Ribbons Won by Salem Arabians

Salem horse owners are well pleased with the showing of their entries in the all-Arabian horse show at the Pacific International livestock exposition grounds in Portland Saturday and Sunday with ribbons won by Walter H. Zosel and Lee U. Eyerly.

Competing with 14 other entries, Jedd, young filly owned by Zosel, placed first in class of registered half-Arabs while Alamar, half-Arab stallion owned by Eyerly, was first in class and third in parade horse class. Eyerly's Nislam was third in purebred Arab pleasure horse class.

The Salem entries were handled by Don Hansen, trainer for the Salem Saddle club, who received a special award for the best western horse handler. Cecil Edwards, Salem, was co-announcer of the show.

Bruce and Dorris Purvine, of Long Beach, Calif., and formerly of Salem, took four first places, winning in the English pleasure horse class; three-gaited class, pleasure driving and western pleasure driving and second in scurry.

Judge of the show was Dr. Carol Howe, head of animal husbandry at the University of California and former head of the Kellogg Arab foundation of Pomona, Calif. The show was sponsored by the Arabian horse breeders association of Oregon, and attracted entries from Oregon, Washington, Idaho, California, British Columbia and Wyoming.

Navy Preparing Range for Missile

Washington, June 27 (AP)—The navy is busy preparing a range for its fastest, thumb-size missiles—expected to reach 7,000 miles an hour. This is ten times the speed of sound and twice as fast as the German V-2 rocket.

The missiles are for test purposes only, to teach scientists how to build full-sized weapons armed with warheads.

The tests, which will not start for two months or more, will be conducted in a 313 foot tube at the White Oak, Md., naval ordnance laboratory.
