

London Dock Strike Eased

London, June 28 (AP)—Striking workers of London's docks voted to return to their jobs today with the proviso that they will refuse to work Canadian ships involved in a dispute with crew members.

Threats of a major tieup of shipping in the whole port of London eased when 2,000 workers at the Royal docks voted unanimously to return to their jobs. A similar action was taken later by almost as many strikers at the Surrey docks where the sympathy move in support of the Canadian sailors started two days ago.

Thirty ships loaded with vital cargoes of meals and fruits were left idle as the dockers and longshoremen walked out yesterday. Dock officials said they expected to return to normal tomorrow with the exception of the Canadian vessels, four of which are now in English ports.

To Label Furs By Real Names

Washington, June 28 (AP)—The house interstate commerce committee today approved legislation to require furriers to label rabbits and skunks by their right names.

The bill, sponsored by Rep. Joseph O'Hara, R., Minn., provides fines of as much as $5,000 and a year's imprisonment, or both, for using false advertising or deceptive names.

Testimony given the committee showed that rabbit fur is sold under some 50 names—none of them rabbit.

The bunny often shows up as Arctic seal, beaverette, muskrat, or chapchilla.

The well-known skunk is well known as everything but skunk, the federal trade commission told the committee. Some of its fancy names are dipped marten, black marten, Alaska sable and

Girl's Feet Cut Off by Speedboat

Reno, June 28 (AP)—A hit-run speedboat pilot amputated a 13-year-old girl swimmer's feet yesterday.

Imogene Wittsche and Janet Lutz, each 13 and from Roseville, Calif., were swimming in Lake Tahoe. Then, said Deputy Sheriff F. W. Branzel:

The speedboat roared close to the beach and shot between the girls. Janet barely got out of the way.

One of Imogene's feet was cut off—presumably by the propeller. The other foot was left
