school of music was announced today by President G. Herber Smith and Dean of Music Melvin Geist, Willis C. Gates has been appointed as instructor in violin and will take up his work in September at the beginning of the fall semester

Gates will receive his doctor of music degree in August from the University of Carolina. He attended Penn State college for two years then transferred to the Peabody Conservatory of Music in Baltimore, where he received his bachelor of music degree and teacher's certificate (cum laude).

While at Peabody, Gates studied under a special violin award and at graduation was given a prize for his work in that field.

From the conservatory, Gates went to John Hopkins university and the University of North Carolina to study for his doctor-ate which he will receive this summer.

One of the most outstanding personalities that Willis Gates studied under was Glen Haydon director of music at the Univerrecognized leader in the field
