

Portland to Get Kaiser Plant

Topeka, Kan., June 28 (AP)—A Kaiser-Frazer plan to dot the nation with a thousand small automobile assembly plants is under consideration.

Edgar F. Kaiser disclosed the plan yesterday at Topeka. He announced that the decentralization plan would hinge on the success of 20-car-a-day assembly plants proposed for construction at Portland, Ore., and Los Angeles.

The president of the Willow Run automobile manufacturing concern said that small plants with about 200 workers each would result in improved labor relations, closer personal contacts by management executives with workers and increased worker interest.

(At Portland, officials of the Kaiser organization said they had received no word of the plan.)

Old Age Petitions Have 10,000 Names

Portland, June 28 (AP)—The sponsors of referendum petitions against the old-age pension act of the 1949 legislature said today they have half the signatures they want.

Joe E. Dunne, Portland, one of the sponsors, said the petitions have 10,000 signatures. About 16,000 are needed to keep the act from going into effect July 16. The measure then would go on the ballot in November, 1950.

Dunne said they hoped to get 20,000 signatures.

New Eyes—Some time ago Virginia Warren (left), 19, University of California coed, was robbed of her "eyes" when her dog was poisoned. Fellow students raised a $1000 fund to donate to Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., which offered Virginia a new set of eyes. Here Virginia learns how to step off a curb at the organization's course in San Rafael, Calif., as Trainer Stewart West watches to see that the dog and student each do their part. Virginia and her German shepherd, Pilot, will graduate from the school after four weeks' training. (Acme Telephoto)

Playground Program Adds Puppet Show

Independence — Girls and boys attending the playground program at the grade school will have an opportunity to take part in puppet "show business."

Miss Osburn, from OCE, plans to put on a puppet show at the close of the seven weeks program. Other handcrafts already started under her direction are making wishing-well flower pots and decorative protectors for drinking glasses.

Bob McKeever, directing the sports program, plans to organize teams for competitive sports such as volley ball, baseball and other games that interest youngsters. This week they have been playing valley ball. The playground is open from 1 to 5 o'clock daily except Sunday. All children in the specified age group are welcome.
