

Salemite Wed In Portland

Of interest in Salem is account of the recent wedding of Miss Phyllis Ann Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Albert Howard of Portland, and Dewey Allyn Rand, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey A. Rand of Salem, the ceremony being solemnized June 20 at Mount Tabor Presbyterian church, Dr. Robert K. Russell officiating.

The bride chose an ivory slipper satin gown fashioned with a heart-shaped neckline with clusters of seed pearls, a ruffled peplum and a full-length train. Her illusion veil was trimmed with imported lace and was held in place by a satin coronet. She carried a prayer book with orchids and was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. John Leslie Scheele was matron of honor and wore an aqua moire gown with matching mitts. She had a coronet and carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of salmon carnations and roses. Miss Beryl Darby, Mrs. Richard P. Simmons, Mrs. Marlowe Garretson and Miss Joanne Miller were bridesmaids. They wore yellow moire taffeta gowns with matching mitts and their coronets and bouquets were of blue delphiniums and salmon roses. Flower girls were the Misses Sharon Marie Booth and Ann Marie Sutton.

Harry J. Thomas was best man and ushers were Paul Anderson, John L. Scheele, Wayne Pollock and Richard P. Simmons.

A reception was held at the church. Pouring and assisting were Mesdames Elizabeth Thompson, Allen T. Anderson, Ivan Ratcliff, Stuart Moir, Payson Sammis, Lucille Dench, Henrietta McCutcheon, Edward Sutton and Frank Wolrich, Jr. and the Misses Norma Lundstrom, Harriet Kelly, Caroline Griesel, Geotta Stendal, Lorraine Miller and Iris Burton.

Following a wedding trip to California, Mr. and Mrs. Rand will live in Portland after July 5.

Wed Recently—The marriage of Mrs. Marvin Lowen, who was Betty Loewen, was solemnized recently. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Nettie Loewen and Mr. Lowen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lowen. (Jesten-Miller studio picture)

Miss Gates and Mr. Jones Wed

Woodburn—The marriage of Miss Lorraine Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gates of Woodburn, to Robert E. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones of Portland, formerly of Woodburn, was an event of June 18 at 2 p.m. in the Methodist parsonage at Vancouver, Wash., with Rev. Dan Taylor officiating.

The bride wore an oyster white suit with navy blue accessories and orchid corsage. Attendants were the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Cummings, and her brother, Arthur Gates.

A wedding trip to Canada and eastern Washington followed the ceremony.

Mr. Jones graduated from Woodburn high school in 1938 and spent 3½ years in the navy as an aviation mechanic. Mrs. Jones has been employed as secretary in the personnel office of Birds Eye-Snyder for the past one and one-half years.

Reception Fetes Mr. and Mrs. Dunn

The Salem Heights home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Shaffer was the scene Sunday afternoon, June 26, of a reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Hubert M. Dunn of Portland, formerly of Salem, on their silver wedding anniversary. Miss Marjorie Dunn of Portland, sister of Mrs. Shaffer, was co-hostess.

Arrangements of pink and white painted daisies and pink candles were used about the rooms. Miss Beverly Matlock greeted guests at the door and also passed the guest book. Mrs. Shaffer cut the cake and Miss Dunn served the punch.

Among the guests calling to honor the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fasching, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Butler, Jane and Myra Bell, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Carleton, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Hanks, Mrs. J. M. Dickinson, Mrs. O. W. Gorton and Dale, Mrs. Leora Matlock, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Morris, Mrs. Esther Edler, Armella Willet, Winona and Buddy Edler.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Murrell Gilkey of Sweet Home, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winkel, Mrs. Shirley Pedersen and Jan of West Linn, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Reinke of Stayton.

Sharing honors with her grandparents was little Miss Cheryl Lyn Shaffer, two-months old daughter of the Russell Schaffers.

Brazeale-Rand Rites Solemnized at Stayton

Stayton—In a setting of ocean spray, gladioluses and roses in pink, and candlelight, Miss Georgia Ellen Rand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rand, Jr., of West Stayton, was wed to Robert Lee Brazeale, son of Mrs. Pauline Brazeale of Crabtree, Sunday afternoon, June 26, at 2 o'clock in the Stayton Baptist church. Rev. Willard Buckner, pastor of the church, officiated in the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Robert Schroeder of Salem played wedding music and accompanied Miss Margaret Speer of Aumsville, who sang. Mrs. A. C. Van Nuys was in charge of the church decorations.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown which had a fitted bodice of lace, a sheer yoke and buttons down the back. The full sleeves of lace terminated in ruffled cuffs. Angel skin satin fashioned the skirt which had a long train. The lace-edged fingertip veil fell from a sweetheart headdress which was trimmed in orange blossoms. The bride carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas, centered with a pink orchid which had a throat of deeper pink. A strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, was her only ornament.

Matron of honor was Mrs. William Rand of Boise, Idaho, an aunt of the bride. She wore a Nile green organza gown which was buttoned down the front to the waistline where it flared away in a long draping peplum over the full skirt. She carried a nosegay of garden flowers.

Miss Aletha Stewart of West Stayton, cousin of the bride, and Miss Lorene Brazeale of Portland, cousin of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They were gowned alike in gowns of pink sheer over taffeta, which had fitted bodices with high necklines and full sleeves above the full skirts. Each carried a nosegay of old-fashioned flowers.

Serving as best man was Warren Kelly of Crabtree and ushers were Harry Rand, brother of the bride, Lee Baughman, Lyle Vogt and Johnny Baughman. Harry Rand and Johnny Baughman lighted the tapers also.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Rand chose a two-piece dress of navy faille crepe with white accessories. Mrs. Brazeale, mother of the bridegroom, wore a beige gabardine suit with brown accessories. Pink rosebuds were used in corsages for both mothers.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. Misses Marg Ware, Marie Fery and Sharon Gehlen, all of Stayton; Betty Jo Keithley of North Santiam; Patsy Tomlinson of Turner and Christine Brazeale of Bradwood, served. The wedding cake was cut by Mrs. A. C. Van Nuys;

Mrs. Donald Maddux of Siletz, cousin of the bride, poured, and Mrs. Seymour Stewart, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Paul McClellan of West Stayton was in charge of the guest book. Assisting at the gift table were Misses Birdeen Smith of Stayton and Esther Keudell of West Stayton.

The couple left on a wedding trip which will take them down the coast highway through the redwoods in California and returning via Crater Lake. The bride wore a dress of salt and pepper rayon sharkskin with a green suede belt and matching bag. She wore a black picture hat with shoes and gloves of black and a white checkered short coat. She pinned her bridal orchid to her coat.

Mr. and Mrs. Brazeale will be at home in Albany after July 1. The bride graduated from Stayton high school with the class of 1948 and has been employed by the Paris Woolen mills of Stayton for the past year. She was a princess of the 1947 Santiam bean festival. The bridegroom graduated from Albany high school in 1947 and is employed with the Stanton packing plant at Albany.

Attending the wedding from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. William L. Rand of Boise, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. James Rand, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hammond, Sr., and Dorothy Lee, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brown, Kenneth and Nancy, all of Yakima, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brazeale and daughter, Christine, of Bradwood.
