

Solons Face Tough Home Slate After Sunday Split

The Salem Senators faced one of the toughest assignments of the Western International league season when they returned Monday from a tour of Tacoma and Bremerton. They play 12 games during the eight day period beginning with the Spokane Indians at 8 o'clock Monday night. A doubleheader is slated for Tuesday evening and a single contest Wednesday. The Yakima Bears, making their first appearance of the season, open an eight game stand Thursday night. Doubleheaders will be played Friday, Sunday and the Fourth of July.

Silverton Sox Trim Alcos in Week End Games

Silverton—The Silverton Red Sox took two State league games from the Albany Alcos over the week end. Playing in Albany Saturday night the Sox whacked the Alcos 14 to 3. They made two in a row with a 9 to 6 triumph over Albany on McGinnis field.

Albany scored all of their runs in the first three frames in the Saturday night encounter. Bill Hanauka settled down after that and held the Alcos runnerless. The Sox checked in seven runs in the third.

A six run splurge decided Sunday's game in the second frame as Chuck Sauvain held the Alcos to four hits. Lee Shinn spearheaded the Silverton attack with his three for four performance.

Feature of the nightcap was Mel Wasley's single in the eighth. It was just another single insofar as the game was concerned but for the Salem left fielder it was the blow that broke a drought of more than 30 times at bat without a base knock.

Sporer lasted one and a third innings before giving way to Osborn. Foster pitched the 7th and 8th.

Seven runs in the second decided the issue as Catcher Len Neal opened and closed the chapter for the Tars who got but three hits during the frame. Four bases on balls and Bill Taylor's triple with the sacks full contributed greatly to the slaughter.

Spencer lasted one and a third innings before giving way to Osborn. Foster pitched the 7th and 8th.

DiMaggio Plans Heel Test for Exhibition Game

New York, June 27 (AP)—Joe DiMaggio will make an attempt to rejoin the New York lineup tonight for the first time since spring training.

The ailing slugger will participate in a home run hitting contest before the Giant-Yankee exhibition game. If his bad heel does not hurt, he will be installed in the Yank starting lineup for the game.

And if he survives that game without pain, he may return to his regular job in centerfield when the Yanks launch their road tour at Boston Tuesday night.

Crew Defeat Hits Washington Hard

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 27 (AP)—The most disappointed man in crew racing today was Alvin Ulbricksen, veteran coach of the Washington Huskies, who was bent on revenge in the Poughkeepsie regatta last Saturday but found only bitter defeat instead.

For Ulbricksen, who watched Ky Ebright's California Bears sweep to a length victory over his Huskies, it was a double defeat. Ulbricksen, five-time winner of the regatta, wanted this one most of all.

His reason went back to May when California beat Washington in a duel meet on the west coast. In that race, the Huskies led most of the way until their number seven man caught a "crab." California moved ahead to win and Ulbricksen thought the Bears' triumph was a "freak."

California's victory Saturday, however, proved the Bears had the power to win.

Walker had sharp control as he walked but four and struck out 11. But one Woodburn player got as far as third base. Hall walked four and struck out one. He had control of the situation except in the third when Walker scored on Jones' double after he had reached first on an error and then advanced on Stewart's sacrifice.

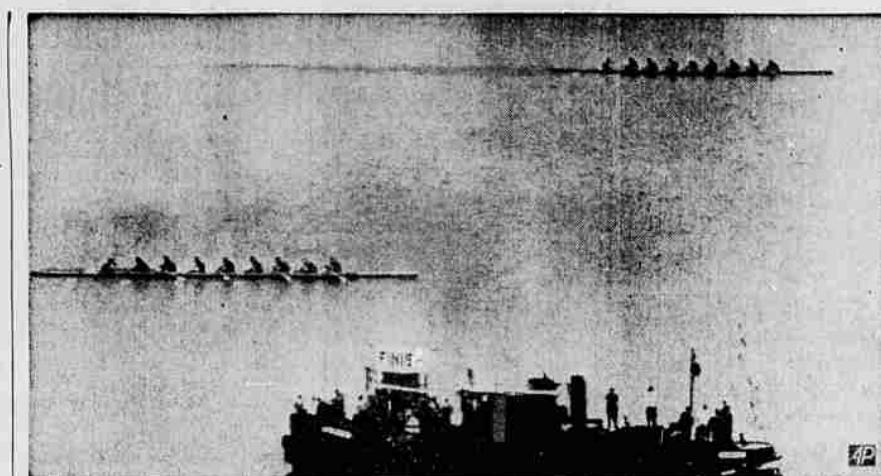

The win was the 10th straight for Coach Bill Hanauka's crew which won the first half of the season without a loss.

Catcher Henderson got two of Woodburn's three hits, with Nelson getting the other. Walker, Jones and Johnson hit for Salem.

Two division "B" tilts are slated for Tuesday evening: Keizer Merchants vs. Salem Heights Tigers at Keizer; Salem Laundry vs. Salem Board of Realtors at Leslie.

