

The 14th Annual St. Paul Rodeo is only a few days away. Rodeo association President Ray Manegre, right, reminds this year's rodeo royalty. Princess Mara Lynn Manning, McMinville, left; Queen Patricia Zosel, Salem; and Princess Carol Lee Wilcox, Newberg; along with other Willamette valley equestrians are anxiously awaiting the opening show Saturday night, July 2; and the two performances Sunday; and a wild west parade and show on Monday. Around $7500 in cash and trophies has been posted by the rodeo association.

St. Paul Banners Wave With Rodeo Atmosphere

St. Paul, Ore.—Banners and flags bedeck the streets, western-style clothing is in the spotlight, and the horse is the popular means of transportation as the city of St. Paul makes ready for its 14th annual July 4th rodeo. Professional cowboys from all sections of the United States will be on hand to try for their share of the $7500 in prizes and trophies being awarded the winners of this year's three-day celebration.

Association President Ray Manegre has announced that both Saturday and Sunday nights are family nights at the rodeo, and all youngsters under 12 will be admitted free of charge to the performances, if they are accompanied by their parents. The Washington county sheriff's posse, Hillsboro, will drill as a special feature Saturday night; the Salem Saddle club will perform at the matinee and evening performance Sunday; and the Oregon Mounted posse, Salem; Portland Mounted posse, and Oregon Ranch Girls will be guests on Monday. Governor Douglas McKay will be grand marshal of the street parade which will wind through with various equestrian groups, the Sheridan Rodeoettes, Yamhill county sheriff's posse major-ettes, and the Canby twirling team will be on hand for the parade. Prizes will be awarded at rodeo park arena. The Tigard high school band will play during the parade and all of the rodeo shows.

Western Oregon cowgirls and cowboys are reminded by Secretary Pete Kirk that entries in the pony express, St. Paul derby, and cowgirls' and boys' pony races close at 10 p. m. Friday. These races carry $750 in cash, and the rodeo association has posted another $520 in special prizes.

Along with the rodeo performances, the three-day celebration has slated concessions, dancing nightly in the open pavilion, plenty of free picnic space for rodeo-goers who wish to spend the day, and 10 acres of free parking space adjacent to rodeo park.

Queen Patricia Zosel, Salem, and her court of Princesses Carol Lee Wilcox, Newberg; and Mara Lynn Manning, McMinville, will rule over the week-end festivities. The convention ceremonies were held Tuesday night.

Although Alabama ranks fourth as a cotton-producing state, it is the biggest heavy-industry state in the south.

Bus Drivers Plan Strike

Portland, June 30 (AP)—Bus drivers on the Portland-Salt Lake City run of the Pacific Trailways line are scheduled to go on strike tonight at midnight.

Negotiators were to meet, however, with Guy V. Lintner, federal conciliation commissioner, in a final attempt today to head off the walkout.

Lintner said wages and working conditions are in dispute, but neither side would disclose details. About 80 men are involved.

Continental Trailways buses, which operate through Salem, are not involved in the scheduled Pacific Trailways driver strike. The two are separate operations.

Georgia grows more nuts than any other state in the union, with Alabama second.
