Silverton—Miss Gretchen Handtamann of Bismarck, N. D., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Handtamann, and Carl Davis Peoples, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peoples of Corvallis, exchange marriage vows in a double ring ceremony at Calvary Lutheran church Friday, June 17, at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Norman Neumann of Oregon City reading the lines before the candlelighted altar, beautiful in blue delphiniums, Canterbury bells and blooms.

Many Call at Queen's Tea

Some 150 called for the informal tea given Sunday afternoon at the Fairmont Hill home of Mayor and Mrs. Robert L. Elstrom to honor Miss Patricia O'Connor, queen for the Cherryland Festival, and members of her court. Members of the Salem Zonta club were hostesses for the afternoon. Hours for the event were between 3 and 5 o'clock.

The five honorees—Miss O'Connor and the four princesses, Misses Jeannine Bentley, Grace Kirk, Dorothy Neufeld and Katherine Specht—wore their festival time attire, the queen in an all-white suit, the four princesses in pale pink suits with matching hats. Mrs. Arthur Weddle, official chaperon for the court, wore a pink suit a bit deeper in shade than that of the four girls. They all wore real cherry corsages.

A large bouquet of blue delphiniums on one end table and an arrangement of yellow flowers over the fireplace and other bouquets of pastel blooms decorated the rooms. Adding interest in the hallway and dining room were bowls of real cherries. The centerpiece was a low arrangement of purple and orchid petunias and single white gladioluses with a miniature tree with dark red real cherries attached standing up in the center of the bouquet. The table was set with a flounced white organdy cloth over green.

Mrs. Deryl F. Myers, wife of the King King of the Cherrians, Mrs. Charles Forrette, president of the Salem Business and Professional Women's club, Dr. Helen Pearce, a past Zonta International president, and Mrs. I. N. Bacon, immediate past president of the club, poured. Members of the Zonta club assisted about the living room and in serving.

Among the guests calling were the parents of the five girls in the festival court, including Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kirk of St. Paul, Mrs. N. T. Neufeld of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Specht of Jefferson, Mr. and Mrs. Francis O'Connor of Stayton, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bentley of Lyons.

Mrs. Anderson, mother of the bride, wore a green crepe dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a gray crepe with black accessories. Both wore rosebud corsages.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors attended by a large group of relatives. The room was decorated in a color scheme of pink and white. The white linen covered serving table was centered with a decorated with a three tiered wedding cake, pink rosebuds and white candles. Mrs. D. G. Harmon served the cake, after the couple cut the traditional first piece. Mrs. Norris Anderson poured. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Wallace Estenson, Mrs. Clifford Hadley, Mrs. Henry Banks and Mrs. John Arvidson.

Mrs. Charles Bullock, Jr., had charge of the gifts, Mrs. Amund

Miss Avey June Bride

The marriage of Miss Eileen Avey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Avey of Bryant, Ind., to Merritt Diehm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gherhard Diehm of Salem, was solemnized Saturday, June 18, at a ceremony at 2:30 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church, Dr. Chester W. Hamblin officiating.

Mock orange and white gladioluses decorated the church. Miss Grace Ashford was soloist and Mrs. C. H. Cravens played the organ.

The bride wore a silver gray chiffon dress fashioned with softly draped neckline and a full ballerina length skirt. She wore a fingertip veil of gray net held in place by small pink forget-me-nots. She wore long white gloves and a colonial nosegay of pink and white roses and bouvardia trimmed in pink malle. Cloyce K. Avey gave his sister in marriage.

Mrs. Cloyce Avey was matron of honor. She wore a peach marquisette gown, ballerina length, and her flowers were pink and white roses in a nosegay with bouvardia.

Mrs. Marjorie Anderson, in an ankle length light blue marquisette gown trimmed in white, was bridesmaid. Her flowers were pink roses in nosegay with bouvardia.

Dean Barnhart was best man. Ushers were Harold Barnhart of Dallas and Charles Crone of Sandy.

The reception was in the church fireplace room. Mrs. Ward Brooks cut the cake. Serving the punch were Miss Janet Barnhart and Mrs. Dean Barnhart. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Crone were in charge of the gifts table. Mrs. Ward Inglis of Stayton arranged the decorations.

