

Four Corners Girl Asks Friends for Anniversary

Four Corners, June 30—A birthday party was celebrated for Sherrill White when her mother, Mrs. E. C. White, 4055 Beck ave., honored her daughter's seventh birthday. Games were played and birthday refreshments were served to the following guests, Nancy Baker, Joyce Brant, Anice Phillips, Connie Chambers, Marilyn Corbett, Twila Rickman and Arlen White.

Miss Verlaire Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Walker, Mahrt ave., returned home from completed her second year this spring.

Visitors in the H. E. Walls home, 4087 Glenwood drive this week are Mrs. Walls' sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hensley and daughters Dorothy and Sue Hensley of Plains, Mont. Also coming this week to visit in the Walls home is Mr. Walls' mother, Mrs. Clara Walls of Paradise, Mont. The Hensley family will go on from here to tour California and Arizona.

House guest of Miss Joann Greene this week is her cousin Miss Judith Todd of Gresham, Ore.

McKay Swears in Boy Governor

Corvallis, June 30 (AP)—Governor McKay was on hand here last night to "inaugurate" another governor—Ralph Thayer, Portland, of the Beaver Boys State.

Thayer was elected to the top position in the annual session sponsored here by the American Legion to teach boys the working of government.

Others elected: Bob Glass,

Eugene, secretary of state; Gordon Links, Madras, treasurer; Richard Wilbanks, Albany, attorney general; Lloyd Dyer, Medford, labor commissioner; Don Crawford, Eugene; Robert Schmidt, Eugene; and James

Butler, Portland, supreme court justices.
