J. E. Edwards and son, Johnny, recently of Coronado, Calif. Mrs. Edwards is a sister of Mrs. Loucks.

Comdr. Edwards is en route to Seattle where he is to be stationed the next two years.

Home from South

Judge and Mrs. E. M. Page returned late Wednesday night from a trip to California.

They went south to attend graduation of their son, Richard Page, at Stanford university, and in addition to visiting in Palo Alto, also were at other places in the Santa Clara and Santa Cruz valleys and at Carmel.

Richard Page is to be home for the summer and will return to Stanford in the fall, having been accepted in the graduate business school for two years graduate work.

CONGRATULATIONS are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DiFilippi upon the birth of a son, Joseph Leon on Wednesday, June 22 at Salem General hospital. The baby is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. V. DiFilippi of New York City and of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hansen of Salem. There is a sister, Delores.

SALEM chapter, Order of Eastern Star, is meeting Saturday at 8 o'clock in the Masonic temple for the final event of the summer. There will be initiation.

Miss Huntley is Bride at Dallas

Dallas—A wedding by candlelight in the Trinity Lutheran church united in marriage, Miss Kathleen Huntley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Huntley, and Donald Jesse Yeager, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Yeager, on Saturday, June 11. Rev. Karl Ufer, pastor of the church, read the double ring ceremony.

Before an altar banked with baskets of white gladioluses, the bride was given in marriage by her father. She was dressed in a white brocade satin gown with long train and fingertip veil and wore a crown of red rosettes and Stephanotis.

Miss Muriel McKnight was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Evelyn Jackson and Miss Karen VanDenBosch. Candlelighters were Miss Janet Barnhart and Miss Nancy Curry. Sharon Long, dressed in a yellow taffeta gown fashioned after the dress of the bride, was flower girl. Rickey Tallon was ring bearer.

The brother of the bridegroom, Edwin Yeager, was best man and ushers were Gene West and Bud McPetridge.

Mrs. Melvin Gilson played the wedding marches. She accompanied Miss Eva Jean Miller of Rickreall who sang preceding the ceremony.

Mrs. Huntley, mother of the bride, wore a pastel blue dress with navy blue accessories and a corsage of white gladioluses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Dallas Chamber of Commerce rooms. The serving table was centered with a decorated three-tiered wedding cake with candles at each end of the table. Mrs. Gordon Albee, the former Joan Hendrickson, now of Eureka, Calif., poured, and Mrs. Otto Adolf and Mrs. Clyde Gibbs served punch.

Mrs. R. R. Livesay cut the cake after the couple had cut the traditional first slice. Assisting were Mrs. V. L. Alexander of Klamath Falls and Miss Marjorie Hendrickson. Miss Beverly Trent opened and displayed the gifts, and Leon Huntley, brother of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

Following the reception the bridal party went to the home of the bridegroom's parents to see his mother who was unable to attend the wedding. They then left on a week's trip to Oregon beaches.

On their return they will make their home at 854 Jefferson street in Corvallis where he will attend summer school and Mrs. Yeager is employed in civil service in the botany department of Oregon State college.

LEBANON—Miss Betty Sylvester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sylvester of Lebanon, and Harold Force of Seaside, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Force, were married on June 16 at the Powellhurst Baptist church in Portland with Rev. T. L. Post officiating.

The bride wore a rose suit with navy accessories and carried a white Bible on which lay an orchid. Her attendant was Miss Jewell Stratton.

Best man was Gerald Force of Nebraska, a twin brother of the bridegroom.

A reception for the wedding party and friends was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

After their wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Seaside.

Mrs. Force is a graduate of the Lebanon schools.

ROBERT ELFSTROM JR. left Wednesday night following a 10-day visit with his parents, Mayor and Mrs. Robert L. Elfstrom. He is stationed at Perrin airforce base at Sherman, Tex.

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. Willard Mathews of Woodburn were married May 28 at St. Luke's church. Mrs. Mathews is the former Rosemary Halter. The couple are at home in Woodburn. (Alyce Studio, Woodburn)

Two Hostesses At Bridge Party

Mrs. Thelma Walter and Miss Marie Weber were hostesses last evening for an informal bridge party, entertaining at the home of Mrs. Walter.

In the group were Miss Vada Hill, Mrs. Leona Taylor, Mrs. Claude Jorgensen, Mrs. Carl Benson, Mrs. O. L. Donnelly, Mrs. Marion Wooden, Miss Cecilia Woodruff, Mrs. Delbert Schwabauer, Mrs. Elmore Hill, Mrs. Larry Morgan, and the two hostesses.

Sojourners Party Event of Thursday

Mexican decorations and a tamale luncheon featured the party for the Sojourners club Thursday afternoon at the Woman's club house. Mrs. Walter Toy prepared the tamales and Mrs. Loren Lewis was in charge of the decorations which featured Mexican figures.

Guests for the meeting were Mrs. Wendell C. Munson, Mrs. Frank Guerin, Mrs. Frank Mohlman, Mrs. Lynn E. Hammerstad, Mrs. Kenneth McNiece, Mrs. Barber.

Mrs. Robert May was welcomed as a new member. Honors at bridge went to Mrs. Carl Wood, Mrs. Earl Parsons, Mrs. Hammerstad, Mrs. Jack Kennedy, and at pinocle to Mrs. O. A. Olsen.

Mrs. Thomas Bagan will be chairman for the next meeting of the group.

LEBANON—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Watters was the scene of a bridal shower given for Miss Lois Pickens and William McTimmonds.

Arrangements of roses and pink and white streamers decorated the rooms. Thirty-five guests enjoyed the games provided for the evening's entertainment, followed by refreshments.

After their marriage the latter part of June, the young couple will make their home in Over-the-Top district.

Miss Reeves Takes Trip

Miss Joyce Reeves left yesterday on an interesting vacation trip. She is joining Miss Virginia Atkinson in Portland to go on north. The two were graduated this year from Willamette university, both being Chi Omega members on the campus.

They will go first to Seattle to visit Miss Nancy Montgomery, also a Chi Omega sorority sister, and then will visit in Mt. Vernon and Bellingham with other sorority sisters.

The two will then go to Milk River, Alberta, Canada, to visit at the home of Miss Atkinson's father, Donald Atkinson, and also plan to take in Banff, Lake Louise, Victoria and Vancouver before returning home in about a month.

SILVERTON — Miss Georgina Potts, formerly of Salem, niece of Mrs. George Christenson of Silverton, was complimented at the E. T. Carlin home in Portland on the eve of her leaving to continue her employment in civil service with the U. S. army, in Athens, Greece, at a reception for her many friends and relatives.

Miss Potts is recently from three years spent in the Orient, most of the time in Japan and will leave Portland enroute for Europe Sunday. A graduate from Pacific university, her work in Salem was with the Oregon State unemployment bureau.

Accompanying Mr. and Mrs. George Christenson to Portland was their daughter, Mrs. Elmo Lindholm of Salem.

WOODBURN — Mrs. William Merriott of Woodburn, a member of Salem Chapter No. 162, Order of the Eastern Star, and a past matron of Chadwick chapter, was installed as grand chaplain of the Grand Chapter of Oregon at the meeting held last week in Portland.
