

Fashions Cover Up, and Uncover-A rain coat guaranteed not to blow up in the wind and a night gown that would almost pass for an evening gown were shown at the California Apparel Creators' fall fashion show in Los Angeles. Janet Steele models the rain coat, made of shiny Velon, with weighted hemline. Hat and bag match. Francis Leyden's strapless nightwith slits for the arms, can be converted into a bed jacket.

(AP Wirephoto) gown is elasticized in back and around the top.

Los Angeles, June 28 aug.
General Counsel Robert N. Denham of the National Labor Relations Board said today that some changes in the Taft-Hartiey labor act "are desirable," but generally he approved the measure.

"Considering the attacks on the act, based on charges that it is destructive to the rights of labor, it is noteworthy that under it, the Wagner act principles of employer liability not only have been reaffirmed, but have been expanded," he told the annual conference of judges of the Ninth judiciary circuli, Employe pension and Insurance and union security, "within the limitations placed upon it in 1947," have been subjects for collective bargaining under Taft-Hartley, he said.

Denham told the judges from nine western states that he favors the injunctive process in labor disputes, claiming it "fills an important need in the enforcement machinery of the act by halting unfair labor practices at the threshold, pending final determination by the NLRB"

Berlin, June 27 (P)—The airlift had its first birthday yesterday, but no party.

The 235,314th flight—a C-84
Flying Boxcar—landed five tons of steel wool and textiles at Templehof airport at exactly noon.

It was unloaded without ceremony and took off for its home.

or Judge Robert M. Jones was non-plussed when he learned that 21-year-old Richard H. Brill, ready to be sentenced, had nine children, the oldest age 17. Deputy Prosecutor F, A. Walterskirchen explained that Brill had married a 40-year-old woman with seven children by a previous marriage and had added two of his own to the family. Brill received 15 years in the state reform school for burglary.

In Dad's time a person that saved money was a "MISER" ... In our time, he is a "WONDER"

Social Security will not pay you enough for a decent retirement. A few dollars saved now will pay you an additional $30 to $50 per month when you are unable to produce.
