Tea July 19 Will Honor Brides-Elect

Among affairs of note for mid-July will be the tea for which Mrs. David Eason and Mrs. George Rossman are to be hostesses on Tuesday afternoon, July 19, at the Eason home.

The tea will honor Miss Phyllis Schnell, bride-elect of Robert Strehlg, and Miss Margaret Jane Cooley, who is to be married in August to John Philip Maulding of Tillamook.

The tea is to be between 3 and 5:30 o'clock.

Reception For Visitor

Honoring Mrs. Rhea Robbins, visitor from Canyon, Texas, guest at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield Walker, a reception will be given this evening at the Walker residence.

Guests are invited to call between 8:30 and 10:30 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Walker will greet the guests with Mrs. Robbins.

Pouring will be Mrs. Ira Turner, Mrs. Earl Brooks and Mrs. Carroll Addison. Mrs. Arthur Lewis is in charge in the dining room and Mrs. R. W. PicKell will assist with the serving.

Pink and white sweet peas and candles will decorate the serving table. The same flowers will be used about the rooms.

Mrs. Robbins is to leave Friday for her home.

Rebekah Lodge's Meeting Reported

Salem Rebekah Lodge No. 1 maintained tradition by meeting Monday on the regular date despite it being July Fourth.

Activities announced include: F. L. club formerly announced for July 7 postponed until July 15 at 8 p.m., at the home of Miss Dessie McClay, 325 Mission street.

Grand officers for installation to practice Thursday at 8 p.m. at the IOOF temple.

Officers-elect, appointive officers and grand officers will practice for installation, Sunday at 2 p.m. at the IOOF temple.

Joint installation will be held following a brief meeting next Monday evening, and the public is invited to attend.

WCTU Event

North Salem WCTU is meeting Friday noon for its annual no-host picnic at the home of Mrs. John Van Lydegraf, 2035 McCoy. Each one attending is to take her own table service.

The program will open at 1:30 p.m. with Mrs. Vernon G. Story leading the devotions. Vernon and Rebecca Story are to give special music.

There is to be a speaker from the Children's farm home. Following the program there will be the white ribbon recruitment.

THE SPIRITUALIST Sun-flower club is meeting Thursday with Mrs. Minnie Gazeley in Lebanon. Cars will leave Salem at 10 a.m. from 379 North Cottage.

New Art Exhibit

Opening at the Elstrom art galleries Wednesday was an exhibition of the work of William Givler, director of the Portland Art Museum school. The showing includes paintings and lithographs, and is of special interest because of the variety of work, including landscapes, portraits and other works.

Mr. Givler currently is showing his work in the All-Oregon exhibit in the Portland museum. He has exhibited in Chicago and New York and other places.

The local exhibit will be up for two weeks. Among the unusual work is Mr. Givler's purple lithograph, "The Window." Also of special note are his beach scenes, particularly of the Oregon beaches.

Along with the Givler exhibit is the showing of bird prints done by P. M. Hart of Salem, these being in the little print room at the galleries.

Surprise Birthday Event on Tuesday

James R. Phillips was honored at a surprise party Tuesday evening on the occasion of his birthday when Mrs. Phillips entertained at a buffet dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Phillips, Sr.

In the group were: Mr. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Phillips, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Salstrom, Miss Suzanne Small, Daniel J. Fry, Jr., Miss Miriam Shellenberger, Theodore Flook, Don Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Phillips and Mrs. James R. Phillips.

VISITORS here over the Fourth of July week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Roger Baker and four children from Walla Walla, Wash., and Mr. Baker's brother and sister-in-law, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Alan Baker and their two children from Berkeley, Calif. They were guests of Mrs. Roger Baker's mother, Mrs. A. C. F. Perry, also of the two men's father, Oscar D. Baker at Macleay.

AMONG visitors in the capital during July are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fisher (Nancy Thielsen) of Washington, D.C., who are guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fisher. They drove west and were met in Boise by her father, Frederick Thielsen. They then went to Tacoma to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick (Ted) Thielsen, Jr. This past week-end the Earl Fishers and Edward Fishers were at Neskowin, and later will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. K. DeWitt, uncle and aunt of Mrs. Fisher at Mehama.

Wedding in Portland—Mr. and Mrs. Lou Lamar Williams (Zarelda Mae Prince) were married in early June in the Reed college chapel, Portland. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kenneth Prince of Salem, Mr. Williams the son of Mrs. Betty Lamar of Brooks.

Miss Vetsch Wed Monday Morning at Mt. Angel

Mt. Angel—St. Mary's Catholic church, Mt. Angel, was the scene of a wedding ceremony Monday morning, July 4, when Miss Lenore Vetsch and Wilbur Schaecher spoke their vows at double ring rites. Rev. Hildebrand Melchior, OSB, officiated and offered the nuptial high mass.

The altar and sanctuary were decorated in ocean spray, and pink and white summer blooms. The St. Mary's choir sang the mass, and hymn duets were sung by the Misses Pauline Saalfeld and Eustelle Bauman, accompanied by Miss Helen Keber, who also played the marches.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Vetsch of Edmonton, Canada, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schaecher.

Alphonse Schaecher, brother-in-law of the bride, gave her in marriage. Her wedding gown of marquisette over taffeta was fashioned on princess lines, with low off-shoulder ruffle, long sleeves, and full train. She wore a double veil of tulle edged in Frenc h lace, in fingertip length, held by an embroidered tulle cap, and she carried a white prayer book topped by an orchid and satin streamers with stephanotis.

