Miss Conger Wed Sunday

Buena Vista—The country home of Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Conger of Suver was the scene of a wedding Sunday afternoon, June 26, at 4 o'clock when their daughter, Miss Florence Conger, was wed to Jack C. Bowne of Portland. Rev. Willard Elkins of Salem performed the ceremony before a large crowd of relatives and friends.

Large baskets of blue and white delphiniums and regal lilies were used as decorations.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an oyster white gabardine suit with brown accessories and carried a white prayer book with brown orchids.

Maid of honor, was the bride's sister, Mrs. Donald Eckman. She wore a pink gabardine suit with matching hat and carried a nosegay of pink roses and sweet peas. Robert E. Lowe of Portland was best man. Mrs. Illa Shunk sang.

Mrs. Conger, mother of the bride, wore a blue print silk dress with a pink carnation corsage.

The reception was held in the dining room which was decorated in pink and white. The serving table was centered with a decorated three-tiered wedding cake behind which was a bouquet of pinks and white daisies, and white tapers.

Mrs. Steve Benedict of Dayton, sister of the bride, cut the cake after the couple cut the traditional first piece. Mrs. Howard of Vancouver, Wash., sister of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl. They were assisted by Mrs. William Frazer of Monmouth, Mrs. Duane Appleman of Corvallis and Mrs. Donald Henery of Salem.

Miss Linda Benedict passed the guest book. The couple left for a short honeymoon at Oregon beaches and will be at home in Portland after the first of July.

MR. AND MRS. Paul E. Davies of LaGrande were here Tuesday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies, who observed their golden wedding anniversary.

June Bride—The marriage of Mrs. Loyal A. Whitney (Verne Fisch) was solemnized June 4 in St. Joseph's Catholic church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fisch of Marshalltown, Iowa. Mr. Whitney the son of Mrs. Oliver A. Whitney of Salem. (Jesten-Miller studio picture)
