Page to Take Oath on Friday

Circuit Judge E. M. Page plans to take the oath of office as a justice of the Oregon supreme court next Friday morning and it is likely that Rex Kiming and it is likely that kex kim-mell, now assistant attorney general, will immediately there-after be sworn in as Marion county circuit judge to succeed Judge Page. Both are appoint-ees of Governor Douglas McKay the appointments being necessi-tated by the death of Judge Per-cy R. Kelly.

Judge Page probably would have taken his place on the high tribunal earlier but he had two to decide immediately and the other will follow soon and his docket will be cleared.

Judge Page became circuit judge for this county June 14, 1941 by virtue of appoinment by the then Governor Charles A. Sprague. The office to which he the auto which turned over, it proceeded under its own power after it was righted.
