Salemites Wed at Reno

Announcement is made by Ernest Aeschlimann of the marriage of his daughter, Miss Marcelle Aeschlimann, to James C. Loder, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Loder, all of Salem.

The wedding was an event of Sunday evening, July 3, in Reno, Nev. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boyle of Klamath Falls attended the couple.

The newlyweds will be at Carmel, Calif., this week, planning to return to Salem next Sunday. They will make their home here.

Dickman-Thiessen Wedding Recently

Smithfield—The Evangelical Menonite Brethren church was decorated with royal lillies, pale blue delphiniums, pink cluster roses, greenery and candles for the wedding of Miss Evelyn Thiessen and Harold Dickman, the Rev. A. P. Toews, pastor, officiating at the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Thiessen of Dallas, Mr. Dickman the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dickman of Saskatoon, Sask., Canada.

Nels Friesen sang. Mrs. Harlan Ratzlaff of Salem presided at the organ.

The bride wore a wedding gown of pale eggshell satin fashioned with a bertha collar and long sleeves coming to a point at the wrist. The train was full length. The bodice had inserts of illusions net, the same as the veil which was embroidered and was fingertip length. It was held in place with a pearl edged halo. The bride carried a white Bible and a single orchid with streamers and rosebuds. She wore a necklace, a gift of the bridegroom. Her only attendant was Mrs. Clarence Hildebrand, who wore a pink sheer formal and carried a colonial nosegay of pink and sweet peas.

The candle lighters were the Misses Beryl Pope and Alvina Frey. They both wore pink sheer gowns and gardenia corsages.

Arnold Dickman was best man for his brother. The ushers were Donald Thiessen, brother of the bride and Gladwyn Schmidt.

Mrs. Thiessen, the bride's mother, wore navy blue with white accessories. Mrs. Dickman, the bridegroom's mother, wore a powder blue dress and gold accessories. Their corsages were of gardenias and rosebuds.

The social rooms of the church were decorated in gold and aqua. The bride's table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple. Miss Hulda Ens, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Peter Teichrow and Mr. and Mrs. John Friesen served the bridegroom's cake. Mrs. John Isaac was in charge of the coffee urns. Jack Thiessen, Jake N. Thiessen, John Isaac, and Peter Brandt served. The bride's associates of the church choir assisted about the rooms. Misses Lavina Harder, Florence Frey, and Aganetha Wall were in charge of the gift tables.

Mr. Dickman received his schooling in Canada. He is employed in Dallas. Mrs. Dickman attended Dallas schools and Beacon Bible school. She is employed at the Dallas bank. They will reside in Dallas after a short honeymoon.
