

Miss Alsop Bride at Hopewell Church Rites

Hopewell—Sunday evening at 8 o'clock in a candlelight service in the Seventh Day Adventist church, Hopewell, Miss Eileen Marie Alsop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Alsop of Fairview, and Clarence Alfred Bloom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bloom of Sandy, exchanged their wedding vows. Elder George T. Dickenson, pastor of the Portland Central Seventh Day Adventist church performed the ceremony in the presence of 135 relatives and friends.

Surprise Given For Goldenweds

A surprise party was given Tuesday to honor Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies on the occasion of their golden wedding, the members of the Pythian Sisters Central lodge No. 11, being the sponsors.

A wedding cake with the inscription "50 years, Alice and Tom," was cut by the honored couple.

Mrs. Davies played several selections on the piano. For many years she was pianist for the Pythian Sisters here. The afternoon was spent informally.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Davies were honored at a reception given by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Taylor, and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Davies, Salem, at the Taylor home in Portland.

DAYTON—A surprise bridal shower was given by Mrs. Lammick Lorenzen and her daughter, Rose Marie, at their home, for Miss Phyllis Sweeney. Miss Sweeney is the bride-elect of Francis M. Trusty of Portland. The wedding will be an event of July 10.

Games were played during the evening. Balloons hung from the main light fixture and the honor guest was asked to break the balloons in order to find her gifts. Inside the balloons were bits of poetry telling where different packages were found.

The group included relatives and school friends of the honor guest. Those from out of town were Mrs. Lewis Trusty and daughter Shirley, and Mrs. Ed Carlson of Portland; Mrs. Edwin Jones of Canby; Mrs. Willard Fisher and Mrs. John Richardson of McMinnville, and Mrs. Leonard Roth of Silverton. There were about 20 present to enjoy the evening.

Miss Sweeney is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Sweeney of Dayton.

WOODBURN—Miss Rosemary Tremblay was honored with a surprise party Tuesday evening at the home of her parents in honor of her 14th birthday anniversary by a group of friends.

Boots and Spurs

The Fourth of July week-end always proves to be the busiest week-end of the year for horsepeople, and this year it seems to have outdone itself. The Cherrian horse show on Friday night promises to be a thoroughly delightful show with several unique games being staged. Two great rodeos will draw thrill-seeking crowds over the week-end, the Molalla Buckaroo and St. Paul's 14th annual show over which Salem's own Pat Zosel will rule. Pat has selected as her official royal outfit a striking blue ensemble of riding trousers and shirt, the shirt being richly decorated with a white cutout design. A white Stetson completes Queen Pat's royal regalia.

Idle chatter: The Saddle Club's English class which was organized under the direction of Bill Fyock has gained much in interest. Gail Dorr, Jean Smith, Marian Woods, Wanda O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Ward, Ann Woodmansee and Wes Cameron are a few of the riders who are taking an active part in the flat saddle event. . . . The young riding set took over the stadium last Friday night to put on Fun Night for the riders and the youngsters did a marvelous job. . . . Nice to see the Fred Anunsens riding again after a long absence from the arena. . . . Joyce Randall writes from Hawaii that she is having a glorious time on her island vacation but still misses riding Wildfire, her sorrel saddle horse.

PEDEE—Mrs. C. R. McCormack and Mrs. Stanley Singler were hostesses at a bridal shower honoring Miss Helen Burbank. The tables were decorated in pink and yellow with bouquets of roses. Mrs. F. M. Dyer, Mrs. C. R. McCormack, Mrs. Stanley Singler, Mrs. Kenneth Kilmer sang, accompanied by

To give you a FINER CIGARETTE

Lucky Strike maintains America's FINEST CIGARETTE LABORATORY

America's largest cigarette research laboratory is your guarantee that Luckies are a finer cigarette!

YOU SEE HERE the largest and most complete laboratory of its kind operated by any cigarette manufacturer in America.

For many years Lucky Strike scientists have delved into cigarette research on an extensive scale. Out of this has grown an elaborate system of quality control. Every step in the making of Luckies—from before the tobacco is bought until the finished cigarette reaches you—comes under the laboratory's watchful eye. Literally hundreds of precision tests are conducted daily to make certain that the Lucky Strike you smoke is a finer, milder, more enjoyable cigarette. As you read this, a constant stream of tobacco . . . samples from every tobacco-growing area . . . is flowing into the laboratory in Richmond, Virginia. These samples are scientifically analyzed, and reports of their quality go to the men who buy at auction for the makers of Lucky Strike.

Armed with this confidential, scientific information—and their own sound judgment—these men go after finer, lighter, milder tobacco. This fine tobacco—together with scientifically controlled manufacturing methods—is your assurance that there is no finer cigarette in the world today than Lucky Strike!

Testing tobacco. Samples from every tobacco-growing area are analyzed before and after purchase. These extensive scientific analyses, along with the expert judgment of Lucky Strike buyers, assure you that the tobacco in Luckies is fine!

So round, so firm, so fully packed. Typical of many special devices designed to maintain highest standards of cigarette quality, this mechanism helps avoid loose ends. . . . makes doubly sure your Lucky is so round, so firm, so fully packed.

So free and easy on the draw. This meter draws air through the cigarette, measures the draw. Samples are tested to see if they are properly filled. Tests like this one are your guarantee that Luckies are truly free and easy on the draw.
