

Senators Nose Out Chiefs In Series Opener by 9-8

Wenatchee, Wash., July 6—Manager Charlie Peterson scraped the bottom of the barrel Tuesday night as he employed a catcher and an outfielder in the role of pitchers as the Chiefs faced the Salem Senators in the first of a three-game series.

But in spite of the fact the pair were given six tallies in the first two innings to work on, Lee Winter, the catcher-pitcher, and Al Libke, the outfielder-chucker couldn't quite turn the trick and the Solons won, 9-8. The struggle lasted two hours and 55 minutes with Hank Sciarra drawing the win. Hank replaced Jim Foster in the sixth after the starting moundsman had issued 12 walks, hit one batter and had been touched for 11 hits, good for eight runs.

The four fingers issued a grand total of 25 bases on balls with Salem having 12 and Wenatchee 14 runners stranded. Hal Rhyne, the Chiefs' first sacker, out of play with an injured hand, returned in the role of a pinch hitter and was walked by Sierra.

Bud Peterson, shortstop, led the Salem attack with a home-run, triple and two-bagger. Bob Cherry hit a three-run homer for the visitors in the third when they got their first trio of runs.

The loss cut the Chiefs' margin over the Senators by one and a half games. Dewey Soriano was lifted in the fourth for Ted Savarese as the Yakima Bears dropped a 6 to 4 loss to the Spokane Indians. The act kept the Bear boss from being charged with the defeat. At Tacoma, the tallgate riding Tigers suffered their eighth straight defeat to the second place Capilans, 5-1. Big Bill Marshall racked up his 16th win as the Bremerton Tars blanked Victoria, 13-0.

Reliever Becomes Top Hurler for St. Louis

New York, July 6 (AP)—Howie Pollet, who found his relief in relief, was the do-or-die darling of the St. Louis Cardinals today. He has risen from a loss-plattered showerbath pitcher to a dependable clutch man in the short space of two months, as witness his 10th victory of the season yesterday when the Cards bested the Chicago Cubs, 2 to 1, in 10 innings. That, coupled with Brooklyn's 7-2 loss to the Phillies, left the Redbirds one game out of first place in the National league.

A 21-game winner in 1946, Pollet suffered arm trouble in '47 and seemed doomed to the minors for sure when he lost his first two starts this season. But Eddie Dyer decided to give him a crack at relief pitching. That was the beginning of the comeback. In three relief tricks he gave up only one hit and one run in nine innings.

Impressed, Dyer gave him another starting assignment. That was May 14 against the Pirates, and Handsome Howie won it. Since then he has been a mainstay in the sometimes faltering but always tenacious Card chase after the Dodgers.

It was in relief for Harry Brecheen that Pollet won the game yesterday. Victory came for the Cards in the 10th inning on Al Schoendienst's single, Marty Marion's single and Stan Musial's force-out. There were no other games scheduled in the National. In the American, the Boston

Red Sox finally ended their losing streak at eight games when they beat the Yankees, 4 to 2.

The Cleveland Indians, not yet sunk in their battle to retain their championship, completed a sweep of the three-game series with the Detroit Tigers, winning 8 to 1.

And for the ho-hum department, the Browns beat the White Sox, 9 to 5.

Washington and Philadelphia were not scheduled.

Silverton Sox edged Kansas City Monarchs, 4 to 3.

Silverton—Taking advantage of walks and errors, the Silverton Red Sox edged the Kansas City Monarchs Tuesday night, 4 to 3 before a good sized group of spectators. The Sox were held to three hits by Pitcher Wooden. Chuck Sauvain turned in a six hit pitching job, as the Sox held a 3 to 1 lead going into the ninth when Lacy Curry hit a two run homer.

plained. "We are playing close to .500 ball and a team won't have to do much better to be in there."

Actually Joe has a good point. On Independence day, the Red Sox were only one game off their 1948 July pace. At that time there were "only" eight games back of the leading Indians. But the Yanks this year were setting a much hotter pace, playing .658 ball compared with Cleveland's leading .631 average at the same period last year.

So it evolves into a question of whether the Red Hot Yankees will taper off and come back to the pack. Marse Joe seems to believe that they will.

"There's still a long way to go," he mused.

Maybe McCarthy is just whistling past a graveyard, trying to preserve appearances in the face of disaster. But baseball men always point to those "miracle" Braves of 1914. They were 15 games back, in last place, on July 4—and won by 10 1/2 games.

Being Irish, Joe probably believes in leprechauns, miracles and such. He certainly gives that appearance.

Aurora Player Fractures Leg In Practice Go

Aurora—Lloyd Mendenhall was resigned to a long period of convalescence Wednesday as he waited for a compound fracture of his leg to mend. The injury was sustained as he slid into second base at Lone Elder field during a recent practice session. The injured player was rushed to the office of a Canby physician where the leg was set. The game was called off after the accident by the team manager, Al Mendenhall, the injured player's brother.