The couple will reside in West Salem. The bride was graduated from Ball State Teachers college at Muncie, Ind., and has been teaching at Lake Labish. Mr. Diehm attended Willamette university, was in the air force during the war and later went to University of Oregon where he is a member of Pi Kappa Phi.

Camp Fire Girls Ready For Opening of Kilowan

The camp committee of the Willamette Area council of Camp Fire Girls announces that Miss Margaret-Jane Emmons, field director, will be the director of Camp Kilowan this summer.

Miss Emmons' past experience and training in the camping field were considered an asset when she asked to join the staff last fall. Miss Emmons began her camp counseling with the YWCA, in 1943, and was on their staff for three years.

She was a unit director at Camp Clearwax operated by the Three Rivers Girl Scout council the following two years and in 1948 joined the staff of Camp Tapawingo, a privately operated camp in Washington.

While attending Oregon State college Miss Emmons minored in camp education and administration.

The counseling staff named to work with Miss Emmons includes: Miss Beverly Thykeson of St. Paul, Minn., who will be unit director of Greenwood, the high school unit; Miss Gwen Harper of Portland, who will assist in Greenwood; Miss Charlotte Cutshall of Corvallis, who will direct the 7th and 8th grade unit, Aldera. Miss Cutshall's assistants will be Miss Phyllis Fleishman, of Corvallis and Hope Holbrook of Albany. Emerald Forest, the unit for 5th and 6th graders, will be directed by Miss Dorothy Libby of Albany. Miss Marion Sparks and Miss Merle Rhoten of Salem will assist her.

Mrs. Mary Ann Siddoway of Portland will be in charge of Poo Corner, the unit for Blue Birds. Mrs. Siddoway's assistant will be Miss Janet Albert of Corvallis. Girls selected to do specialized work are Miss Bernice Micka of Corvallis and Miss Betty Goolsey of Atlanta, Georgia, who will do waterfront programs and campcraft. Miss Marjorie Myers, store and KP supervisor. Miss Barbara Mumford of Corvallis, Miss Carol McCleary of Dallas, and Miss Elaine Cutting of Portland will assist and participate in a newly initiated counselor-in-training program. Mrs. Lee Jasper of Ridgefield, Wash., and Mrs. Weaver of Salem will cook for the girls and Charles Myers of Portland will assist with the grounds.

Members of the area camp committee are Fred Ramsey of Corvallis, chairman, Dayl Bures, Salem, Art Wood, Dallas, and R. E. Headrick, Corvallis.

VISITORS in Salem Sunday were Mrs. John R. Snellstrom and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Balzhiser (Mary Nadine Snellstrom) of Eugene. Mrs. Snellstrom flew Saturday night from Portland to New York City from where she will sail on June 30 for three months' tour of Europe.

Wedding Date Set

At a party given Saturday evening at her home in compliance to Miss Barbara Halvarson, Miss Beverly Hutchison surprised friends with the announcement of the date of her marriage to Kenneth A. Holmes of Albany.

The wedding will be Saturday evening, August 27, in the First Presbyterian church, an 8 o'clock ceremony being arranged. The reception following also will be in the church.

Miss Hutchison is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hutchison and Mr. Holmes is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Glenn Holmes of Albany. They plan to continue their work at Willamette university next fall. The bride is an Alpha Chi Omega member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity, serving now as chapter president.

The Saturday party was a kitchen shower for Miss Halvarson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Halvarson. She is to be married August 28 to Stanley Girod, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy O. Girod.

A late dessert was served. Decorations carried out the pink and white theme. A crystal bowl of pink roses and white daisies decorated the table, also pink tapers, ivy trailing out from the tapers. Two heart-shaped cakes were served with the names, Bev and Bud, written on them with the date.

Attending the party were Miss Barbara Halvarson, Mrs. Fred Halvarson, Miss Ellen Reynolds, Miss Bernice Isham, Miss Jean Doolittle, Miss Mary Hawke, Miss Delores Speilbrink, Miss Doris Kimble, Miss Donna son.