Philadelphia, lying at the junction between the Schykill and Delaware rivers, is almost 100 miles by water from the Atlantic coast.

Bears Nips Huskies

California (upper right) beats the University of Washington eight by inches to win the varsity event of the Poughkeepsie Regatta at Poughkeepsie, N. Y. The Golden Bears, trailing the Huskies from the start of three-mile race, put on a drive with less than a mile to go, to take the race. Bunched together behind the leaders, more than three lengths back, were Cornell, Navy and Princeton. (AP Wirephoto)

Bevos Take Twin Win, Other PC Teams Split

Split doubleheaders were the Sabbath menu throughout the Pacific Coast league.

That is except for San Francisco, which had a twin-beating served up by Portland to give the Beavers an unquestionable hold on sixth place in the standings.

Max West came through with a choice tidbit for San Diego, his 27th homer of the season with two aboard. This was the margin of a 6 to 3 win for the Padres over the loop-leading Hollywood Stars in the second game of the day.

In the opener Hollywood's Gordon Maltzberger kept San Diego well in check and the Stars turned in a well-done 12 to 5 victory. Herb Gorman and Irv Noren batted in five runs apiece for Hollywood as the Stars won the lopsided affair.

Booker T. (Cannonball) McDaniel, Los Angeles Negro newcomer, forked up his third twirling victory in as many times on the mound as the Angels edged Seattle 7 to 5 in the first tilt. The Rainiers captured the nightcap 6 to 3 but Los Angeles, in the league cellar, won the series four games to three.

Despite his triumph, McDaniel lacked speed and control, yielding 11 hits and five walks before he was yanked in the eighth. But he showed shrewdness in the clutches and received good support.

Oakland won a seven-inning opener 9 to 1 and Sacramento took the regulation nightcap 2 to 0. The second game win was Frankie Dasso's 12th victory of the year against four losses. Oakland ran away with the first game, cinching it with a six-run splurge in the first inning off Manny Salvo. The big punch was furnished by Frank Kerr with a homer, his first of the season.

Portland took the San Francisco Seals 6 to 5 and 4 to 0. Portland's Hal Saltzman hurled neat two-hit ball in the nightcap for his ninth win of the season. Red Lynn, pitching in relief for George Diehl, was credited with the Portland win in the opener.

Lippy Suspended For Verbal Bout

New York, June 27 (AP)—A polite but definite "no comment" was Leo Durocher's answer today to questions concerning his five-day suspension.

The ban was slapped on the brassy New York Giants manager for arguing not wisely and too well with Umpire Lee Ballanfant Saturday during a game with the Cubs in Chicago.

He flew back here alone, and was met at the airport by Giant President Horace Stoneham and Mrs. Durocher.

Dodger Sluggers Worry Pitchers With Record

New York, June 27 (AP)—Agonizing is the news a pitcher gets these days when his manager says "tomorrow you start against the Brooklyn Dodgers."

During the month of June only two hurlers, Tiny Bonham of Pittsburgh and Johnny Schmitz of the Cubs, have started and finished winning assignments against the league leaders. And from May 22 until June 19 the Dodgers went 26 straight games without having a pitcher go all the way and win against them.

It has happened only 13 times in 64 games this season, four times in April and seven in May before the Brooks got warmed up and only twice since then. The only pitcher to do it twice, is Schmitz, their old hex man.

In the 33 games since Ken Raffensberger of Cincinnati pitched a masterpiece one-hitter against them on May 22, 87 pitchers have been used or an average of 2.63 per game.

Yesterday in another terrifying display of power the Brooks made 22 hits in a 15 to 3 crushing of the Pirates at Pittsburgh, which followed their 17 to 10 triumph of the previous day. Four pitchers were cannonaded in each game.

The determined Cardinals hung on a half game behind the Dodgers with a 2 to 0 four-hit victory by George Munger over the Braves at St. Louis in which he hit his first big league homer. The Reds retarded the speeding Phillies with a sweep at Cincinnati, 4 to 3 in 10 innings, and 5 to 2.

The Giants, playing without Manager Leo Durocher, who was starting a five-day suspension, scored a 6 to 2 victory over the Cubs, whose boss, Frankie Frisch was back after serving a similar penance period for arguing.

Pat Mullin, up from a dead spot on the bench, smashed three homers and a single to lead the Tigers to a 12 to 4 rout of the pace-setting Yankees at New York after Detroit dropped the opener, 6 to 2.

Steve Gromek won his first game since May 29 for the revived Indians, a 10-inning five-hitter in which a single by Ken Kellner and a double by Bob Kennedy supplied the winning 3 to 1 margin at Washington.

Assistants Named To Coach Pilots

Portland, June 27 (AP)—The University of Portland will have two new assistant football coaches this year.

They are Floyd Simmons, former Notre Dame player, and Joe Tedeschi, former University of Portland star. Both were named Saturday.

Simmons will assist in backfield coaching; Tedeschi will handle the freshman squad.
