Miss Torvend Married In Silverton Ceremony

Silverton—Miss Olga Theodoris Torvend, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Silas B. Torvend of Silverton, and Charles R. Christian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christian, Denver, Colo., exchanged their marriage vows Saturday, June 18, at Trinity Lutheran church before a candlelighted arrangement of salmon pink gladioluses and white delphiniums as altar decorations, the Rev. M. J. K. Fuhr reading the lines of the double ring ceremony. Miss Janice Johnson and Miss Jeanie Christian, sister of the bridegroom, wearing identical pastel gowns and wrist corsages, lighting the tapers. Miss Glenn Nelson of Portland and Mrs. Roger Stenberg of Parkland, Wash., sang, both accompanied by Miss Dorothy Martenson of Milwaukie, Ore., who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, accompanied to the altar and given in marriage by her father, wore white slipper satin dress with lace yoke and lace edged train. Her three-quarter length veil of French illusion was ruffled-edged with and inter-trimmed with old lace from her mother's wedding gown. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of white Esther Reed daisies and pale pink rosebuds in garland arrangement.

For her honor attendant the bride chose her sister, Mrs. James Phillips of Silverton who wore blue dotted marquisette, carrying a garland of yellow Esther Reed daisies with a matching floral beret garland in her hair. Bridesmaids were Miss Joyce Ruffcorn of Parkland, Wash., and a cousin of the bride, Miss Evelyn Torvend of Silverton, in identically modeled gowns of yellow dotted marquisette, their flowers, garlands of blue Esther Reed daisies and garland berets of blue delphiniums.

The small cousin of the bride, Ruth Sharpe of Salem, was junior attendant in a short frock of pale blue dotted marquisette carrying an arm basket of pink rose petals.

Erling Hjortisdahl of Spokane was best man. Ushers and attendants were James Phillips of Silverton and Palmer Torvend, brother of the bride, of Hillsboro.

Mrs. Torvend, mother of the bride, wore a rose formal, and the mother of the bridegroom, a pink formal, with matching corsages of gladioluses and roses.

At the reception for the near 200 guests in the church social rooms, Mrs. Arne Sunset of Parkland cut the bride's cake. Mrs. Henry Torvend of Salem was in charge of dining room plans. Presiding at the coffee urns was Mrs. Samuel Torvend of Silverton and pouring punch was Miss Maryanne Sunset of Parkland. The serving table and reception rooms were bright with small and large bouquets of various colored summer blossoms and greenery and candle light. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Blanche Kilmer of Oregon City, Miss Marcia Etzel of Canby, Miss Katherine Herman of Port Orford, Miss Elisif Skavang of Oslo, Norway, Miss Delores Langset, Portland, Miss Janice Jackson of Silverton.
