The marriage of Miss Doris Jean Larson, daughter of Mrs. Hattie Larson of Salem, was married June 17 to Gary Lee Kuebler, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kuebler, at a beautiful home ceremony at the Kuebler residence on Beach avenue. The service took place at 12 o'clock noon, Elder A. J. Gordon officiating. Large baskets of delphiniums and red roses, together with palms and candelabras holding lighted tapers, decorated the home for the service.

Lighting the tapers were Miss Vera Redberg of Oretown, Ore., and Miss Gloria Gordon. The bride wore a two-piece cream ensemble trimmed with silver beads and dark blue accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of purple orchids. Kenneth Loretz of Eugene gave his sister-in-law in marriage. Miss Beverly Loretz of Eugene was attendant for the bride. She wore a tailored suit of toast brown.

original guests were presented. The buffet table was set with a three tiered cake flanked by tall pink and white candles and small vases of sweet peas. Guests present included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stinger of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Colgan of Monmouth, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Siegmund of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Herman DeLangh of Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Colgan and Mrs. Carmen Jenkinson of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Max Cook of Hubbard.

LEBANON—The marriage of Mrs. Fern Edwards of Lebanon to Robert H. Neumeier of Salem was solemnized on June 9 at Vancouver, Wash. After July 10, Mr. and Mrs. Neumeier will be at home at 795 north Church street, Salem.

AUMSVILLE—The Aumsville American Legion auxiliary met at the Robert Mickey home and made new drapes for the fire department hall. A gift was presented to Mrs. Vernon Roberts during the evening.

Officers Named For Auxiliary

The Woman's auxiliary of the National Federation of Post Office Clerks local 604, met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Leonard Odum for their regular business meeting. Plans were discussed for the state convention to be held in Eugene this week-end, June 24-26. Delegates to represent the Salem auxiliary at the convention will be Mrs. Lloyd Drorbaugh and Mrs. Charles Warren.

A picnic was planned for July at which the auxiliary members will entertain for their husbands. Mrs. Lloyd Drorbaugh, Mrs. Lawton Girod, and Mrs. James Burkhardt are on the committee.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. LeRoy Krueger; vice president, Mrs. Norman Rue; secretary, Mrs. S. B. Leslie; treasurer, Mrs. Dayle Jory. The new officers were installed by the Oregon state president, Mrs. James Lucas.

Hake-Shaver Rites At Lebanon Church

Lebanon — Miss Verna M. Shaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin W. Shaver of Lebanon, and Richard W. Hake, son of Stanley Hake of Medford, were wed Sunday, June 19, at an afternoon ceremony at the First Christian church. Rev. Lynnton Elwell officiated.

Baskets of white gladioluses, red roses and candelabras were massed at the altar. Miss Faye Parks played the wedding marches, and Mrs. Ed Drapela was soloist. Candles were lighted by Miss Donna Lewis and Miss Bonita Johnson.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin and carried a white Bible, topped with red rosebuds and a white orchid. Maid of honor, Miss Norma Woods, wore a light green gown, and Miss Peggy Conner, bridesmaid, was gowned in yellow. The bride's matron, Mrs. Doris Shimanek, was dressed in blue. All attendants carried colonial nosegays.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, Donald Hake of Toledo, and ushers were Ted Sidwell of Kelso, Wash., and Harry and Leon Drapela of Lebanon.

At the reception at the church parlors, Mrs. Ralph York served the wedding cake. Pouring was Mrs. Juanita Gundersen. Out of town guests included the bridegroom's father, Stanley Hake of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hake and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hake of Toledo; Miss Patsy Peoples and Miss Frances Wilcox of Yelm, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Sidwell, Sr., Miss Darlene Walker and Ted Sidwell, Jr., of Kelso, Wash.; Mrs. Lyle Chance and Miss Wilma Chance of Halsey, and Mrs. Bessie Moore of Corvallis.

The bride is a graduate of Lebanon high school, and the bridegroom, a Medford high school graduate, is a student at Northwest Christian college in Eugene, where he is preparing for the ministry. Mr. and Mrs. Hake will live in Lebanon this summer, returning to Eugene in the fall.

Clan Reunion

The Humphreys clan will gather for its annual reunion Sunday in the Dallas City park, the dinner to be served 5 p.m. Following the dinner will be a business session. W. Ernest Savage is president of the group this year.

WOODBURN — Evergreen chapter, No. 41, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold the final meeting of the summer season Monday evening, June 27 at the Masonic temple. Degrees will be conferred and reports given of the recent grand chapter.

Serving refreshments will be Mr. and Mrs. P. L. LaBarr, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shaver, Mrs. Ada Settlemier, Frank W. Settlemier, Mrs. Thomas Engle and Miss Hazel Engle. The next chapter meeting will be September 12.

For the music, Mrs. A. J. Gordon sang, accompanied by Miss Coral Gordon. Donald Dempsey of Portland was best man.

Attending the wedding were immediate relatives of the couple. An informal reception followed the service. The bride's table was decorated in pale pink and white. Mrs. Janette Kuebler, grandmother of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Ralph Harris served the bride's cake and Mrs. A. J. Gordon the bridegroom's cake. Mrs. Roy Redberg served the ices.

Following a trip to the Oregon beach the couple left for two weeks to Missouri. This fall they plan to resume their education at Walla Walla college.
