

Senators Bounce Back to Win Thriller from Yakima

The devotee of the great American pastime of baseball who likes tense situations, thrills and the satisfaction of seeing his favorites win, came into his own at Waters park Thursday night. For the Senators, buffeted through many stormy games of recent weeks, came up with a 1 to 0 decision over the Yakima Bears in a dozen innings.

While Ray McNulty, whose assortment of pitches virtually silenced the war clubs of the Bears, assumed the hero in the diamond drama, it was Bob Cherry's mighty blast to the right center field that decided the issue in the 12th. Up until that time had only one man on each side had been able to reach third. Wayne Peterson, first man up in the 12th, poked a single into center field but was forced at second when But Peterson laid down a bunt that Pitcher Ted Savarese pounced on and fired to second. There was no play of Bud Peterson at first.

Cherry, who had singled in the second, then poled a low riding fly that neither Snag Moore nor Babe Gammino, center and right fielders, respectively could possibly bring down. It appeared at first glance that the race between Bud and the throw in from the fence would be close, but Peterson crossed the plate while the ball was midway of the diamond. Then the 645 spectators, who had been unusually vocal really raised the roof.

Neither McNulty nor Savarese issued a base on balls and so effective was McNulty's control and Catcher Bill Beard's choice of pitches that but two hits were registered off his delivery. After Dick Briskey touched him for a double in the third, McNulty held the Bears hitless until the 12th when Savarese dropped a single back of second, Briskey's double indicated trouble for he was the first man up in that inning. However nothing happened as the next three men were out in order.

In the 12th after Savarese had singled he started for second on McNulty's windup and was safe as the Salem chucker was charged with a balk. The threat was quickly wiped out when Savarese, a bit cocky, strayed too far off second and was picked off by Beard on a magnificent throw to Bud Peterson.

The Senators' scoring opportunities were not numerous, to say the least, Cherry opened the second with a single and stole second. Krug struck out when he went after a wide outside pitch but Wasley was hit in the back to put runners on first and second. Hedington and Beard both sent up long flies to Gammino in right field.

McNulty opened the sixth with a single past third and was advanced on a sacrifice. Again nothing happened as Wayne Peterson forced McNulty at second while Bud Peterson fanned. Savarese faced just 16 men during the next five innings.

When McNulty was hit on the foot while trying to evade an inside pitch in the 11th it appeared he would be forced to retire but he recovered and did not ask for a courtesy runner. Hank Sciarra went to the bullpen to warm up but his services were not needed.

Hal Zurcher, ex-University of Oregon player, took over right field for the Senators. The assignment may prove permanent since Larry Ortel, called to Camas on account of business, is not expected to return.

Friday night's program calls for two games beginning at 7 o'clock.

Beefy Players Become Hams for TV

New York, June 30 (AP)—It might come as a surprise to the meat packing industry but ham is an integral part of a camera. Due to this ham factor in the equipment, television currently is creating a new trend in sports which substitutes beauty for base hits and sacrifices grit for glamor.

Slenderized by an alphabetical short cut, television is known as TV. From the manner in which our athletes are acting, the "TV" must stand for "tendon virtuosos."

This complaint was registered first by several baseball managers who groused that even the umpires were muscling into the melodrama. After two games on the same field, the umps in-

Long Weekend Fishermen Urged to Pack Sardines

Fishermen who will take advantage of the long week-end holiday should pack a few cans of sardines with their gear if they expect to eat fish, judging by the weekly report of the state game commission. Lane and Deschutes counties are the only locations where any degree of success is predicted.

In the upper Willamette fair catches have been made on flies while a few limit catches are reported in the mountain lakes. The Sluslaw and adjacent coastal streams are clear and low.

Late afternoon fishing in the McKenzie has produced good results. All lakes in the Deschutes area reported fair results. The lower Deschutes remains too high for successful operations.

DiMaggio Clouts Yanks to Win, Fails in Star Tally

Better check those all-star votes. The name Joe DiMaggio seems to be missing.

If there is any legitimate 100 per cent all-star in the baseball business today, Joe is it. What matter that he missed the first 65 games? Of his showing in three ball games, he belongs on the team.

Ask the folks up around Fenway park, where he led the New York Yankees to three stunning victories over the Red Sox. He'd be elected by acclamation.

The DiMaggio story of 1949 is familiar to all by this time. How he sat out 65 games, played one exhibition and then catapulted into a starring role at Boston.

Jolting Joe did it again yesterday, crashing a three-run homer in the seventh inning to provide the winning 6-3 margin over the dazed Red Sox. He proved he is human by hitting into a double play, and popping out as well. Also he walked once and was hit by a pitched ball.

His first hit was a single, but the last four have been homers to tie Johnny Mize of the New York Giants for the most homers by an active player. Each has hit 307.

The Sox were moving fast when the Yanks came to town. Now they're in fifth place, eight full games back. Regardless of the other contenders, it's Boston the Yanks are keeping their eyes on as they near the halfway mark in the race.

Washington gave the Yanks a little more breathing room by knocking off Philadelphia, 8-6, in the only night game. The loss left the second place A's 5 1/2 games behind New York.

Detroit cut loose with a 17-hit attack on Early Wynn and three other Cleveland pitchers for a 12-6 triumph that moved them into third place ahead of the Tribe.

Brooklyn and St. Louis both lost in the National, leaving the Dodgers out front by a full game. The Phils' veteran lefty, Ken Heintzelman tamed the Dodgers, 4-2, and the Chicago Cubs bombed the Cardinals, 12-5, with Hank Edwards hitting two homers, scoring five runs and driving in four.