Battling Indian Ousted for Tiff With WIL Empire

Tacoma, Wash., July 6 (AP) Jack Calvey, Spokane Indian shortstop, has been suspended for the rest of the season, Western International League President Robert Abel said here today.

Abel said the suspension was the result of an argument in Wenatchee last Saturday night in which Empire Max Skulik was reportedly roughed up. Skulik forfeited the game, which was tied 8-8, to Wenatchee. Calvey was one of six Spokane players kicked out of the game.

Abel returned here yesterday after making a trip to Wenatchee to investigate the incident.

Five Home Tilts Listed for Viks In 1949 Gridiron

The 1949 football schedule for Salem high's Vikings, which lists five home games, was released Wednesday by Vernon Gilmore, athletic director.

The first game will be played against Vancouver on the Washington state team's home field on Sept. 16. The home debut of Coach Loren Mort's squad will be made the following, Friday night, Sept. 23, when the Klamath Falls squad invades the local grid.

October 1 and 7 are also listed as home dates with Albany and Bend respectively. Both of those contests are Big Six league affairs. On Oct. 14, the Viks travel to Springfield for their third Big Six game.

Hillsboro and Corvallis follow on successive Fridays on the Viking home field with the final games of the season, Nov. 4 and 11 to be played in Astoria and Eugene.

No Hitters Mark B League Action Tuesday Night

Larry Martin and Jimmy Rice pitched no hitters Tuesday night as the Salem Junior hardball B league swung into action. Martin's performance was largely responsible for Mayflower's 2 to 0 decision over Salem Laundry.

Rice was on the mound for West Salem Lumber which triumphed over Salem Heights 11-3. Martin faced only 23 batters in the seven inning contest as he fanned an even dozen. A two-run homer by Catcher Beebe in the fourth accounted for the milkmen's margin of victory.

The Salem Realtors scored three runs on as many hits in the third to register a 3 to 1 over Keizer Merchants.

Stars Hold Mid-Season Lead for PCL Pennant

San Francisco, July 6 (AP)—If mid-season outlooks mean anything then Manager Fred Haney of the Pacific Coast league's front-running Hollywood Stars is going to capture his first pennant.

Haney, who was quite a glove man himself (he played pro ball for 21 years), took over the Stars this season after a rather fruitless year with the ill-fated St. Louis Browns of the American league and Toledo in the American association. His best effort was in 1937 when he piloted the latter into a second place berth.

Today, after dropping a 5-4 series to the invading Oakland Acons last week, his Stars are still going strong and pulling away from the rest of the Pacific pack. The Stars even managed to gain a game last week while losing a series.

This came about as San Diego was unceremoniously dumping the currently second best club in the league, the Seattle Rainiers, six games to three.

Seattle will make another attempt to close the widening breach between first and second place when they entertain Sacramento tonight. The Sacs split a series 5-5 with the Portland Beavers who seem to have found themselves playing baseball after an early season make-believe start.

The Padres move into Portland tonight with a one-game hold on third place and two games out of second. Oakland, the fourth place nine, will entertain the cellar-bound Los Angeles Angels, who move across the bay after breaking ahead of Lefty O'Doul's listless Seals 5-4 in their recent series.

The O'Douglans, still fighting desperately to keep out a gutter drain which Lefty hasn't seen or been near since he took over the Seals many a year ago, journey to Hollywood to co-star with the Twinks. What kind of role they're going to get remains to be seen—if it isn't the lead, it's almost a conceded cinch there will be a new face in the cellar come next week.

Kansas lies in the exact geographical center of the United States.

Three Softball Winners Shutout Opposing Teams

Pitchers were on top Tuesday night as the City softball league resumed play following the Fourth of July layoff. Warren Miller, Golden Pheasant moundsman, hurled hitless ball as his club blanked Marine Reserve 9 to 4 in five innings.

Clarence Applegate, working for Jim Rawlins who was out with an injury, tossed a one-hitter at Randle Oil. The drug-gists won, 1 to 0. Percy Crofoot was almost as effective as he limited Mootry's to two hits.

The game was scoreless through six innings. In the seventh Hofer bunted safely, stole second and third and when a play was made on him at the third sack he dashed for home and slid

Frank Michael hurled hitless ball for the Teamsters as they downed Post Office 8 to 0 in an Industrial league contest. Naval Reserve beat Warner's 8-1 in a make-up game.

Wednesday night Naval Reserve will play Interstate at 7:30. Warner's will meet Clear Lake, and Paper Mill will tangle with Maple Dairy in three Industrial loop games.