Attending the bride as bridesmaids were the Misses Lillian Stupfel and Lorraine Stupfel of Milwaukee. Both wore floor-length gowns of pink ninon voile, styled with cap sleeves, and made similar to the brides. They carried Colonial bouquets of salmon pink gladioluses, and wore headdresses of the same flowers in their hair.

Janice Jacobson, little niece of the bridegroom was flower girl, dressed in light green ninon voile, made tip-toe length. Her flowers in miniature were like the bridesmaids.

Joseph Schmidt served as best man, and ushers were Norbert Schaecher and Leonard Schmalz.

Mrs. Schaecher, mother of the bridegroom was dressed in a flowered silk print afternoon dress for her son's wedding. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Immediately after the ceremony the breakfast was served at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Schaecher. The dinner was held at the St. Mary's dining hall.

Serving were the Misses Patricia Gass, Marion Gass, Aileen Gass, cousins of the bride from McMinnville; Irene Susa, Clara Baune of Woodburn and Virginia Deck. They also assisted at serving at the reception held at the same place during the afternoon. Mrs. Alphonse Schaecher, sister to the bride, wearing a black and white crepe afternoon dress and a corsage of carnations, cut the cake. The bridesmaids opened the gifts and were in charge with the gift table.

A dance was held in the evening, after which the couple left on a wedding trip. They will reside in Silverton.

Miss Wyffels Wed Sunday

Miss Betty M. Wyffels, daughter of the Charles Wyffels of Woodburn, was wed to Ralph Stenger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stenger of Gervais, at a nuptial mass in Sacred Heart church at Gervais on Sunday, July 3. Father Martin Doherty officiated at the ceremony.

Entering on the arm of her father, the tall blonde bride wore a dress of white satin with a lace yoke and a wide lace pelerin accentuating a fitted waistline. The skirt was caught up in front to reveal lace. A full-length veil, edged with lace, fell from a coronet of seed pearls. The bride carried a white orchid in a nosegay bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Peggy Wyffels was maid of honor for her sister. Her dress of apple green taffeta was similar to that of the bride but with a marquisette yoke and a pointed waistline. Bridesmaids were Misses Katherine Becker and Ann Stenger. They wore simple gowns of rose taffeta with back interest in double bustles. The attendants carried nosegays of baby white chrysanthemums.

Leonard Obersinner was best man for Mr. Stenger. Also in the bridal party were Norman Wyffels, brother of the bride and Bud Petrich. Ushers were Clarence Erwert and LaVern Eggers.

The bride's mother attended the ceremony in a gray suit with navy blue accessories. Mrs. Stenger chose a navy blue print. Her accessories were white. The mothers wore corsages of coral gladioluses.

Following the wedding a breakfast was served in St.

Recent Bride — The marriage of Mrs. Donald Dimbat, the former Phyllis Sanders, was solemnized June 11 in Calvary Baptist church. Mrs. Dimbat is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Sanders and Mr. Dimbat is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Dimbat of Turner. (McEwan studio picture)

Mary's dining room, Mt. Angel. Misses Anne and Theresa Duda were in charge of preparations. Serving were Misses Dorothy Prosser, Laura Schwab, Mary Kerr, Mary Lou Weissenfels, and Marian Rickert, all classmates of the bride.

At the afternoon reception Mrs. Eleanor Schmidt cut the bride's cake. Miss Phyllis Wolf passed the guest book. Serving were Misses Lois and Mary Ann Eggers and Vivian Vreeland.

The newlyweds are honeymooning at Yellowstone. For going away, Mrs. Stenger chose a summer print with white accessories. When the couple return they will live in Woodburn.

Spinsters Plan Party

Final plans for their party to be given next Friday evening were talked over by members of the Spinsters club when they met last evening at the home of Miss June Young. About 20 attended.

The group is sponsoring a basket social and square dance party Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Salem Golf club for members and guests. Neil Brown is to be on hand to direct square dancing. Charles A. Barclay will officiate at the auction of baskets, proceeds from which will go to the club's philanthropic funds. Miss Margaret Lovell is general chairman for the party.

Co-hostesses with Miss Young for last night's meeting were Misses Mariann Croisan and Miss Margaret Jane Cooley.

Next meeting will be July 25 at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Barclay.

IN GLADSTONE, Saturday evening, were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Moritz to attend the wedding of Miss Paula Halliday of Oceanlake and Donald MacInnes of Oregon City. Mr. MacInnes is a cousin of Mr. Moritz. The wedding was in the Gladstone Christian church, the reception following also being at the church.

Guests at the Moritz home in Manbrin Gardens through Friday were Mr. and Mrs. George Burns and daughter, Eleanor of Portland.

OREGON Grape camp, Royal Neighbors of America, is to meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall.

Haunting About Johnson's

THE VERY FIRST THING you'll notice about this informal beauty is its crash linen-like weave (really rayon). Cool fun for afternoon or evening, this is a Saba of California dress; has short sleeves, is belted and sports slash pockets with contrasting trim. At the throat a Royal Crest is embroidered. Twotoned at JOHNSON'S in Green, Cocoa, Navy Sizes 9-15, $10.95.

A CHARMING COUPLE. First the Pedal Pushers of Julliard "Zephyr" . . . have real cuffs, big slash pockets, side zipper. Then the Loafer Shirt—a Jo Collins seersucker with long sleeves which you may wear as a blouse or jacket. Gay colors with painter's daubs ev'rywhere. Sizes 9-15, $3.98. The Pedal Pushers in Grey, Green and others, $5.95.

COMFORT AND IMPORTANT COMFORT is built into the Marian Sue Maternity Dress with its convenient snap-adjustment. So pretty, too.