Bill Voiselle and Glenn Elliott hurled the Boston Braves to a double victory over the Giants, 3-0 and 6-2. Elbie Fletcher's three-run homer off Hank Behrman did the trick for Voiselle who allowed four hits.

Pittsburgh bunched three of its four hits off Howie Fox in the sixth inning to shade Cincinnati, 2-1. Fox retired the first 13 Pirate batters until Wally Westlake tripped in the fifth.

Utah, first in gold mining, was probably the last area in the continental United States to be explored.

Probable Lineup Announced in All Star Ball Ballot

Chicago, July 1 (AP)—Probable lineups for the 16th annual All-Star baseball game took form today as tabulators rushed to complete count of the record vote.

They had tallied 4,315,998 ballots, but there were many more to go.

Timely Hits Pay Off in All But Portland Game

San Francisco, July 1 (AP)—It is no great revelation to point out that a timely single can be game than a triple with two out this little bit of wisdom was underlined in three of the four Pacific Coast league games last night.

Only in the Sacramento-Portland contest did the winning team outthit the loser. The Sacs got 14 blows to down Portland, 7-4. Both Hollywood and Seattle stretched their mileage on six hits into five runs and both emerged victorious.

The San Francisco Seals also outthit their rivals, the Los Angeles Angels, but failed to outscore them.

Oakland's Oaks outthit Hollywood 7-6, but the final score read: Hollywood 5, Oakland 1. And in Seattle the Rainiers won the game 5-2, but San Diego won the hitting by an 11-6 count. The Angels beat the Seals 5-3 despite being outthit 8-10.

Tom Rose of Sacramento notched his first PCL win by scattering nine Portland hits. He was helped along by Joe Marty, who blasted a two-run homer for the game's first scores. Jim Gladd hit a sacks-em-up homer for Portland as Roy Helsner was charged with the loss. It was the sixth of the campaign for the Portland couple as pitcher and win.

Helsner was followed to the mound by three more Portland fingers, none of whom enjoyed much success against the Sacs.

Wimbledon, Eng., July 1

Ted Schroeder of La Crescenta, Calif., won the Wimbledon men's singles championship today, coming from behind to defeat Jaroslav Drobný of Czechoslovakia, 3-6, 6-0, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4.

Winning the international title, the most prized in tennis, in his first try, the ace of the U.S. Davis cup team became the third American to take the crown in the last three years. Last year it was Robert Falkenberg of Hollywood, Calif., who was eliminated in the quarter-finals this year, while in 1947 it was Jack Kramer, now a professional.

Prison Greys Seek Dates For July, August Games

The Prison Greys, representatives of the big house behind the walls, are in the market for baseball competition during July and August. Several open dates are available and clubs wishing to try their skill against the inmates should contact the warden's office.

The Greys will not play ball either July 3 or 4, since the first day will be devoted to getting ready for the big Fourth of July athletic program. The forenoon will be devoted to a track and field meet with a number of novelty events tossed in for good measure. The latter include a fat man's race, another for men 60 or over, colored men's race, a race for "lifters" and a "mounted gladiator" event. A total of 98 prizes, merchandise awards from business men, will be distributed to first, second and third place winners.

The afternoon will be devoted to a program of fisticuffing, when amateurs and not a few professionals will expend their energies in the squared circle.

502 Hitter Says Slugging Is Just A Mental Battle

Portland, Me., July 1 (AP)—After 60 New England league games Bob Montag of Pawtucket, R. I., Slaters is hitting .502. How does he do it?

The husky rightfielder from Cincinnati, O., says "it's a constant mental battle with the pitchers."

For example: "When the pitcher gets a strike on me, I spread right out in the box. They think I'm expecting a curve, but I want to see that fast one."

"Another time I'll fall away from a fast curve. If the pitcher throws it again, I'm set to break it to pieces."

And they really pitch to him. A lot of lesser lights in the class B circuit get walked more often than Montag.

American Women Reach Finals in Wimbledon Meet

Wimbledon, Eng., July 1 (AP) Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., and Mrs. Margaret Osborne DuPont of Bellevue, Del., the defending champions, advanced to the women's doubles finals of the Wimbledon tennis championships today by beating Joy Gannon and Betty Hilton of Britain, 6-2, 6-2.

A capacity crowd of 15,000, including Queen Mother Mary and the Duchess of Kent, jammed the center court to watch the crack American team turn back Britain's last hope in the women's doubles.

The triumph of Miss Brough and Mrs. DuPont also assured an all-American final for they will meet the winner of a match between Mrs. Patricia Canning Todd and Miss Gertrude Moran and Miss Shirley Fry and Mrs. Helen Ribbany for the title tomorrow.

Miss Brough and Mrs. DuPont, who had dropped only eight games enroute to the semi-finals, dominated the play except for the first game of the first set when stocky, attractive Mrs. Hilton's tricky serves helped the Briton to win it, giving the crowd one of its few chances to cheer.

Tight Pitching Marks Softball Games Thursday

Pitchers had the better of the arguments Thursday night as the City softball league unraveled a pair of games under the lights at Leslie field. Percy Crofoot, veteran of many mound duels, tossed a no hitter as Randle's blanked 12th Street, 2-0. Bob Knight was just a trifle less effective as he limited Golden Pheasant to one single blow. The result was a 4 to 0 win by the Papermakers.

The only blow off Knight was a bunt by Bob Warren on which there was no play.

Four Pheasant errors and two Papermaker hits gave the Makers four runs in the second.

In Industrial league competition, Paper Mill outscored the Post Office club 10 to 7.

The schedule for Friday night: Industrial league—Clear Lake vs. Maple Dairy. City league—Rock Wool vs. Mootry's and Knights of Columbus vs. Marine Reserves.
